11 And when the king p came in to ſee the gueſts, he q ſaw there a man which had not on r a wedding garment:

12 And he ſaith unto him, Friend, how cameſt thou in hither, not having a wedding-garment? And he was † ſpeechleſs.

† Gr. Muſſled.

13 Then ſaid the king to the ſ ſervants, s Binde him hand and foot, and take him away, and caſt him into outer darkneſs: there ſhall be weeping and gnaſhing of teeth.

14 For many are called, but few are choſen.

15 Then went the Phariſees, and t took counſel how they might x intangle him in his talk.

16 And they ſent out to him their diſciples, with the Herodians, ſaying, Maſter, we know that thou art y true, and teacheſt the way of God in truth, neither careſt thou for any man; for thou z regardeſt not the perſon of men.

17 Tell us therefore, what thinkeſt thou? Is it a lawful to give tribute unto Ceſar, or not?

18 But Jeſus perceived their wickedneſs, and ſaid, Why b tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shew me the tribute-money. And they brought unto him a penny.

20 And he ſaith unto them, Whoſe is this image and ſuperſcription?

21 They ſay unto him, Ceſars. Then ſaith he unto them, Render therefore unto Ceſar, the things which g are Ceſars: and unto God, the things that e are Gods.

22 When they had heard theſe words they marvelled, and f left him, and went their way.

23 The ſame day came to him the Sadducees, which ſay that there is g no reſurrection, and asked him, 24 Saying, b Maſter, i Moſes ſaid, If a man die, having no children, k his brother ſhall marry his wife, and raiſe up ſeed unto his brother.

25 Now there were with us ſeven brethren, and the firſt, when he had married a wife, deceaſed, and having no iſſue, left his wife unto his brother.

26 Likewiſe the ſecond alſo, and the third, unto the ſeventh.

27 And laſt of all the woman died alſo.

28 Therefore in the reſurrection, whoſe wife ſhall ſhe be of the ſeven? for they all had her.

29 Jeſus anſwered and ſaid unto them, Ye do erre, l not knowing the ſcriptures, nor the m power of God.

30 For in the n reſurrection, they neither o marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the p angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the reſurrection of the dead, have ye not q read that which was ſpoken r unto you by God, ſaying, 32 I I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Iſaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, they were t aſtoniſhed at his doctrine.

34 But when the u Phariſees had heard that he had put the Sadducees x to ſilence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them which was a lawyer, asked him a queſtion, y tempting him, and ſaying, 36 Maſter, which is the great commandment in the law?

37 Jeſus ſaid unto him, Thou ſhalt love the Lord thy God with all z thy heart, and with all thy ſoul, and with all thy minde.

38 This is the a firſt and great commandment.

39 And the ſecond is like unto it, Thou ſhalt b love thy neighbor as thy ſelf.

40 On theſe two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

41 While the Phariſees were c gathered together, Jeſus asked them, 42 Saying, d What think ye of Chriſt? whoſe Son is he? They ſay unto him, The Son of David.

43 He ſaith unto them, How then doth David f in ſpirit call him Lord, ſaying, 44 The Lord ſaid unto my Lord, g Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footſtool?

45 If David then h call him Lord, how is he his Son?

46 And

46 And no man was able i to answer him a word, neither durst any man, (from that day forth) ask him any more questions.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Christ admonisheth to follow good doctrine, and not evil examples: 13 He denounceth eight woes.

THen spake Jesus to the multitude and to his disciples,

2 Saying, The Scribes and the Pharisees b sit in Moses seat:

3 All therefore c whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do: but do not ye after their d works: for they say, and e do not.

4 For they binde f heavy burthens, and grievous to be born, and lay them on mens shoulders: but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But all their works they do, for g to be seen of men; they make broad their h phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,

6 And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the i chief seats in the synagogues,

7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, k Rabbi, Rabbi.

8 But be l not ye called Rabbi, for one is your master even Christ, and all ye are brethren.

9 And call no man your m father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which n is in heaven.

10 Neither be ye called n masters: for one is your master, even Christ.

11 But he that is greatest among you, shall be your o servant.

12 And whosoever shall p exalt himself, shall be abased: and he that shall humble himself, shall be exalted.

13 But q wo unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; for ye r shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in your selves, neither suffer ye them that are entring, go in.

14 Wo unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; for ye devour widows houses, and for s a pretence make long prayers: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

15 Wo unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; for ye t compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him two fold more the childe of hell then your selves.

16 Wo unto you, ye u blinde guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is x nothing: but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor.

17 Ye f fools and blinde: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?

18 And whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing: but whosoever sweareth by the g gift that is upon it, he is guilty.

19 Ye fools and blinde: for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things h thereon.

21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that i dwelleth therein.

22 And he that shall swear by k heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 Wo unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; for ye l pay tithe of mint, and anise, and cummin, and have omitted the m weightier matters of the law, judgement, mercy, & faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the n other undone.

24 Ye blinde guides, which strain o at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

25 Wo unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; for ye make clean the p out side of the cup, and of the platter, but q within they are full of extortion, and excess.

26 Thou blinde Pharisee, cleanse r first that which is within the cup and platter, that the s outside of them may be clean also.

27 Wo unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, for ye are like unto t whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead mens bones, and of all uncleanness.

28 Even so, ye also u outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisie and iniquity.

29 Wo unto you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous, 30 And x say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31 Wherefore ye be y witnesses unto your selves, that ye are the children of them which z killed the prophets.

32 Fill ye up then the a measure of your fathers.

33 Ye b serpents, ye generation of vipers, c how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

AND Jesus a went out, and departed from the temple, and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple.
2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here b one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.
3 And as he sate upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these c things be? and what shall be the d sign of thy coming, and of the e end of the world?
4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man f deceive you.
5 For many shall come g in my name, saying, I am Christ: and shall deceive h many.
6 And ye shall hear of wars, and rumors of wars: see that ye be i not troubled: for all the k things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.
7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and k there shall be k famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes in divers places
8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.
9 Then shall they l deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall m kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my names sake.
10 And then shall many be n offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.
11 And many o false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.
12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall p wax cold.
13 But he that shall endure unto the q end, the same shall be saved.
14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached r in all the world, for a witness unto all nations, and then shall the s end come.
15 When ye therefore shall see the t abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand) 16 Then let them which be in Judea flee into the u mountains.
17 Let him which is on the house top, not come down to take any thing out of his house:
18 Neither let him which is in the field, return back to take x his clothes.
19 And wo unto them that y are with childe, and to them that give suck in those days.
20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the z sabbath day.
21 For then shall be a great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.
22 And except those days should be shortned, there should no flesh be saved: but for the c elects sake those days shall be shortned.
23 d Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there: e believe it not.
24 For there shall arise f false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs, and wonders, insomuch that (if it were g possible) they shall deceive the very elect.
25 Behold, I have h told you before.
26 Wherefore, if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the i desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the k secret chambers, believe it not.
27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west: l so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.
28 For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be m gathered together.

for him, and in an hour that he is not ware of:

51 And shall s cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAP. XXV.

The parable of the ten virgins.

THen a shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and b went forth to meet the bridegoom.

2 And five of them were c wise, and five were d foolish.

3 They that were foolish, took their lamps, and took e no oyl with them:

4 But the wise took f oyl in their vessels g with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom h tarried, they all slumbred and slept.

6 And at midnight there was i a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom k cometh, l go ye out to meet him

7 Then all those virgins arose, and m trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oyl, for our lamps are n gone out

9 But the wise answered, saying,
Not so, lest there be o not enough for us and you; but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for your selves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and they that were p ready, went in with him to the marriage, and the door was q shut.

11 r Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily
I say unto you, s I know you not

13 t Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day, nor the hour, wherein the Son of man cometh.

14 For the u kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and x delivered unto them his goods:

CHAP. XXVI.

1 A conspiracy against Christ: 14 Judas selleth him: 17 He eateth the passover.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, a he said unto his disciples,

2 b Ye know that after two days c the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

3 Then d assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

4 And d consulted that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be e an uproar among the people.

6 Now when Jesus was in f Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, 7 There came unto him a woman, having an alabaster box of very g precious ointment, and poured it on his head as he sat at meat.

8 But when his h disciples saw it, they had i indignation, saying, To what purpose is this k waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and l given to the poor.

10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought m a good work upon me.

11 For ye have the poor n always with you, but me ye have o not always.

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for p my burial.

13 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for q a memorial of her.

14 Then r one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, s went unto the chief priests, 15 And said unto them, t what will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for u thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought x opportunity to betray him.

17 Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, z My time is at hand, I will a keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them, and they made ready the passover.

20 Now when the b even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that c one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding d sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, e Is it I?

23 And he answered and said, He that f dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man g goeth as it is written of him: but h woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man, if he had not been born.

25 Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He i said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 And as they were eating, Jesus took k bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the m disciples, and said, Take, eat, this is my body.

27 And he took the cup, and n gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

28 For this is my blood of o the new testament, which is shed for many, for the remission of sins.

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 And when they had sung an q hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

31 Then said Jesus unto them, All ye shall be r offended because of me this night: for it is written, I s will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I am risen again, I will t go before you into Galilee.

33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

34 Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that x this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Peter said unto him, Though I should y die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and with staves for b to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.
56 But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the c disciples forsook him, and fled.
57 And they that had laid hold on Jesus, d led him away to e Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.
58 But Peter followed him f afar off, unto the high priests palace, and went in, and g sat with the servants to see the end.
59 Now the chief priests and elders, and all the counsel, h sought false witness against Jesus to put him to death:
60 But i found none; yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came k two false witnesses, 61 And said, This fellow said, I l am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.
62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it, which these witness against thee?
63 But Jesus m held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, n I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God.
64 Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless, I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye o see the son of man sitting on the p right hand of power, and q coming in the clouds of heaven.
65 Then the high priest r rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy: what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.
66 What think ye? They answered and said, he is ſ guilty of death.
67 Then did they t spit in his face, and buffeted him, and others smote him with the palms of their hands, 68 Saying, u prophesie unto us, thou Christ, who is he that smote thee?
69 Now Peter x sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee.

70 But he y denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth.

72 And again he denied z with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them, for thy speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he b to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

75 And Peter remembred the words of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he c went out, and wept bitterly.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Christ is delivered to Pilate. 3 Judas hangeth himself.

When the a morning was come, all the chief priests, and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death.

2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to b Pontius Pilate the governor.

3 c Then Judas which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, d repented himself, and e brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the f innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? g see thou to that.

5 And he h cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and i departed, and went and k hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the l treasury, because it is the m price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potters field, to bury n strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day.

9 (Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by o Jeremiah the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was p valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value:

10 And gave them for the potters field, as the Lord appointed me.)

11 And Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the r king of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, s Thou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered t nothing.

13 Then saith Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how u many things they witness against thee?

14 And he answered him x to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

15 Now at that feast the governor was wont y to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then z a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release a unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus, which is called Christ?

18 For b he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19 When he was set down on the judgement seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that c just man; for I have suffered many things this day in a dream, because of him.

20 But the d chief priests and elders perswaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They e said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate saith unto them, f What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They g all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governor said, Why, h what evil hath he done? but they i cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and k washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people and said, His blood be on us, and on our children.

26 Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had n scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 Then the o soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and p gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and put on him q a scarlet robe.

29 And when they had platted r a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand:

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Christ's resurrection declared: 16 He appeareth to his disciples.

IN the a end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn, toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, b to see the sepulchre.

2 And behold, there was b a great earth-quake, for the angel of the LORD descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment c white as snow.

4 And for d fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, e Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified.

6 He is not here: for he is risen, f as he said: Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and g tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead. And behold, he goeth before you into Galilee, there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre, with h fear and great joy, and did run to bring his disciples word.

9 And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus i met them, saying, All hail. And they came, and held him by the k feet, & worshipped him.

10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go, tell l my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they m see me.

11 Now when they were going, Behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests n all o things that were done.

12 And when they were assembled w the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave p large money unto the soldiers, 13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we q slept.

14 And if this come to the governors ears, we will persuade him, and q secure you.

15 So they r took the money, and did as they were taught. And this saying is commonly reported among the Jews s until this day.

16 Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into t a mountain, where Jesus had appointed them.

17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.

18 And Jesus came, and spake unto them, saying, u All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

19 x Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Ghost:

20 Teaching them to y observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of z world. Amen.

4 John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the d baptism of repentance, for the remission of sins.

5 And there went out unto him all the land of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, e confessing their sins.

6 And John was clothed with camels hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins: and he did eat locusts, and f wilde honey:

7 And preached, saying, There cometh one g mightier then I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

8 I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the h holy Ghost.

9 And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from i Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan.

multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken, Behold, there went out a sower to sowe:

4 And it came to pass as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came, and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth: and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth.

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched, and because it had e no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and f choaked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on g good ground, and did yield fruit, that sprang up, and increased, and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath h ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve, asked of him the parable.

11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is i given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are k without, all these things are done in parables:

12 That l seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will you know all parables?

14 The sower soweth the m word.

15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sowen, but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word n was sowen in their o hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sowen on stony ground, who when they have heard the word, p immediately receive it with gladness:

17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward when q affliction or persecution ariseth for the words sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sowen among thorns: such as hear the word, 19 And the cares of this world, and the r deceitfulness of riches, and the r lusts of other things, entering in, choak the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are they which are sowen on good ground, such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth f fruit, some thirty fold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

21 And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under t a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?

22 For there is nothing hid, which shall not be u manifested: neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And he said unto them, Take heed x what you hear: with y what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear, shall more be given.

25 For he that z hath, to him shall be given; and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26 And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast a seed into the ground, 27 And should b sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and c grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of her self, d first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the e sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 And he said, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a grain of mustard-seed: which when it is sowen in the earth, is f less then all the seeds that be in the earth.

32 But when it is sowen, it g groweth up, and becometh greater then all herbs, and shooteth out great branches, so that the fowls of the air may h lodge under the shadow of it.

33 And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were b able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he i expounded all things to his disciples.

35 And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.

17 For Herod himself had sent forth, and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison o for Herodias sake, his brother Philips wife: for he had married her.

18 For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brothers wife.

19 Therefore Herodias had p a quarrel against him, and would have killed him, but she could not,

20 For Herod q feared John, knowing that he was a just man, and an holy, and observed him: and when he heard him, he did r many things, and heard him s gladly.

21 And when a t convenient day was come, that Herod on his birth-day made a supper to his u lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee:

22 And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and x pleased Herod, and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23 And he y sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, z The head of John the Baptist.

25 And she came in a straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger, the head of John the Baptist.

26 And the king was exceeding sorry, yet for his b oaths sake, and for their sakes which c sat with him, he would not reject her.

27 And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went, and beheaded him in the prison, 28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel, and the damsel gave it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard d of it, they came and took up his corps, and laid it in a tomb.

30 And the apostles gathered themselves together e unto Jesus, & told him all things, both what they had f done, and what they had taught.

31 And he said unto them, Come ye your selves apart into a desert place, and g rest a while. For there were many coming and going, and they had no leasure so much as to eat.

32 And they h departed into a desert place by ship privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and i ran afoot thither out of all the cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

34 And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were k as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things.

35 And when the day was now l far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed, 36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy them selves bread: for they have m nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred peny-worth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, n Five, and two fishes.

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down by † companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves, and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and o blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, and were p filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And q they that did eat of the loaves, were about five thousand men.

45 And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the r other side before unto Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.

46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

47 And when he was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled (that is to say, with unwashen) hands, they b found fault.
3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.
4 And when they come from the market, except they c wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and d pots, bra-zen vessels, and of tables.
5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the e tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?
6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias f prophesied of you, hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoreth me with their g lips, but their heart is far from me.
7 Howbeit h in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the traditions of men.
8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots, and cups: and many other such like things ye do.
9 And he said unto them, ‡ Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.
10 For Moses said, Honor thy father and thy mother: and whoso i curseth father or mother, let him die the death.
11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is ‡ Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me: he shall be free.
12 And ye k suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother.
13 Making the word of God l of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.
14 And when he had called all the people unto him, He said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand.
15 There is nothing from m without a man, that entring into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile
the man.
16 If any man have n ears to hear,
let him hear.
17 And when he was entred into the house from the people, his disciples o asked him concerning the parable.
18 And he saith unto them, Are ye p without understanding also? do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entreth into the man, it cannot defile him;
19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the q draught, purging all meats?
20 And he said, That which cometh r out of the man, that defileth
the man.
21 For from within, out of s the heart of men, proceed t evil thoughts adulteries, fornications, murthers, 22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an u evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:
23 All these evil things come from x within, and defile the man.

4 And his disciples answered him, From d whence can a man satisfie these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And he asked them how many loaves have ye? and they said, e Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and f gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them: and they did set them before them.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and he g blessed, and commanded to set them also before the people.

8 So they did eat, and were h filled: and they took up the broken meat that was left, seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten, were about i four thousand, and he sent them away.

10 And straightway he entred into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of k Dalmanutha.

11 And the Pharisees came forth, and began to l question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he m sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? Verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

13 And he n left them, and entring into the ship again, departed to the other side.

14 § Now the disciples had o forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 And he charged them, saying, † Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned p among themselves, saying, it is because we have no bread.

17 And when Jesus q knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet r hardened?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not s remember?

19 When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And when the seven among four thousand, t how many baskets full full of fragments took ye up ? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, i How is it that ye do not understand ?

22 And he cometh to k Bethsaida, and l they bring a blinde man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

23 And he took the blinde man by the hand, and led him out of the town, and when he had m spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see n men, as trees, walking.

25 After that he put his hands o again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, p nor tell it to any in the town.

27 And Jesus went out, and his disciples into the towns of Cesarea Philippi; and q by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am ?

28 And they answered, r John the Baptist: but some say, Elias: and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say s ye that I am ? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ.

30 And he t charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be u rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying x openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about, and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behinde me, Satan: for thou y savorest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 And when he had called the people unto him, with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him z deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 For whosoever will a save his life, shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospels, the same shall save it.

36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall b gain the whole world, and lose his own soul ?

37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul ?

38 Whosoever therefore shall be d ashamed of me, and of my words, in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father, with the holy angels.

CHAP. IX.

2 Jesus transfigured: 11 He instructeth his disciples.

AND he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, that there be some of them that stand here, which shall a not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.

2 And after six days, Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain b apart by themselves: and he was transfigured c before them.

3 And his raiment became d shining, exceeding white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them.

4 And there e appeared unto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter answered, and said to Jesus, Master, f it is good for us to be here, and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 For he wist not what to say, for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was a g cloud that overshadowed them: and a h voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save i Jesus only with themselves.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another, l what the rising from the dead should mean.

11 And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes, that Elias must m first come ?

12 And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, & restoreth all things, and how it is n written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be o set at nought.

13 But I say p unto you, that Elias is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them?

17 And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit;

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he f teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples, that they should cast him out, and they s could not.

20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, t straightway the spirit tare him, and he fell on the ground, and wallowed f foaming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, y Of a childe.

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him, and he was as one d dead, insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up, and he g arose.

28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, g Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kinde can come forth by nothing, but by h prayer and fasting.

30 ¶ And they i departed thence, and passed through Galilee, and he would not that any man should know it.

32 But they l understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33 And he came to Capernaum, and being in the house, he asked them, m What was it that ye disputed among your selves by the way?

34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the n greatest.

35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and o servant of all.

36 And he took a childe, and set him in the p midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them,

37 Whosoever shall q receive one of such children in my Name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils r in thy Name, and he followeth us not, and we s forbad him, because he followed not us.

39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not, for there is no man which shall do a miracle s in my Name, that can lightly speak evil of me.

40 For he that is not against us, is u on our part.

41 For whosoever shall give you a x cup of water to drink in my Name, because ye belong to Christ: verily I say unto you, He shall not lose his reward.

42 And whosoever shall offend one of these y little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars, and rumors of wars, be ye h not troubled: for such things must needs be, but the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be i famines, and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorrows.

9 But take heed to your selves: for they shall k deliver you up to councils, and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten, and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

10 And the gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought m before hand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the holy Ghost.

12 Now the brother shall n betray the brother to death, and the father the son: and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my names sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by p Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth, understand) then let them that be in Judea flee to the mountains:

15 And let him that is on the house top, not go down into the house, neither enter therein, q to take any thing out of his house

16 And let him that is in the field, not turn back again for to take up his garment.

17 But wo to them that are r with child, and to them that give suck in those days.

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created, unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortned those days, no flesh should be saved: but for the elects sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortned the days.

CHAP. XIV.

1 A conspiracy against Christ: 3 Ointment poured on his head:

a Mat. 26. 1. b John 11. 48 ‡ But before. Rom. 3. 15. c Mat. 26. 6.

AFter a two days, was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by b craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, ‡ not on the feast day lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 And being in Bethany, in the house of c Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman, having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard, very d precious, and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were e some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more then three hundred pence, and have been given to the f poor: and they murmured against her.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone, why trouble you her? she hath wrought g a good work on me.

7 For ye have the poor with you h always, and whensoever ye will, ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done † what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached thorowout the whole world, this also that she hath i done, shall be spoken of, for a memorial of her.

10 And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, k went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were l glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 And the m first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare, that thou mayest eat the passover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the n city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water; follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the good man of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room, furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

17 And in the o evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they p sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, q one of you which eateth with me, shall betray me.

19 And they began to be r sorrowful, and to say s unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that t dippeth with me in the dish.

21 The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is u written of him: but x woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed: good were it for that man, if he had never been born.

22 And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and y blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given z thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for a many.

25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the b kingdom of God.

26 And when they had sung an hymn, they c went out into the mount of olives.

27 And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 But after that I am e risen, I will go before you into Galilee.

29 But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet f will not I.

30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that this day, even in g this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 And they came to a place which was named Gethsemani, and he saith to his disciples, h Sit ye here, while I shall pray.

33 And he taketh with him i Peter, and James, and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy, 34 And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding k sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed, that if it were possible the l hour might pass from him.

36 And he said, m Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee, take away this cup from me: nevertheless, not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them n sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest thou not watch one hour?

38 o Watch ye, and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and p prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them q asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy) neither wist they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, & take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come, behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of r sinners.

42 Rise up, f let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh s Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders.

44 And he that betrayed him, had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take u him, and lead him away safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, † Master, master, and kissed him.

46 And they x laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by, y drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, z Are ye come out as against a thief, with swords, and with staves to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but a the scriptures must be fulfilled.

50 And they b all forsook him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body, and the young men c laid hold on him.

52 And he d left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 And they e led Jesus away to the high priest, and with him were assembled all the chief priests, and the elders, and the scribes.

54 And Peter followed him f afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he g sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

55 And the chief priests, and all the counsel b sought for witness against Jesus, to put him to death, and i found none.

a Psa. 4.16. b Mat. 27.1. Jesus is brought bound before Pilate.

AND a straightway in the morning, the b chief priests held a consultation with the elders, and scribes, and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.
2 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the king of the Jews? And he answering, said unto him, c Thou sayest it.
3 And the chief priest accused him of many things: but he answered d nothing.
4 And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold, how many things they witness against thee.
5 But Jesus yet answered f nothing; so that Pilate marvelled.
6 Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, g whomsoever they desired.
7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed h murther in the insurrection.
8 And the multitude crying aloud, began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.
9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the king of the Jews?
10 (For i he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for k envy.)
11 But the l chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.
12 And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the king of the Jews?
13 And m they cried out again, Crucifie him.
14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why? n what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucifie him.
15 And so Pilate, willing to o content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.
16 And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Prætorium, and they call together the whole band.
17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted q a crown of thorns, and put it about his head, 18 And began to salute him, Hail, king of the Jews.
19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, & did spit upon him, and r bowing their knees, worshipped him.
20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and s led him out to crucifie him.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepuchre; for they trembled, and were amazed, neither said they any thing e to any man: for they were afraid.

9 Now when Jesus was risen early, the first day of the week, he appeared f first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils.

10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, g believed not.

12 After that, he appeared in another h form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the countrey.

13 And they went and told it unto the residue: neither believed they them.

14 i Afterward he appeared unto the eleven, as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief, and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen.

15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel k to every creature

16 He that l believeth, and is baptized, shall be saved; but he that believeth not, shall be damned.

17 And these m signs shall follow them that believe: in my name shall they cast out devils, they shall speak with new tongues,

FOrasmuch as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us,

2 Even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were a eye-witnesses, and ministers of the word:

3 b It seemed good to me also, having had perfect unerstanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus,

4 That thou mightest know the certainty of those things wherein thou hast been d instructed.

5 THere was in the days of Herod the king of Judea, a certain priest, named Zacharias, of the e course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.

6 And they were both f righteous g before God, walking h in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord, blameless.

7 And they had i no childe, because that Elizabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the priests office before God in the order of his course, 9 According to the k custom of the priests office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying l without, at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him m an angel of the LORD, standing on the right side of the n altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was o troubled, and fear fell upon him.

13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy p prayer is heard, and thy wife Elizabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John.

14 And thou shalt have q joy and gladness, and many shall rejoyce at his birth:

15 For he shall be r great in the sight of the LORD, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink, and he shall be filled with the holy Ghost, even s from his mothers womb.

16 And t many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.

to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel answering, said unto him, I am y Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God: and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou z believest not my words, which shall be a fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people b waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that assoon as the days of his ministration were c accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Elizabeth conceived, and hid her self five moneths, saying, 25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he d looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth moneth, the angel Gabriel was sent from God, unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 To a virgin e espoused to a man, whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgins name was Mary.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that f art highly favored, the Lord is g with thee: blessed art thou b among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her minde what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favor with God.

31 And behold, thou shalt i conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name Jesus.

32 He shall be k great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest, and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David.

33 And he shall l reign over the house of Jacob for ever, and of his m kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mary unto the angel, n How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, o The holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore a so that holy thing which shall be born p of thee, shall be called the son of God.

36 And behold, Thy cousin Elizabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth moneth with her, who was called barren.

37 For with God q nothing shall be unpossible.

38 And Mary said, Behold, the hand-maid of the Lord, r be it unto me according to thy word: and the angel departed from her.

39 And Mary arose in those days, and went into the ‡ hill-countrey with haste, into a city of Juda, 40 And entred into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elizabeth.

41 And it came to pass, that when Elizabeth heard ȳ salutation of Mary the babe leaped in her womb: & t Elizabeth was filled w the holy Ghost.

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, u Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of x my Lord should come to me?

44 For lo, assoon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And blessed is she that believed, for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

46 And Mary said, y My soul doth magnifie the Lord, 47 And my spirit hath z rejoyced in God a my Savior.

48 For he hath regarded the low ‡ estate of his hand-maiden: for behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

49 For he that is mighty hath done to me b great things, and c holy is his Name.

50 And his mercy is on them ȳ d fear him, from generation to generation.

51 He hath shewed strength with his arm, he hath scattered the proud, in the e imagination of their hearts.

2 (And this taxing was firſt made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Joſeph alſo went up from Galilee, out of the b city of Nazareth into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem (becauſe he was of the houſe and lineage of David.)

13 And suddenly there was with the angel n a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth o peace, p good will towards men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, q Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with r haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they s made known abroad ẏ saying which was told them concerning this childe.

18 And all they that heard it, wondred at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mary kept all these things, and t pondred them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 And when u eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called Jesus, which was so named of the angel, before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when the days of her x purification, according to the law of Moses, were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, y to present him to the Lord.

23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every z male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord.)

24 And to offer a sacrifice, according a to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two yong pigeons.

25 And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was b just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the holy Ghost was upon him.

26 And it was revealed unto him by the holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before he had seen c the Lords Christ.

27 And he came by the spirit into the temple: and when the d parents brought in the childe Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law,

28 Then took he him up in his e arms, and blessed God, and said, 29 Lord, now f lettest thou thy servant depart in g peace, according to thy word.

30 For mine eyes have seen h thy salvation;

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of i all people.

32 k A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And Joseph and his mother l marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

34 And Simeon b essed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this childe is set for the m fall & rising again of many in Israel: and for a sign which shall be spoken against:

35 (Yea, n a sword shal pierce through thy own soul also) that ỹ o thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

36 And there was one Anna a propheteſs, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser; she was of p a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity.

37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years: which q departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers, night and day.

38 And she coming in that instant, gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for r redemption in Jerusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things, according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city s Nazareth.

40 And the child grew, and waxed strong ‡ in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

41 Now his parents went to Jerusalem t every year at the feast of the passeover.

42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem, after the custom of the feast.

43 And when they had u fulfilled the days: as they returned, ỹ childe Jesus tarried behinde in Jerusalem, and Joseph and his mother knew not of it.

44 But they supposing him to have been in the x company, went a days journey, and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

NOw in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Cesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being a tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea, and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene.

2 Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.

3 And he b came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the c baptism of repentance, for the remission of sins.

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, saying, d The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every e valley shall be filled, and every f mountain and hill shall be brought low, and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth.

6 And g all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, h O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore i fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within your selves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

9 And now also the k ax is laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people l asked him, saying, What shall we do then?

11 He answereth and saith unto them, He that hath two coats, let him m impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then came also n publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

13 And he said unto them, Exact no more then that which is o appointed you.

14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsly, and be content with your wages.

15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men p mused in their hearts of John, whether he were q the Christ, or not:

16 John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you r with water, but one s mightier then I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the holy Ghost, and with fire:

17 Whose t fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner, but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

18 And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people.

19 But u Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias his brother Philips wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, 20 x Added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison.

21 Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and z praying, the heaven was opened:

22 And the holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son, in thee I am a well pleased.

1 Christ is tempted: 12 His victory: 14 He beginneth to preach: 19 The Nazarites admire him.

AND Jesus being a full of the holy Ghost, returned from Jordan, and was led by the spirit into the wilderness,
2 Being forty days b tempted of the devil, and in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward c hungred.
3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the d son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.
4 And Jesus answered him, saying, It is e written, that man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.
5 And the devil taking him up into an high mountain, f shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world, in a moment of time.
6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them, for that is g delivered unto me, and to whom soever I will, I give it.
7 If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine.
8 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behinde me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and h him only shalt thou serve.
9 And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, i cast thy self down from hence:
10 For it is k written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee:
11 And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy l foot against a stone.
12 And Jesus answering, m said unto him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.
13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he n departed from him for o a season.
14 ¶ And Jesus returned in the p power of the spirit into Galilee, and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

15 And he taught in their q synagogues, being glorified of all.

16 And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the r sabbath-day, and stood up for to read.

17 And there was f delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias; and when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 The t spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor, he hath sent me to heal the broken hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blinde, to set at liberty them that are bruised, 19 To preach the u acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and x sat down: and the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue, were fastned on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, and wondred at the y gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Iosephs son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, z physician, heal thy self: whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in thy countrey.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet is a accepted in his own countrey.

25 But I tell you of a truth, many b widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was c shut up three years and six moneths, when great famine was throughout all the land:

26 But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 And many d lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet: and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.

28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were e filled with wrath, 29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the f brow of the hill, (whereon their city was built) that they might cast him down headlong.

30 But he passing through the g midst of them, went his way:

31 And came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath-days.

32 And they were h astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with i power.

33 And in the synagogue there was a man which had a spirit of k an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice, 34 Saying, Let us alone, what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the l holy One of God.

35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, m Hold thy peace, and n come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this? for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 And the o fame of him went out into every place of the countrey round about.

38 And he arose out of the synagogue, and entred into p Simons house: and Simons q wives mother was taken with a great fever, and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, and r rebuked the fever, and it left her. And immediately she arose, and ministred unto them.

40 Now when the f sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases, brought them unto him: and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 And divels also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them, suffered them not to speak: for they t knew that he was Christ.

42 And when it was day, he departed, and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should u not depart from them.

43 And he said unto them, I must x preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

CHAP. V.

1 Christ teacheth out of the ship: 12 He cleanseth the leper.

An I

AND it came to pass, that as the people a pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the b lake of Genesareth,

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entred into one of the ships, which was c Simons, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land: and he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Simon answering, said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have d taken nothing: nevertheless, e at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes, and their f net brake:

7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus knees, saying, h Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken.

10 And so was also James and John the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not, from henceforth thou shalt i catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, they k forsook all, and followed him.

12 And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold, a man full of leprosie: who seeing Jesus, fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, l thou canst make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and m touched him, saying, I will, be thou clean. And immediately the leprosie departed from him.

14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go and shew thy self to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for n a testimony unto them.

15 But o so much the more went there a fame abroad of him, & great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 And he p withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were q Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 And behold, r men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsie: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not finde by what way they might bring him in, because of the multitude, they s went upon the house top, and let him down through the tiling with his couch, into the midst before Jesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, t thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh u blasphemies? who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when Jesus perceived their x thoughts, he answering, said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee: or to say, Rise up, and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath y power upon earth to forgive sins (he said unto the sick of the palsie) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, z glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled a with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

27 And after these things he went forth, and saw a Publican, named Levi, sitting at the receit of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, b rose up, and followed him.

29 And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans, and of others that sat down c with them.

30 But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, d Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jesus answering, said unto them, They that are e whole need not a physician: but they that are sick.

32 I came not to call the righteous, but sinners f to repentance.

33 And they said unto him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the g Pharisees: but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bride-chamber fast, while the h bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be i taken away from them, and then shall they k fast in those days.

36 And he spake also a parable unto them, l No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old: if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new, agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles, and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine, straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

AND it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields: and his disciples a plucked the ears of corn, and did b eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, Why do ye that which is c not lawful to do on the sabbath-days?

3 And Jesus answering them, said, Have d ye not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him:

4 How he went into the e house of God, and did take and eat the shew-bread, and gave also to them that were with him, which is not lawful to eat, but for the f priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, that the Son of man is g Lord also of the sabbath.

6 And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entred into the synagogue, and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath-day: that they might finde an accusation against him.

8 But he h knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose, and stood forth.

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will i ask you one thing, Is it lawful on the sabbath-days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And k looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he l did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And m they were filled with madness, and n communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12 And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and o continued all night in prayer to God.

13 And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them p he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles:

14 Simon (whom he also named Peter) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, 15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alpheus, and Simon called Zelotes, 16 And Judas the brother of James, and Judas q Iscariot, which also was the traitor.

17 And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judea, and Jerusalem, and from the sea-coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases:

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: & they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went r vertue out of him, and healed them all.

20 And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.

21 Blessed are ye that s hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that u weep now, for ye shall laugh.

22 Blessed are ye when men shall hate you, and when they shall x separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of mans sake.

23 Rejoyce ye in that day, and leap for joy: for behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did y their fathers unto the prophets.

27 But I say unto you which hear, c Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you, 28 d Bless them that curse you, & pray for them which despitefully use you.
29 And unto him that e smiteth thee on the one cheek, offer also the other: & him that f taketh away thy cloak, forbid not to take thy coat also.
30 Give to g every man that asketh of thee, and of him that taketh away thy goods, ask them not again.
31 And h as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.
32 For if ye i love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.
33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners k also do even the same.
34 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.
35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, l hoping for nothing again: and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the m children of the highest: for he is kinde unto the unthankful, and to the evil.
36 Be ye therefore merciful, n as your Father also is merciful.
37 o Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:
38 p Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, prest down and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom: for with the same measure that ye mete withal, it shall be measured to you again.
39 And he spake a parable unto them, q Can the blinde lead the blinde? shall they not both fall into the ditch?
40 The disciple is r not above his master: but every one that is perfect shall be as his master.
41 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brothers eye, but perceivest not the s beam that is in thine own eye?
42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thy self beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou t hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and u then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brothers eye.
43 For x a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit: neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.
44 For every tree is y known by his own fruit: for of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble-bush gather they grapes.
45 A good man, out of the z good treasure of his heart, bringeth forth that which is good: and an evil man, out of the evil treasure of his heart, bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart, his mouth speaketh.
46 And why call ye me Lord, Lord, and a do not the things which I say?
47 Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and b doth them, I will shew you to whom he is like.
48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the c flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.
49 But he that heareth, and doth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth: against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell, and the ruine of that house d was great.

not thy self: for I am h not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof.

7 Wherefore neither thought I my self worthy to come unto thee: but i say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers: and I say unto one, k Go, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and he cometh: and to my servant, Do this, and he doth it.

9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, / no, not in Israel.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant m whole that had been sick.

11 And it came to pass the day after, that n he went into a city, called Naim: and many of his disciples went with him, and o much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the p gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the onely son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord q saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, r Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the biere (and they that bare him, stood still) and he said, Yong man, / I say unto thee, Arise.

15 And he that was dead, sat up, and s began to speak: and he delivered him to his mother.

16 And there came u a fear on all, and they glorified God, saying, that a great prophet is risen up among us, and x God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumor of him went forth throughout all Judea, and throughout all the region round about.

18 And the y disciples of John shewed him of all these things.

19 And John calling unto him z two of his disciples, sent them unto Jesus, saying, Art thou a he that should come, or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent b us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come, or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities, and plagues, and of evil spirits, and unto many that were blinde he gave sight.

22 Then Jesus answering, said unto them, Go your way, and c tell John what things ye have seen and heard: how that the blinde see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to d the poor the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he whosoever shall e not be offended in me.

24 ¶ And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness f for to see? A reed shaken with the winde?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in g kings courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and h much more then a prophet.

27 This is he of whom it is i written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 ¶ For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women, there is k not a greater prophet then John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God, is greater then he.

29 And all the people that heard him, & the Publicans / justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John.

30 But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God m against themselves, being n not baptized of him.

31 And the Lord said, o Whereunto then shall I liken ỹ men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the market-place, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have p not danced: we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For John the Baptist came, q neither eating bread, nor drinking wine, and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The Son of man is come r eating and drinking, and ye say, Behold, a gluttonous man, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners.

35 But wisdom is s justified of all her children.

36 And t one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And u he went into the Pharisees house, and sat down to meat.

37 And behold, x a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the 39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him, saw it, he spake z within himself, saying. This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who, and a what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus b answering, said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain creditor, which had c two debtors: the one ought him five hundred pence, and the other fifty 42 And when they had d nothing to pay, he e frankly forgave them f both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entred into thine house, thou gavest me g no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no h kiss: but this woman, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 i Mine head with oyl thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven: k for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

48 And he said unto her, l Thy sins are forgiven.

49 And they that sat at meat with him, began to say within themselves, Who is this that forgiveth sins also?

50 And he said to the woman, m Thy faith hath saved thee, go in peace.

3 Women minister unto Christ. 4 The parable of the sower. 22 Christ rebuketh the winds.

AND it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout a every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the b twelve were with him.

2 And certain c women, which had been d healed of evil spirits, and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils.

3 And Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herods steward, and e Susanna, and many others which f ministred unto him of their substance.

4 ¶ And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by g a parable:

5 A sower h went out to sowe his seed: and i as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and it was troden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock, and assoon as it was sprung up, it k withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on l good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundred fold. And when he had said these things, He cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 And his disciples m asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, n Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; o seeing they might not see, & hearing they might not understand.

11 Now the parable is this: p The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the wayside, are they that hear: then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe, and be saved.

13 They on the rock, are they, which when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have q no root, which for a r while believe, and in the time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns, are they, which when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares, and riches, and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to s perfection.

15 But that on the good ground, are they, which in t a an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with u patience.

37 And it came to pass, that on t the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, q look upon my son, for he is mine only childe.

39 And lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out, & it r teareth him, that he foameth again, & bruising him, hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out, and they f could not.

41 And Jesus answering, said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be t with you, and suffer you? bring thy son hither.

42 And u as he was yet coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him: and Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the childe, and delivered him again to his father.

43 And they were all amazed x at the mighty power of God: but while they wondred every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples, 44 Let y these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands z of men.

45 But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they a perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 Then there arose b a reasoning among them: which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jesus c perceiving the thought of their heart, took a childe, and set him by him.

48 And he said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this childe in my Name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth him that sent me: for he that is d least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 ¶ And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils e in thy Name, & we f forbade him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us, g is for us.

51 And

51 And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he ‡ stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, 52 And sent messengers before his face, and they went and entred into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.

53 And they did not receive him, because k his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples, James and John, saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we l command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even m as Elias did.

55 But he turned, and n rebuked them, and said, ye know not o what manner of spirit ye are of.

56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy mens lives, but to p save them. And they went to another village.

57 ¶ And it came to pass, that as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord q I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said unto him, r Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of man hath s not where to lay his head.

59 And he said unto another, Follow me: but he said, Lord, suffer me t first to go and bury my father.

60 Jesus said unto him, Let u the dead bury their dead: but go thou and x preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee: but let me first go bid them farewel, which are at home at my house.

62 And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and x looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

CHAP. X.

Christ appointeth seventy disciples.

AFter these things, the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them a two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

2 Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the b laborers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth laborers into his harvest.

3 Go your ways: behold, c I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

4 Carry neither d purse, nor scrip, nor shoes, and e salute no man by the way.

5 And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, f Peace be to this house.

6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall g turn to you again.

7 And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things h as they give: for the i laborer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you.

9 And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God k is come nigh unto you.

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they l receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say, 11 Even the very m dust of your city which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God n is come nigh unto you.

12 But I say unto you, that it shall be o more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.

13 Wo unto thee Chorazin: wo unto thee Bethsaida: for if the mighty works had p been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be q more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, than for you.

15 And thou Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be r thrust down to hell.

16 He that heareth you, heareth me: and he that s despiseth you, despiseth me; and he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me.

17 And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us t through thy Name.

18 And he said unto them, I beheld Satan u as lightning, fall from heaven.

19 Behold, I give unto you power x to tread on serpents, and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding in this y rejoyce not, that the spirits are subject unto you: but rather rejoyce, because z your names are written in heaven.

21 In that hour Jesus rejoyced in spirit, and said, a I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed

22 All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is b but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

23 ¶ And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see c the things that ye see.

24 For I tell you, that many d prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them: and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

25 ¶ And behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and e tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said unto him, 26 What is written f in the law? how readest thou?

27 And he answering, said, Thou shalt g love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: h this do, and thou shalt live.

29 But he willing to i justifie himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbor?

30 And Jesus answering, said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell k among theeves, which l stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way, and when he saw him, he passed by on the m other side.

34 And p went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oyl and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an q inne, and took r care of him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him, and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbor unto him that fell among the theeves?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and s do thou likewise.

38 ¶ Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entred into t a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha, received him into her house

39 And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at u Jesus feet, and heard his word.

40 But Martha was cumbred about x much serving, and came to him, & said, Lord, doest thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

41 And Jesus answered, and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful, and troubled about many things.

1 Christ teacheth to pray, instantly
14 He casteth out a dumb devil.
30 Jonas a sign.

AND it came to pass, that as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, a teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, b Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdome come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

3 Give us day by day our daily bread.

4 And c forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And d lead us not into temptation, but e deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him:

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not, the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise, and give thee.

8 I say unto you, Though he will not rise, and give him, because he is his friend: yet because of his † importunity, he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 And

9 And I say unto you, f Ask, and it shall be given you: seek, and ye shall finde: knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh, receiveth: and he that seeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened.

11 If g a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish, give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?

13 If ye then, being h evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the i holy Spirit to them that ask him?

14 And he was k casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake: and the people wondred.

15 But l some of them said, He casteth out devils through Beelzebub the chief of the devils.

16 And other m tempting him, sought of him a sign from heaven.

17 But he n knowing their thoughts, said unto them, every kingdom divided against it self, is brought to desolation: and an house divided against an house, falleth:

18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? Because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub.

19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your o sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 But if I with the p finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 When q a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:

22 But when r a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armor wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

23 He that is not with me, s is against me: and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth.

24 When the unclean spirit t is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest: and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and u garnished.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to himself even other spirits, more wicked then himself, and they enter in, and x dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse then the first.

27 And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lift up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

28 But he said, Yea, rather blessed are they that hear the word of God, and z keep it.

29 And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation, they seek a a sign, and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas the prophet.

30 For as Jonas was a sign unto the Ninevites, b so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.

31 The c queen of the south shall rise up in the judgement with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth, to hear the wisdom of Solomon: and behold, d a greater then Solomon is here.

32 The men of Nineveh shall rise up in the judgement with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they e repented at the preaching of Jonas: and behold, a greater then Jonas is here.

33 No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under f a bushel; but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

34 The g light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light: but when thine eye h is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

35 Take heed therefore, that the light which is in thee, be i not darkness.

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having k no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

37 And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and l he went in, and sat down to meat.

38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had m not first washed before dinner.

39 And the LORD said unto him, Now do n ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup, and the platter: but your o inward part is full full of ravening and wickednes.

40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without, make that which is g within also?
41 But rather give alms of such things h as you have: and behold, i all things are clean unto you.
42 But wo unto you, Pharisees: for ye tithe mint, and rue, and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment, and the love of God: k these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.
43 Wo unto you, Pharisees: for ye love the l uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.
44 Wo unto you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites: for ye are as graves which m appear not, and the men that walk over them, are not aware of them.
45 Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, n thus saying, thou reproachest us also.
46 And he said, Wo unto you also, ye lawyers: for ye lade men with o burthens grievous to be born, and ye your selves touch not the burthens with one of your fingers.
47 Wo unto you: for ye p build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.
48 Truly ye bear witness that ye q allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.
49 Therefore also said the r wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute:
50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation,
51 From the blood of t Abel, unto the blood of Zacharias, which perished between the altar and the temple: Verily I say unto you, it shall be required of this generation.
52 Wo unto you lawyers: for ye have taken u away the key of knowledge: ye entred not in your selves, and them that were entring in, ye hindred.
53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to x urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things:
54 y Laying wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him,

CHAP. XII.

1 Christ teacheth to avoid hypocrisie. 13 To beware of covetousnes, 31 to seek Gods kingdom, 33 to give alms.

IN the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the a leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisie.
2 For there is nothing covered, that shall not be b revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.
3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness, shall be heard in the light: and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets, shall be proclaimed upon the c house tops.
4 And I say unto you, d my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that, have no more that they can do.
5 But I will forwarn you whom you shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed, hath power to cast into hell, yea, I say unto you, Fear him
6 Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is e forgotten before God?
7 But even the very f hairs of your head are all numbred; fear not therefore, ye are of g more value then many sparrows.
8 Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me h before men, i him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God.
9 But he that k denieth me before men, shall be denied before the angels of God.
10 And whosoever shall speak a word l against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven.
11 And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, m take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say.
12 For the holy Ghost shall teach you in the n same hour, what ye ought to say 13 And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he o divide the inheritance with me.

abundance of the things which he poſſeſſeth.

16 And he ſpake a parable unto them, ſaying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth r plentifully.

17 And he thought ſ within himſelf, ſaying, What ſhall I do, becauſe I have t no room where to beſtow my fruits?

18 And he ſaid, This u will I do, I will pull down my barns, and build greater, and x there will I beſtow all my fruits, and my goods.

19 And I will ſay to my ſoul, Soul, thou haſt much goods laid up y for many years, take thine eaſe, eat, drink, and be merry.

20 But God ſaid unto him, Thou a fool, b this night thy ſoul ſhall be required of thee: then whoſe ſhall thoſe things be which thou haſt provided?

21 So is he that layeth up treaſure for himſelf, and is c not rich towards God.

22 And he ſaid unto his diſciples, Therefore I ſay unto you, d Take no thought for your life, what ye ſhall eat, neither for the body, what ye ſhall put on.

23 The life is more then meat, and the body is more then raiment.

24 Conſider the ravens, for they neither ſowe, nor reap, which neither have ſtore-houſe nor barn, and God e feedeth them. How much more are ye better then the fowls?

25 And which of you with taking thought f can adde to his ſtature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is leaſt, why take ye thought for the g reſt?

27 Conſider the lilies how they grow, they toil not, they ſpin not: and yet I ſay unto you, that Solomon in all his glory, was not araied like one of theſe.

28 If then God ſo clothe the h graſs, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is caſt into the oven: how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 And ſeek not ye what ye ſhall eat, or what ye ſhall drink, neither be ye of i doubtful minde.

30 For all theſe things do the nations of the world ſeek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of theſe things.

31 But rather ſeek the kingdom of God, and all theſe things ſhall be k added unto you.

32 Feare not, † little flock; for it is your Fathers l good pleaſure m to give you the n kingdom.

33 o Sell that ye have, & give alms: provide your ſelves bags which wax not old, a treaſure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treaſure is, there will your heart be alſo.

35 Let your p loins be girded about, and your q light burning,

36 And ye your ſelves like unto men that r wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding, that when he cometh and ſ knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37 Bleſſed are thoſe ſervants, whom the Lord when he cometh ſhall finde t watching: Verily, I ſay unto you, that he ſhall gird himſelf, and make them to ſit down to meat, and will come forth, and ſerve them.

38 And if he ſhall come in the u ſecond watch, or come in the third watch, and finde them ſo, bleſſed are thoſe ſervants.

39 And this x know, that if the good man of the houſe had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have ſuffered his houſe to be broken through.

40 Be ye therefore ready alſo: for the Son of man cometh y at an hour when ye think not.

41 Then Peter ſaid unto him, Lord, ſpeakeſt thou this parable unto us, or even to all?

42 And the Lord ſaid, Who then is that z faithful & wiſe ſteward, whom his lord ſhall make a ruler over his houſhold, to give them their portion of meat in due ſeaſon?

43 Bleſſed a is that ſervant, whom his lord when he cometh ſhall finde b ſo doing.

44 Of a truth, I ſay unto you, that he will make him c ruler over all that he hath.

45 But and if that ſervant ſay in his heart, My lord d delayeth his coming, and ſhall begin to e beat the men-ſervants, and maidens, and to eat, and drink, and to be drunken:

46 The lord of that ſervant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not ware, and will cut him in ſunder, and will appoint him his f portion with the unbeleevers.

47 And that ſervant which knew his lords will, and prepared not himſelf, 5 I tell you, Nay; but except ye re- pent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 He spake also this parable: A cer- tain man had a f fig-tree planted in his vineyard, and he g came and sought fruit thereon, & found none.

7 Then said he to the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these k three years I come, seeking fruit on this fig-tree and finde none: cut it down, why i cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering, said unto him, Lord, k let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then l after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 And he was m teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

11 ¶ And behold, there was a wo- man, which had a spirit of infirmity n eighteen years, and was bowed to- gether, and could in no wise lift up her self.

12 And when Jesus o saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 And he laid his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and p glorified God.

14 And the q ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath- day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath-day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou r hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose s his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman, being a t daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath-day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were u a- shamed: and all the people x rejoy- ced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereun- to shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a y grain of mustard- seed, which a man took and cast into his his garden, and it grew, and waxed a great tree: and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took, and a hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 And he b went thorow the cities and villages, teaching and journeying towards Jerusalem.

23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, 24 Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will c seek to enter in, & shall not be able.

25 When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath d shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us, and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence you are:

26 Then shall ye begin to say, We have e eaten & drunk in thy presence and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence you are, f depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity.

28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see g Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and you your selves thrust out.

29 And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.

30 And behold, there are last, which shall be first, and there are first, which shall be last.

31 The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying unto him, i Get thee out, and k depart hence: for Herod will kill thee.

32 And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that l fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the third day I shall be m perfected.

33 Nevertheless, n I must walk to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem.

34 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, & stonest them that are sent unto thee: how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not?

35 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate. And verily I say unto you, Ye shall p not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, q Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

CHAP. XIV.

Christ healeth the dropsie on the sabbath. 7 teacheth humility.

AND it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the a chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath-day, that they b watched him.

2 And behold, c there was a certain man before him, which had the dropsie.

3 And Jesus answering, spake unto the d lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath-day?

4 And they held their peace. And he took him, and e healed him, and let him go:

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an ass, or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day?

6 And they f could not answer him again to these things.

7 And he put forth a parable to those which were † bidden, when he marked how they g chose out the chief rooms, saying unto them,

8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room: lest a more honorable man then thou be bidden of him:

9 And he that bade thee and him, come and say to thee, Give this man place: and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10 But when thou art h bidden, go, and sit down in the lowest room, that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11 For whosoever i exalteth himself, shall be abased: and he that humbleth himself, shall be exalted.

12 Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner, or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbors: lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the k poor, the maimed, the lame, the blinde.

14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be l recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry, said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the r poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blinde.

2 And the b Pharisees and c scribes murmured, saying, This man d receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

3 And he spake this parable unto them, saying,

4 What man of you, having e an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he finde it?

5 And when he hath f found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoycing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbors, saying unto them, Rejoyce with me: for I have found my sheep which was lost.

7 I say unto you, that g likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more then over ninety and nine h just persons, which i need no repentance.

8 Either what woman, having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and k seek diligently till she finde it?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends, and her neighbors together, saying, l Rejoyce with me, for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God, over one sinner that repenteth.

11 And he said, A certain man had two sons:

12 And the yonger of them said to his father, Father, give me m the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

13 And not many days after, the yonger son gathered all together, and took his journey into n a far country; and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And

14 And when he had o spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land, and he began to be p in want.

15 And he went and joyned himself to a citizen of that country, & he sent him into his fields, to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the q husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came r to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my fathers have bread enough, and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will s arise, and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have t sinned u against heaven, and x before thee, 19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet y a great way off, his father z saw him, a and had compassion, b and ran, and fell on his neck, and c kissed him.

21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the d best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet.

23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it, & let us eat, and be merry:

24 For this my son was e dead, and is alive again: he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came, and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick, & f dancing:

26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

28 And he was g angry, and would not go in; therefore came his father out, and intreated him.

29 And he answering, said to his father, Lo, these many years do h I serve thee; neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment, and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:

30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.

32 It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again: and was k lost, and is found.

CHAP. XVI.

2 The parable of the unjust steward. 14 Christ reproveth the hypocrisie of the Pharisees.

AND he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man which had a steward, and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that a I hear this of thee? give b an account of thy stewardship: for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: c I cannot dig, to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am d resolved what to do, that when I am put out of the stewardship; they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lords debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred measures of oyl. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord e commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of f this World are in their generation wiser g then the h children of light

9 And I say unto you, Make to your selves i friends of the mammon of unrighteousness, that when k ye fail, they may l receive you into everlasting habitations

10 He that is faithful in that which m is least, is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least, is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is n another mans, who shall give you that which is o your own?

13 No servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one, and love the other: or else he will will hold to the one, and despise the other: p ye cannot serve God and mammon.

14 And the Pharisees also, who were q covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which r justifie your s selves before men, but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is t highly esteemed amongst men, is abomination in the sight of God.

16 The u law and the prophets were until John: since that time the x kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

17 And it is easier for x heaven and earth to pass, then one tittle of the law to fail.

18 Whosoever y putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband, committeth adultery.

19 There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in z purple and fine linen, and a fared sumptuously every day.

20 And there was a certain b beggar, c named Lazarus, which was d laid at his gate full of sores,

21 And desiring to be fed with the e crumbs which fell from the rich mans table: moreover, the f dogs came and licked his sores,

22 And it came to pass, that the beggar g died, and was carried by the angels into Abrahams bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried.

23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham h afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

24 And he cried, and said, Father Abraham, i have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue, for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy life time receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is k comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And besides all this, between us and you there is l a great gulf fixed, so y they which would pass from hence to you, cannot; neither can they pass to us that would come from thence.

27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou m wouldest send him to my fathers house:

28 For I have five brethren; that he may testifie unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham said unto him, They have n Moses and the prophets, let o them hear them.

30 And he said, p Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

31 And he said unto him, If q they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be perswaded, though one rose from the dead.

CHAP. XVII.

1 To avoid offences. 3 One to forgive another. 6 The power of faith.

THen said he unto his disciples, It is a impossible but that offences will come, but wo unto him through whom they come.

2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, then that he should offend one of these little ones.

3 b Take heed to your selves: if thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.

4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent: thou shalt forgive him.

5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, d Increase our faith.

6 And the Lord said, If ye had faith e as a grain of mustard seed, f ye might say unto this sycamine-tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea, and it should obey you.

7 But which of you having a servant plowing, or feeding cattel, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go, and sit down to meat?

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thy self g and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken: and afterward thou shalt eat and drink.

9 Doth he thank that servant, because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done g all those things which are commanded you, say, We h are unprofitable servants; we have done that which was i our duty to do.

11 And it came to pass, as he went k to Jerusalem, that he passed thorow the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

12 And as he entred into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood l afar off.

13 And they m lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

14 And when he saw them, he said said unto them, Go n shew your selves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that o as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And p one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, 16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him q thanks: and he was a Samaritane.

18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this s stranger.

19 And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way, t thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the u kingdom of God should come: he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with x observation.

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here, or, lo there: for behold, the kingdom of God is ‡ within you.

22 And he said unto the disciples, The days will come, when ye y shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 And they shall say to you, z See here, or see there: go not after them, nor follow them.

24 For as the lightning that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven, so shall also the Son of man be in a his day.

25 But first must he suffer many things b and be rejected of this generation.

26 And as it was in the days of Noe, c so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.

27 They did d eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entred into the ark: and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 Likewise also, as it was in the days of Lot: they did e eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded.

29 But the same day that f Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is g revealed.

31 In that day, he which shall be upon the house top, and his h stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him like wise not return back.

32 i Remember Lots wife.

33 Whosoever shall seek to save his k life, shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life, shall preserve it.

34 I tell you, l in that night there shall be two men in one bed, the one m shall be taken, the other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

37 And they answered, and said unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Wheresoever the body is, n thither will the eagles be gathered together.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The importunate widow. 9 The Pharisee and the publican.

AND he spake a parable unto them, a to this end, that men a ought always to pray, and not to b faint,

2 Saying, There was in a city a judge which feared not God, neither regarded man.

3 And there was c a widow in that city, and she came unto him, saying, d Avenge me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not for e a while. But afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man, 5 Yet because this widow f troubleth me, I will avenge her: lest by her continual coming, she weary me.

6 And the Lord said, g Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And shall not God h avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he i bear long with them?

8 I tell you, that he will avenge them k speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man cometh, shall l he finde faith on the earth?

9 And he spake this parable unto certain which m trusted in themselves, that they were righteous, and n despised others.

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray, the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

11 The Pharisee o stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not q as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12 I r fast twice in the week, I give s tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the publican t standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven: but smote upon his breast, saying, God be u merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house x justified rather then the y other: for every one that exalteth himself, shall be abased: and he that z humbleth himself, shall be exalted.

15 And they a brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they b rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for c of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not d receive the kingdom of God as a little childe, shall in no wise enter therein.

18 And a certain e ruler asked him, saying, Good master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? f none is good save one, that is, God.

20 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor thy father and thy mother

21 And he said, g All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have h treasure in heaven, and i come, follow me.

23 And when he heard it this, he was very sorrowful, for he was very k rich

24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How l hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go thorow a needles eye, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it, said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are unpossible m with men, are n possible with God.

28 Then Peter said, Lo, we have o left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, there is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of Gods sake, 30 Who shall not receive manifold p more in this present time, and in the world to come, life everlasting.

31 Then he took unto him the twelve, and q said unto them, Behold, r we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets, concerning the Son of man, shall be accomplished.

32 For he shall be s delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully intreated and spitted on:

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death, and the t third day he shall rise again.

34 And they understood none of these things: and this saying u was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

35 And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat x by the way side, begging:

36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by.

38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou y Son of David, have mercy on me.

39 And they which went before, rebuked him, z he should hold his peace: but he cried a so much b more, Thou Son of David, have mercy on me.

40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: & when he was come near, he asked him, 41 Saying, what wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, a Lord, that I may receive my sight.

42 And Jesus saith unto him, Receive thy sight, b thy faith hath saved thee.

43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, c glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, d gave praise unto God.

1 Zacheus called. 11 The ten pieces of money.

AND Jesus entred, and a passed thorow Jericho.

2 And behold, there was a man named Zacheus, which was b chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he c sought to see Jesus who he was, and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore-tree, to see him; for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus d came to the place, he looked up, and e saw him, and said unto him, Zacheus, f make haste, and come down, for to day I must g abide at thy house.

7 And

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, that he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zacheus k stood, and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor, and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, l I restore him four fold.

9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation m come to this house, forsomuch as he also is the n son of Abraham.

10 For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added, and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the o kingdom of God should p immediately appear.

12 He said therefore, A certain noble man went into q a far country, to receive for himself r a kingdom, and s to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, t Occupy till I come.

14 But u his citizens hated him, & sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be x called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath y gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been z faithfull in a very little, have thou a authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord thy pound hath gained b five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over c five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in d a napkin:

21 For I feared thee, e because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou laidst not down, and reapest that thou diest not sowe.

22 And he saith unto him, f Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant: thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sowe.

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, g Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say unto you, That unto every one which hath, shall be given; and from him h that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But those mine i enemies which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and k slay them before me.

28 And when he had thus spoken, he went l before, ascending up to Jerusalem.

29 And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to m Bethpage, & Bethany, at the mount called the mount of olives, he sent two of his disciples, 30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you, in the which at your entring ye shall finde n a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? Thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent, went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, o The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they p brought him to Jesus: and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they q spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of olives, the r whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoyce, and praise God with a loud voice, for all the mighty works that they had seen, 38 Saying, blessed be the king that cometh in the Name of the Lord, s peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him Master, t rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you, that if these should hold their peace, the u stones would immediately cry out.

AND it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he a taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the b chief priests, and the scribes, came upon him, with the elders.
2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, c by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?
3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also d ask you one thing, and answer me.
4 The baptisme of John, was it e from heaven or of men?
5 And they reasoned f with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven, he will say, why then g believed ye him not?
6 But and if we say, Of men, all the people will h stone us: for they be perswaded that John was a propher.
7 And they answered, that they could i not tell whence it was.
8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither k tell I you by what authority I do these things.
9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable, A certain man l planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far countrey for a long time.
10 And at the season, he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the m fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.
11 And again he sent n another servant; and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.
12 And again he sent the o third, and they wounded him also, and cast him out.
13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, what shall I do? I will send p my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him
14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the q heir, come let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.
15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?
16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard r to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.
17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, ſ The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?
18 Whosoever shall t fall upon that stone, shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grinde him to powder.
19 And the chief priests, and the scribes the u same hour sought to lay hands on him, and they feared the people: for they perceived ỿ he had spoken this parable x against them.
20 And they watched him, and sent forth y spies, which should z feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.
21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest a rightly, neither accepteſt thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God truly.
22 Is it lawful b for us to give tribute unto Cesar, or no?

34 And Jesus answering, said unto them, The children of l this world marry, and are given in marriage:
35 But they which shall be accounted m worthy to obtain n that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage.
36 Neither can they o die any more: for they are equal unto the angels, and are the children of God, being the p children of the q resurrection.
37 Now that the dead r are raised, even s Moses shewed at the t bush, when he calleth the Lord, The God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.
38 For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all u live unto him.
39 Then certain of the scribes answering, said, Master, Thou hast x well said.
40 And after that, they y durst not ask him any question at all.
41 And he said unto them, z How say they that Christ is Davids son?
42 And David himself saith in the book of psalms, The Lord said to my Lord, a Sit thou on my right hand, 43 Till I make thine enemies thy foot stool.
44 David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?
45 Then in the b audience of all the people, he said unto his disciples,
46 c Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts:
47 Which devour widows houses, & for a shew make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation.

CHAP. XXI.

Christ commendeth the poor widow.

AND he looked up, and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the a treasury.
2 And he saw also a certain poor widow, casting in thither b two mites
3 And he said, Of a truth, I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more then they all:
4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God; but she of her c penury hath cast in all the living that she had.
5 And as d some spake of the temple how it was adorned with goodly stones, and gifts, he said,
6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left e one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.
7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but f when shall these things be? and what sign will there be, when these things shall come to pass?
8 And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my Name, saying, I am Christ, and g the time draweth near; go ye not therefore after them.
9 But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be h not terrified: for these things must first come to pass, but the end is not by and by.
10 Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:
11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and i famines, and pestilences, and fearful sights, and great signs shall there be from heaven.
12 But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the k synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my Names sake.
13 And it shall turn to you for l a testimony.
14 Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer.
15 For I will give you m a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay, nor resist.
16 And ye shall be n betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends, and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.
17 And ye shall be o hated of all men for my Names sake.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they l made ready the passeover.

14 And when the m hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passeover with you, before I suffer.

16 For I say unto you, I will n not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.
17 And he took the ‡ cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among your selves.
18 For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.
19 And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body, which is given o for you, this do in remembrance of me.
20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the p new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.
21 But behold, the q hand of him that betrayeth me, is with me on the table.
22 And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was r determined, but wo unto that man by whom he is betrayed.
23 And they began to s enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.
24 ¶ And there was also t a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.
25 And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles u exercise lordship over them, and they that exercise authority upon them, are called benefactors.
26 But x ye shall not be so; but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the yonger, and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.
27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.
28 Ye are they which have z continued with me in my temptations.
29 And a I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me.
30 That ye may b eat & drink at my table in my kingdom, & sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.
31 And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath c desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat:
32 But I have d prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not; and when thou art e converted, strengthen thy brethren.
33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am f ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.
34 And he said, g I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.
35 And he said unto them, when I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, h Nothing.
36 Then said he unto them, But now he that hath a purse, let him take it, and like wise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and i buy one.
37 For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the k transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.
38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords And he said unto them, l it is enough.
39 And he m came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives, and his disciples also followed him.
40 And when he was at the place, he said unto them, n Pray, that ye enter not into temptation.
41 And he was o withdrawn from them about a stones cast, and kneeled down, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless, p not my will, but thine be done.
43 And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, q strengthning him.
44 And being in r an agony, he prayed more earnestly, and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.
45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them s sleeping for sorrow, 46 And said unto them, t Why sleep ye? Rise, and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.
47 And while he yet spake, behold, a multitude, & he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, & drew near unto Jesus, u to kiss him.
48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest x thou the Son of man with a kiss?
49 When they which were about him, saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?
50 And y one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.
51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he z touched his ear, and healed him.
52 Then Jesus said unto the a chief priest, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out as against a thief, with swords and staves?

AND the whole multitude of them aroſe, and led him unto a Pilate.

2 And they began to accuſe him, ſaying, We found this fellow b perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Ceſar, ſaying, that he himſelf c is Chriſt a King.

3 And Pilate asked him, ſaying, Art thou the king of the Jews? and he anſwered him, and ſaid, Thou ſayeſt it.

4 Then ſaid Pilate to the chief prieſts, and to the people, I finde d no fault in this man.

5 And they were the e more fierce, ſaying, He f ſtirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jury, beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And aſſoon as he knew that he belonged unto g Herods juriſdiction, he ſent him to Herod, who himſelf was alſo h at Jeruſalem at that time.

8 And when Herod ſaw Jeſus, he was exceeding glad, for he was deſirous i to ſee him of a long ſeaſon, becauſe he had heard many things of him, and he hoped to have ſeen ſome k miracle done by him.

9 Then he queſtioned with him in many words, but he anſwered him l nothing.

10 And the chief prieſts and ſcribes ſtood, and vehemently accuſed him.

38 And q a ſuperſcription alſo was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latine, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 And one of the malefactors, which were hanged, r railed on him, ſaying, If thou be Chriſt, ſave thy ſelf and us.

40 But the other anſwering, s rebuked him, ſaying, Doeſt not thou t fear God, ſeeing thou art in the ſame condemnation?

41 And we indeed u juſtly; for we receive ỹ due reward of our deeds; but this man hath done nothing amiſs.

42 And he ſaid unto Jeſus, Lord, x remember me when thou comeſt into thy kingdom.

43 And Jeſus ſaid unto him, Verily I ſay unto thee, to day ſhalt thou be with me in y paradiſe.

44 And it was about the z ſixth hour; and there was a darkneſs over all the earth, until the ninth hour.

45 And the ſun was darkned, and the a vail of the temple was rent in ỹ midſt.

46 And when Jeſus had cried with a loud voice, he ſaid, Father, b into thy hands I commend my ſpirit: and having ſaid thus, he gave up the Ghoſt.

47 Now when ỹ centurion ſaw what was done, he c glorified God, ſaying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came together to that ſight, beholding the things which were done, d ſmote their breaſts, and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that e followed him from Galilee, ſtood afar off, beholding theſe things.

50 And behold, there was a man, named Joſeph, f a counſeller, and he was a good man and a juſt:

51 (The ſame had g not conſented to the counſel and deeds of them) he was of Arimathea, a city of the Jews, (who alſo himſelf h waited for the kingdom of God.)

52 This man went unto Pilate, and i begged the body of Jeſus.

53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in k a ſepulchre that was hewen in ſtone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the l preparation, and the ſabbath drew on.

55 And the women alſo, which came with him from Galilee, followed m after, and beheld the ſepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and prepared ſpices and ointments, and reſted the ſabbath-day, n according to the commandment.

13. 12. himself stood in the midst of them, l Luke and saith unto them, l Peace be unto 10. 5. you.

37 But

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen m a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, n Why are ye troubled, and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I my self: o handle me and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands & his feet

41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondred, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honey-comb.

43 And he took it, and did p eat before them.

44 And he said unto them, These are the words which q I spake unto you, while I was yet ‡ with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms concerning me.

45 Then r opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures, 46 And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day.

47 And that s repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his Name, among t all nations, u beginning at Jerusalem.

48 And ye are x witnesses of these things.

49 And behold, I send the y promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.

50 ¶ And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lift up his hands, and z blessed them.

51 And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.

52 And they worshipped him, & returned to Jerusalem a with great joy

53 And were b continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

¶ The Gospel according to S. JOHN.

CHAP. I.

1 The divinity, humanity, and office of Jesus Christ. 15 Johns testimony.

IN the beginning was the Word, & the Word was with God, and the Word a was God.

2 The same was in the b beginning with God.

3 All things c were made by him, and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 In him was d life, and the life was the light of men.

5 And the e light shineth in darkness, and the darkness f comprehended it not.

6 ¶ There was g a man sent from God, whose name was John:

7 The same came for a witness to bear witness of the light, that all men h through him might believe.

8 He was i not that light, but was sent to bear witness of that light.

9 That was the true light, which k lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world l knew him not.

11 He came unto m his own, and his own n received him not.

12 But as many o as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that p believe on his Name

13 Which were q born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word was made r flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory of the only begotten of the Father) full of s grace and truth.

15 John bare t witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh u after me, is preferred before me, for he was before me.

16 And of his x fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For the law was given by y Moses, but z grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

18 No man hath seen God at any time; the onely begotten Son, which is in the a bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 And this is the record of John, when the b Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem, to ask him, Whou art thou?

20 And he c confessed, & denied not: but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? art thou d Elias? and he saith, I am not. Art thou that e prophet? and he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou, that we may give an answer to them that sent us? what sayest thou of thy self?

23 He said, I am the f voice of one crying in the wilderness, make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias.

24 And they which were sent, were of the g Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, h Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?

26 John answered them, saying, I baptize i with water, but there standeth one among you, whom k ye know not,

27 He it is, who coming l after me, is preferred before me; whose shoes m latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done n in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 ¶ The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold o the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I p knew him not: but that he should be q made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 And John bare record, saying, I r saw the Spirit descending from heaven, like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And s I knew him not, but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and t bare record, that this is the Son of God.

35 Again the next day after, John stood, and two of his disciples.

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God.

37 And the u two disciples x heard him speak, and they y followed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master) where dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, z Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peters brother.

44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him of whom d Moses in the law and the prophets did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out e of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, f Come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold, g an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile.

48 Nathanael saith unto him, h Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast i under the fig-tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered, and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God, thou art the k King of Israel.

50 Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig-tree, believest thou? thou shalt see l greater things than these.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the m angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

AND the a third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.

2 And both Jesus was b called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, c They have no wine.

4 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine d hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, e do it.

6 And there were set there f six water-pots of stone, after the manner of of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 Jesus saith unto them, g Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was h made wine, and knew not whence it was, (but the servants which drew the water knew) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine, and when men have i well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This k beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, l and manifested forth his glory, and his disciples believed on him.

12 After this, he went down to m Capernaum, he, and his mother, & his brethren, and his disciples, and they continued there not many days

13 ¶ And the Jews passeover was at hand, and n Jesus went up to Jerusalem, 14 And found in the temple those that o sold oxen and sheep, & doves, and the changers of money, sitting.

15 And when he had made p a scourge of small cords, he q drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen, and poured out the changers money, and overthrew the tables:

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence, make not my Fathers house an house of r merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembred that it was written, s The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, t What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy u this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then x said the Jews, y Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21 But he spake z of the temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples a remembred that he had said this unto them: and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passeover, in the feast day, many b believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jesus did not c commit himself unto them, because he knew all men.

25 And needed not that any should testifie of man: for d he knew what was in man.

THere was a man of the a Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 The same came to Jesus b by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily I say unto thee, Except a man be c born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, d How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mothers womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily I say unto thee, Except a man be born of e water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh, f is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit, is spirit.

7 g Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

8 The † wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered, and said unto him, h How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou i a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily I say unto thee, We speak that k we do know, and testifie that we have seen: and ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you l earthly things, and ye believe not: how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

16 For God ſo loved the p world, that he q gave his onely begotten Son: that whoſoever believeth in him, ſhould not periſh, but have everlaſting life.

17 For God r ſent not his Son into the world to condemn the world: but that the world through him might be ſaved.

18 He that believeth on him, is not condemned: but he that believeth not, is condemned ſ already, becauſe he hath not believed in the name of the onely begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men t loved darkneſs rather then light: u becauſe their deeds were evil.

20 For every one that doth evil, x hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, leſt his deeds ſhould be reproved.

21 But he that doth the truth, cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifeſt, that they are y wrought in God.

22 After theſe things came Jeſus, and his diſciples into the land of Judea, and there he tarried with them, and z baptized.

23 ¶ And John alſo was baptizing in Aenon, near to Salim, becauſe there was a much water there: and they came and were baptized.

24 For John was not yet caſt into priſon.

25 ¶ Then there aroſe a queſtion between ſome of b Johns diſciples and the Jews, about purifying.

26 And they c came unto John, and ſaid unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou bareſt witneſs, behold, the ſame baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 John anſwered and ſaid, A man can d receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven

28 Ye your ſelves bear me witneſs, that I ſaid, e I am not the Chriſt, but that I am ſent before him.

29 He that hath f the bride, is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which ſtandeth and heareth him, rejoyceth greatly because of the bridegrooms voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled.

30 He muſt h increaſe, but I muſt decreaſe.

31 He that cometh from above, is i above all: he that is of the earth, is earthly, and k ſpeaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven, is above all:

32 And what he hath l ſeen and heard, that he teſtifieth, and no man receiveth his teſtimony.

1 Chriſt talketh with a woman of Samaria, and reveleth himſelf unto her.
43 Chriſt cometh into Galilee: 50 He reſtoreth the nobleman's ſon to life.

WHen therefore the a Lord knew how the Phariſees had heard that Jeſus made and baptized more diſciples then John,

4 And he muſt d needs go through Samaria.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called e Sychar, near to the parcel of ground, that Jacob gave to his ſon Joſeph.

6 Now Jacobs well was there. Jeſus therefore being f wearied with his journey, ſat thus on the well: and it was about the ſixth hour.

7 There cometh a g woman of Samaria to draw water: Jeſus ſaith unto her, give me to drink.

8 For his diſciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.

9 Then ſaith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it, that thou being a h Jew, aſkeſt drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? For the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.

10 Jeſus anſwered and ſaid unto her, If thou kneweſt the i gift of God, and who it is that ſaith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldeſt have aſked of him, and he would have 11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the l well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 m Art thou greater then our n father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattel?
13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water, shall thirst again:
14 But whosoever drinketh of the water o that I shall give him, shall p never thirst: but the water that I shall give him, shall be in him a well of water, springing up into everlasting life.
15 The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that q I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.
16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, r call thy husband, and come hither.
17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:
18 For thou hast had five husbands, and he whom thou now hast, s is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.
19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art t a prophet.
20 Our u fathers worshipped in this mountain, and ye say, that x in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.
21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour y cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, z nor yet at Jerusalem worship the Father.
22 Ye worship ye a know not what: we know what we worship: for b salvation is of the Jews.
23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father c in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.
24 God is a d Spirit, and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit, and in truth.
25 The woman saith unto him, I know that e Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things 26 Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee, f am he.
27 ¶ And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet g no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then h left her waterpot, and went her way into the i city, and said unto the men, 29 k Come, see a man which told me all l things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?
30 Then they m went out of the city, and came unto him.
31 ¶ In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.
32 But he said unto them, I have n meat to eat that ye know not of.
33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, o Hath any man brought him ought to eat?
34 Jesus saith unto them, p My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to q finish his work.

38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labor: other men y labored, and ye entred into their labors.
39 And many of the Samaritans of that city z beleeved on him, for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

41 And many more believed, because b of his own word:
42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have c heard him our selves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world.
43 ¶ Now after d two days, he departed thence, and went into e Galilee.
44 For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath f no honor in his own country.

49 The noble man saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my childe die.

50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way, thy son k liveth. And the man l believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, & he went his way.

CHAP. V.

Jesus on the sabbath-day cureth one that was diseased eight and thirty years.

AFter this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus a went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem by the b sheep market, a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, c having five porches.

3 In these c lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of d the waters.

4 For d an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then e first after the troubling of the water stepped in, was made whole of f whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity f thirty and eight yeers.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, g and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have h no man when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, i Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.

10 The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, k It is the sabbath-day, it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, l He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 And he that was healed, wist not who it was: for Jesus had m conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: n sin no more, lest a o worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was p Jesus which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and q sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath-day.

17 ¶ But Jesus answered them, My Father r worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews sought the s more to kill him, because he not onely had broken the sabbath, but said also, that God was his Father, making himself t equal with God.

19 Then answered Jesus, and said unto them, Verily, verily I say unto you, The Son can do nothing u of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doth, x these also doth the Son likewise.

20 For the Father y loveth the Son, and z sheweth him all things that himself doth: and he will shew him greater works then these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickneth them: even so the a Son quickneth whom he will.

22 For the Father b judgeth no man: but hath committed all judgment unto the Son.

23 That all men should honor the Son, even c as they honor the Father. He that honoreth not the Son, honoreth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily I say unto you, He

6 (And this he said d to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.)

7 Philip answered him, Two hundred penny worth of bread is e not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, f Andrew, Simon Peters brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but g what are they among so many?

10 And Jesus said, Make the men h sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sate down, in number about five thousand.

37 All that the Father o giveth me, shall come to me; and him that cometh to me, I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came down from heaven, not to do p mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Fathers will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me, I should lose nothing, but should q raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

r Mat. 11. 27.
41 The Jews then r murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, f Is not this Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmure not among your selves.

s 1 Cor. 4. 7. Mat. 11, 27.
44 No man can come unto me, s except the Father which hath sent me, draw him, and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 It

45 It is written in the u prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath x seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily I say unto you, He that believeth on me, hath everlasting life.

48 y I am that bread of life.

49 Your fathers z did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

51 I am the a living bread which came down from heaven: If any man eat of b this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give, is c my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore strove amongst themselves, saying, d How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily verily I say unto you, Except ye e eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, f dwelleth in me, and g I in him.

57 As the h living Father hath sent me, and I live i by the Father: so, he that eateth me, even he shall live k by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread, shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the l synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his m disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying, Who can n hear it?

61 When Jesus knew in himself, that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 What and if ye shall see the Son of man o ascend up where he was before in secret.

63 It is the p spirit that quickneth, the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that q believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning, who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of r my Father.

66 From that time many of his disciples s went back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, will t ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, u to whom shall x we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.

69 And we believe, and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

70 Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is y a devil?

71 He spake of z Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAP. VII.

Jesus reproveth his kinsmen, 10 he goeth up to the feast of tabernacles.

AFter these things, Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would a not walk in Jury, because the Jews sought to b kill him.

2 Now the Jews feast of c tabernacles was at hand.

3 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may d see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly: if thou do these things, shew thy self to the e world.

5 For neither did his f brethren believe in him.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, g My time is not yet come: but your time is h alway ready.

7 The world cannot i hate you, but me it hateth, because k I testifie of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast, for l my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he m abode still in Galilee

10 ¶ But when his brethren were gone up, then n went he also up unto the feast, o not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is p a good man: others said, Nay, but q he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit, no man spake openly , for r fear of the Jews.

Now about the midſt of the feaſt, Jeſus went up into the temple, and ſ taught.

15 And the Jews t marvelled, ſaying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?

16 Jeſus anſwered them, My doctrine is not mine, but u his that ſent me.

17 If any man will do his will, he ſhall x know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I ſpeak of my ſelf.

18 He that ſpeaketh y of himſelf, ſeeketh his own glory: but he that ſeeketh his glory that ſent him, the ſame is true, & no unrighteouſneſs is in him.

19 Did not Moſes give you the law, and yet z none of you keepeth the law? why go ye about to kill me?

20 The people anſwered and ſaid, Thou haſt a a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jeſus anſwered and ſaid unto them, I have done b one work, and ye all marvel.

22 Moſes therefore gave unto you circumciſion, (not becauſe it is c of Moſes, but of the d fathers) and ye on the ſabbath-day circumciſe a man

23 If a man on the ſabbath-day receive circumciſion, that the law of Moſes ſhould not be broken; are ye angry at me, becauſe I have made a man every whit whole on the ſabbath-day?

24 Judge not according to e the appearance, but judge righteous judgement.

25 Then ſaid ſome of them of Jeruſalem, Is not f this he whom they ſeek to kill?

26 But lo, he ſpeaketh g boldly, and they ſay nothing unto him: Do the h rulers know indeed, that this is the very Chriſt?

27 Howbeit, we know this man i whence he is: but when Chriſt cometh, no man knoweth k whence he is.

28 Then cried Jeſus in the temple as he taught, ſaying, Ye both l know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of my ſelf, m but he that ſent me is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I know him, for I am from n him, and he hath ſent me.

30 Then they ſought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, becauſe his hour was not yet come.

31 And many of the people o believed on him, and ſaid, When Chriſt cometh, will he do more miracles than theſe which this man hath done?

32 The q Phariſees heard that the people murmured ſuch things concerning him: and the Phariſees and the chief prieſts ſent officers to take him.

33 r Then ſaid Jeſus unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and ſ I go unto him that ſent me.

34 Ye ſhall t ſeek me, and ſhall not finde me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then ſaid the Jews among themſelves, Whither will he go, that we ſhall not finde him? will he go unto u the diſperſed among the * Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?

36 What manner of ſaying is this, that he ſaid, Ye ſhall ſeek me, and ſhall not finde me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 In the y laſt day, that great day of the feaſt, Jeſus ſtood, and cried, ſaying, If any man z thirſt, let him come unto me, and drink.

38 He that believeth on me, as the a ſcripture hath ſaid, out of his belly ſhall flow rivers of living water.

39 (But this ſpake he of the b ſpirit, which they that believe on him, ſhould receive: for the holy Ghoſt was not yet given, becauſe that Jeſus was not yet glorified)

40 Many of the people therefore, when they heard this ſaying, ſaid, Of a truth this is the c prophet.

41 Others ſaid, This is d the Chriſt. But ſome ſaid, Shall Chriſt come out of Galilee?

42 Hath not the e ſcripture ſaid, that Chriſt cometh of the ſeed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was?

43 So there was f a diviſion among the people becauſe of him.

44 And ſome of them would have taken him, but g no man laid hands on him.

45 Then came the officers to the chief prieſts and Phariſees, and they ſaid unto them, h Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers anſwered, Never man ſpake i like this man.

47 Then anſwered them the Phariſees, Are ye alſo deceived?

48 Have any of the k rulers, or of the Phariſees believed on him?

49 But this people, who knoweth not the law, are curſed.

50 Nicodemus ſaith unto them (he that came to Jeſus l by night, being one of them)

51 Doth m our law judge any man before it hear him, and know what he doth?

CHAP. VIII.

1 Christ delivereth the woman taken in adultery: 12 He preacheth himself the light of the world.

JEsus went unto the mount of Olives:

2 And a early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him, and he sate down, and taught them.

3 And the b scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery, and when they had set her in the midst, 4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the c very act.

5 Now d Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but e what sayest thou?

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger f wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lift up himself, and said unto them, He that is g without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being h convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was i left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lift up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither k do I condemn thee: Go, and l sin no more.

12 Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the m light of the world: he that followeth me, shall n not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest o record of thy self, thy record is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of my self, yet my record p is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go: but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye judge q after the flesh, I judge no man.

16 And yet if r I judge, my judgement is true: for I am not alone, but s I and the Father that sent me.

17 It is also t written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness u of my self, and the Father that sent me, beareth witness of me 19 Then said they unto him, Where x is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had y known me, ye should have z known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jesus in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on him, a for his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jesus again unto them, b I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall c die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, Will he d kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, Ye are e from beneath, f I am from above: ye are of this world, I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe g not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even h the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things i to say, and to judge of you: but he that sent me, is true, and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They k understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have l lift up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of my self: but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And he that sent me, is m with me: the Father hath not left me alone: for I do always those things that n please him.

30 As he spake these words, many o believed on him.

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye p continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed.

32 And ye shall q know the truth, and the truth shall make you r free.

Abrahams seed, and were never in r bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily I say unto you, f whosoever committeth sin, is the servant of sin.

35 And the t servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.

36 If the u Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

38 I speak that which I have seen w my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with y your Father.

39 They answered and said unto him, z Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abrahams children, ye would do a the works of Abraham.

40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath b told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did c not Abraham.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they unto him, We be not born of d fornication, we have one father, e even God.

42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your father, ye would f love me, for g I proceeded forth, and came from God: neither came I of my self, but he sent me.

43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear h my word.

44 i Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do: he was a murtherer from the k beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 And because I tell you l the truth, ye believe me not.

46 Which of you convinceth me m of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 He that is of God, n heareth Gods words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well, that thou art o a Samaritane, and hast a devil?

49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil: but p I honor my Father, and ye do dishonor me.

50 And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh & q judgeth.

51 Verily, verily I say unto you, If a man r keep my saying, he shall never see death.

52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we s know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets: and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

53 Art thou t greater then our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thy self?

54 Jesus answered, If I honor my self, my honor is u nothing: it is my Father that x honoreth me, of whom ye say, that he is your God.

55 Yet ye have y not known him, but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but z I know him, and keep his saying.

56 Your father Abraham rejoyced to see my day: and he a saw it, and was glad.

57 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?

58 Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily I say unto you, Before Abraham was, b I AM.

59 Then took they up c stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

CHAP. IX.

1 A man that was born blinde is restored to sight.

AND as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was a blinde from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did b sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blinde?

3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that c the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 I must work the d works of him ŷ sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, I am the e light of the world.

24 Then came the Jews e round about him, and said unto him, How long doest thou make us to doubt? f if thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.
25 Jesus answered them, g I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Fathers Name, they bear witness of me.
26 But ye believe not, because ye are h not of my sheep, as I said unto you.
27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.
28 And i I give unto them eternal life, and they shall k never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.
29 My father which l gave them me, is greater then all: and none is able to pluck them out of my Fathers hand.
30 I and my Father m are one.
31 Then the Jews took up stones n again to stone him.
32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; o for which of those works do ye stone me?
33 The Jews answered him, saying For a good work we stone thee not, but for p blasphemy, & because that thou, being a man, makest thy self God.
34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in q your law, I said, Ye are r gods?
35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken:
36 Say ye of him whom the Father hath s sanctified and t sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God?
37 If I do not the the works of my Father, believe me not.
38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know and believe that the Father is u in me, and I in him.
39 Therefore they sought again to take him: but he x escaped out of their hand, 40 And went away again beyond Jordan, into the y place where John at first baptized: and there he abode.
41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: but all things that John spake of this man, were true.
42 And many z believed on him there.

CHAP. XI.

1 Lazarus raised. 45 Many Jews believe

Now

NOw a certain man was sick, named Lazarus of a Bethany, the town of Mary, and her sister Martha.

2 (It was b that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick)

3 Therefore his c sisters d sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom e thou lovest, is sick.

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the f glory of God: that the Son of God might be g glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus h loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode i two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, k Let us go into Judea again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee, and l goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? if any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he n seeth ȳ light of this world.

10 But if a man walk in the o night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he, and after that he saith unto them, p Our friend Lazarus q sleepeth, but I go, that I may r awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit, Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus s is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, (to the intent ye may t believe;) nevertheless, let us go unto him.

16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow disciples, Let us also go, that we u may die with him.

17 Then when Jesus came, x he found that he had lien in the grave four days already.

18 (Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off)

19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, y to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.

21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, z if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But a I know, that even now whatsoever thou b wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall c rise again.

24 Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in d the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jesus said unto her, e I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he f live.

26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me, shall g never die. Believest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord, h I believe that thou art the i Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and k calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town: but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary that she rose up hastily, and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the l grave, to weep there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her m weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned n in the spirit, and was troubled.

34 And said, o Where have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 p Jesus wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he q loved him!

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, which r opened the eyes of the blinde, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore again s groaning in himself, cometh to the t grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, u Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord x by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, y if thou wouldst believe thou shouldest z see the glory of God?

43 And when he had thus ſpoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus d come forth.

44 And he that was dead, came forth bound hand and foot with e grave-clothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jeſus ſaith unto them, Looſe him, and let him go.

45 Then f many of the Jews which came to Mary, & had ſeen the things which Jeſus did, believed on him.

46 But g ſome of them went their ways h to the Phariſees, & told them what things Jeſus had done.

47 Then gathered the chief prieſts and the Phariſees a councel, and ſaid, What do we? for this man i doth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus k alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans ſhall come, and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high prieſt the ſame year, ſaid unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 Nor conſider that it is l expedient for us, that one man ſhould die for the people, and that the whole nation periſh not.

51 And this ſpake he, not of himſelf: but being high prieſt that year, he m propheſied that Jeſus ſhould die for that nation:

52 And not for that nation onely, but that alſo he ſhould gather together n in one, the children of God that were ſcattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth they took counſel together for to put him to death.

54 Jeſus therefore walked no more o openly among the Jews: but went thence unto a countrey near to the wilderneſs, into a city called p Ephraim, and there q continued with his diſciples.

55 And the Jews paſſeover was nigh at hand, and many went out of the countrey up to Jeruſalem before the paſſeover, r to purifie themſelves.

56 s Then ſought they for Jeſus, and ſpake among themſelves, as they ſtood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feaſt?

57 Now both the chief prieſts and the Phariſees had given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he ſhould ſhew it, that they might t take him.

THen Jeſus, ſix days before the paſſeover, a came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, which had been dead, whom he raiſed from ỹ dead.

2 There they made him b a ſupper, & Martha ſerved: but Lazarus was one of them ỹ ſat at the table with him.

3 Then took Mary a pound of ointment of ſpikenard, c very coſtly, and anointed the feet of Jeſus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the houſe was filled with the odor of the ointment.

4 Then ſaith one of his diſciples, Judas Iſcariot, Simons ſon, which ſhould betray him, 5 Why was not this ointment ſold for three hundred pence, and given d to the poor?

6 This he ſaid, not that he e cared for the poor: but becauſe he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then ſaid Jeſus, f Let her alone, againſt the day of my burying hath ſhe kept this.

8 For ỹ poor g always ye have with you: but me ye have not always.

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: & they came not for Jeſus ſake onely, but that they might ſee h Lazarus alſo, whom he had raiſed from the dead.

10 But the chief prieſts conſulted, that they might put i Lazarus alſo to death:

11 k Becauſe that by reaſon of him, many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jeſus.

13 Took m branches of palm-trees, & went forth to meet him, & cried, n Hoſanna, bleſſed is the King of Iſrael that cometh in the Name of ỹ Lord.

14 And Jeſus, when he had found a yong aſs, ſat thereon, as it is o written, they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him, when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, t bare record.

18 For this cause also the people t met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye u prevail nothing? Behold, the x world is gone after him.

20 And there were certain y Greeks among them, that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, a We would z see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip a told Jesus.

23 And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be b glorified.

24 Verily, verily I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground, and c die, it abideth alone; but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 He that loveth his life, shall loose it: and he that d hateth his life in this world, shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me, and where e I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honor.

27 Now is my soul troubled, and what shall I say? Father, f save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, g glorifie thy Name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, i I have both glorified it, and will glorifie it again.

29 The people therefore that stood by, & heard it, said that it k thundred: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the l judgment of this world: now shall m the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, if I be n lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.

33 (This he said, signifying what death he should die.)

34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law, that Christ o abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? p Who is this Son of man?

35 Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little q while is the light with you; walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness, knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be r the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did s hide himself from them.

37 But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they t believed not on him.

38 That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, u Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath x the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 y Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again, 40 He hath z blinded their eyes, and hardned their heart, that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things said Esaias, when he saw a his glory, and spake of him.

42 Nevertheless, among the chief rulers also, many believed on him: but because of the b Pharisees, they did c not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 For they loved the d praise of men, more then the praise of God.

44 Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth e not on me, but on him that sent me.

45 And he that f seeth me, seeth him that sent me.

46 g I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth in me, should not abide in darkness.

47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, h I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath i one that judgeth him: k the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

49 For I have not spoken / of my self: but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment m is life everlasting; whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

NOw before the feast of the passeover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come, that he should depart out of this world, unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the a end.

2 And supper being ended, (the b devil having now † put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simons son, to betray him.)

3 Jesus knowing that the Father had given c all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God:

4 He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments, and took a towel, and d girded himself.

5 After that, he poureth water into a bason, and began e to wash the disciples feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, f doest thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do, thou g knowest not now: but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt h never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, i If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet onely, but also k my hands and my head.

10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed, needeth not save to wash his l feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all.

11 For m he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again: he said unto them, n Know ye what I have done to you?

13 Ye call me o Master, and Lord, and ye say well: for p so I am.

14 If I then your Lord and Master have washed your feet, q ye also ought to wash one anothers feet.

15 For I have given you r an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 Verily, verily I say unto you, s The servant is not greater then his lord, neither he that is sent, greater then he that sent him.

17 If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye t do them.

18 ¶ I speak not of you all, I know whom u I have chosen: but that the x scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me, hath lift up his heel against me.

19 Now I tell you y before it come, that when it is come to pass, ye may believe that z I am he.

20 Verily, verily I say unto you, He that a receiveth whomsoever I send, receiveth me: and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.

21 When Jesus had thus said, he was b troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily I say unto you, that one of c you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples d looked one on another, e doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was leaning on Jesus bosom, one of his disciples, whom Jesus f loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore beckened to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then lying on Jesus breast, saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus ‡ answereth, He it is to whom I shall g give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot the son of Simon.

27 And after the sop, h Satan entred into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, i do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table k knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of l against the feast: or that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then having received the sop, m went immediately out: and it was night.

31 Therefore when he was gone out Jesus said, Now is the Son of man n glorified, and o God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorifie him p in himself, and shall straightway glorifie him.

LEt not your heart be troubled: ye a believe in God, believe also a in me.

2 In my fathers house are many b mansions; if it were not so I would have told you; I go to c prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will d come again, and receive you unto my self, that where I am, e there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go, ye know, and f the way ye know.

5 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whether thou goest: and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the g way, the truth, & the life: no man cometh unto the Father but by me.

7 If ye had h known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 Philip saith unto him, Lord, i shew us the Father, & it sufficeth us.

9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been k so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? He that hath seen me, hath seen the Father: and how sayest thou then, shew us the Father?

10 Believest thou not that I am l in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I speak unto you, I speak not of my self: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doth the works.

11 Believe me, that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very m works sake.

12 Verily, verily I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also, and n greater works than these shall he do, because I go unto my Father.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my Name, I will do it.

15 If ye q love me, keep my commandments.

16 And I will r pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever, 17 Even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him, for he s dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

18 I will not leave you ‡ comfortless, I will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more, but ye see me: because I live, t ye shall live also.

21 He that hath my commandments and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me; and he that loveth me, shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will x manifest my self to him.

22 Judas saith unto him, (not Iscariot) Lord, † how is it that thou wilt manifest thy self unto us, and not unto the world?

I Am the a true vine, and my Father is the b husbandman:

2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he c taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he d purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now ye are clean e through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4 Abide in me, and f I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of it self, except it abide in the vine: g no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for h without me ye can do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is i cast forth as a branch, and is withered, and men k gather them, & cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If ye abide in me, and l my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 Herein is my Father m glorified, that ye bear much fruit, so shall ye be my disciples.

9 As ȳ Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: n continue ye in my love.

10 If ye o keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love: even as I have kept my Fathers commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might p remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

12 This is q my commandment, ȳ ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater love hath no man then this, that a man lay down r his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my s friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not servants, for the servant knoweth not what his lord doth, but I have called you friends: for t all things that I have heard of my Father, I have made known unto you.

16 Ye have u not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and x ordained you, that you should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my Name, he may give it you.

17 These things I command you, that ye love one another

18 If the z world hate you, ye know ȳ it hated a me before it hated you.

19 If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have b chosen you out of ȳ world, c therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that d I said unto you, The servant is not greater then the lord: if they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you: if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.

21 But all these things will they e do unto you for my Names sake, because they f know not him that sent me.

22 If I g had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloak for their sin.

23 He that hateth me, hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen, and hated both me and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in h their law, They hated me i without a cause.

26 But when the Comforter is come whom k I will send unto you from the Father, even the spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testifie of me.

WHen Jesus had spoken these words, a he went forth with his b disciples over the brook c Cedron where was a garden, into the which he entred and his disciples.

2 And Judas also which betrayed him, knew d the place: for Jesus oft-times resorted thither with his disciples.

4 Jesus therefore knowing all things that should come upon him, f went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also which betrayed him, g stood with them.

CHAP. XIX.

Christ scourged, crowned, and beaten.

a Mat 27.26 b Gen. 22.13. c 1 Cor 4.9.

THen Pilate therefore took Jesus, and a scourged him.

2 And the souldiers platted b a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,

3 And said, c Hail king of the Jews: & they smote him with their hands.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I finde a no fault in him.

5 Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe: and Pilate saith unto them, e Behold the man.

6 When the chief priests therefore, and officers f saw him, they cried out saying, Crucifie him, crucifie him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucifie him: for I finde no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and g by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the h son of God.

8 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the i more afraid.

9 And went again into the judgement hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him k no answer.

10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power l to crucifie thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jesus answered, Thou couldest have m no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore n he that delivered me unto thee, o hath the greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art p not Cesars friend: whosoever q maketh himself a king speaketh against Cesar.

13 When Pilate therefore r heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgement seat, t in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And it was the preparation of the passeover, and about the u sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King.

15 But they cryed out, x Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucifie your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cesar.

16 Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified: and they took Jesus, and u led him away.

17 And x he bearing his cross, went forth into a place, called the place of a scull, which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha.

18 Where they y crucified him, and z two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

19 And a Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross, and the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified, was nigh to the city: and it was written in b Hebrew, and Greek, and Latine.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The king of the Jews: but that he said, I am king of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written, c I have written.

23 Then the d souldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, (and made e four parts, to every souldier a part) and also his coat: now the coat was f without seam, woven from g top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let not us rent it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, g They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the souldiers did.

25 Now there stood by the cross of Jesus, h his mother, and his mothers sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and i Mary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, k whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son.

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold l thy mother. And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

28 After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now m accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, n I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vineger: and they o filled a spunge with vineger, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vineger, he said, p It is finished: and he bowed his head, and q gave up the Ghost.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was r the preparation, s the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath-day, (for the sabbath-day was an f high day) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the souldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs,

THE a former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of b all that Jesus began both to c do and teach,

2 Until the day in which he was d taken up, after that he through the holy Ghost had given e commandments unto the apostles, whom he had chosen.

3 To whom also he shewed himself alive f after his passion, by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, & speaking of the things pertaining to g the kingdom of God:

4 And being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the h promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me.

5 For John truly baptized i with water, but ye shall be baptized with the holy Ghost, not many days hence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou k at this time restore again the l kingdom to Israel?

7 And he said unto them, It is not for m you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put n in his own power

8 But ye shall receive power, after that the holy Ghost is come upon you, and ye shall be o witnesses unto me, both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 And when he had p spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up, and q a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven, as he went up, behold, r two men stood by them in white apparel, 11 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you s into heaven, shall so t come, in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 Then returned they unto Jerusalem, from the mount, called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem u a sabbath days journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up into an x upper-room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, & Andrew, Philip, & Thomas, Bartholomew & Matthew, James the son of Alpheus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James.

14 These all y continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the z women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, & with his brethren

15 And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (ỹ number of names together were about a an hundred and twenty.)

16 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the holy Ghost by the mouth b of David spake before concerning Judas, which was c guide to them that took Jesus.

17 For he was d numbred with us, & had obtained part of this ministery.

18 Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity, and e falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem, insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldame, that is to say, The field of blood.

AND as they ſpake unto the people, the a prieſts, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadduces came upon them,
2 Being b grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jeſus the reſurrection from the dead.
3 And they c laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide
4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word, d believed, and the number of the men was about e five thouſand.
5 ¶ And it came to paſs on f the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and ſcribes,
6 And Annas the high prieſt, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high prieſt, were g gathered together at Jeruſalem.
7 And when they had ſet them in ỹ midſt, they asked, h By what power, or by what name have ye done this?
8 Then Peter filled with the holy Ghoſt, i ſaid unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Iſrael, 9 If we this day be examined of the k good deed done to ỹ impotent man by what means he is made whole,
10 Be it known unto you all, and to the people of Iſrael, that by the Name of Jeſus Chriſt of Nazareth, whom l ye crucified, whom God raiſed from the dead, even m by him doth this man ſtand here before you whole.

23 ¶ And being let go, they went to their d own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders 24 And when they heard that, they l threatnings: and grant unto thy servants, that with m all boldness they may speak thy word,

30 By stretching forth n thine hand to heal: and that signs and wonders may be done by the Name of thy holy childe Jesus.

31 And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together, and they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed, were of one p heart, and of one soul: neither said any of them, that ought of the things which he possessed, was his own, but they had all things common.

33 And with q great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them r that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands, or houses, s sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

35 And laid them down at the apostles feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

4 Whiles it remained, was it not was it not in thine f own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and g gave up the ghost:
and h great fear came on all them that heard these things.

1 The church planted in Samaria by Philip, 14 confirmed by Peter and John.

AND Saul was a consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the chuch which was at Jerusalem, and they were all b scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea, and Samaria, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made c great lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, he made d havock of the church, entring into every house, and haling men and women, committed them to prison.

4 Therefore e they that were scattered abroad, went every f where preaching the word.

5 Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and g preached Christ unto them.

6 And the h people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For i unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great k joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, called Simon, which before time in the same city used sorcery, & bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out y himself was some m great one.

10 To whom they n all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This is the grat power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of o long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But when they p believed Philip, preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the Name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Simon himself q believed also: and when he was r baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondred, beholding the miracles and signs which were done.

14 Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem, heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they *s*ent unto them Peter and John 20 But Peter said unto him, Thy money a perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for b thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 c Repent therefore of this thy wickedness: and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thy heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in the d gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

25 And they, when they had testified f and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the g Samaritans.

26 And the angel of the Lord spake h unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south, unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.

27 And he arose, and went: and behold, a man of i Ethiopia, an eunuch, of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, & had come to Jerusalem for to worship, 28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot, k read Esaias the prophet.

31 And he said, n How can I, except some man should guide me? and he o desired Philip that he would come up, and sit with him.

32 The place of the scripture which he read, was this, p He was led as a sheep to the slaughter, and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his q humiliation his judgement was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, r of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and s preached unto him Jesus.

36 And as they t went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water, what doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Philip said, If u thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And x he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they y went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, the z spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way a rejoycing.

40 But Philip was found at b Azotus: and passing thorow, he preached c in all the cities, till he came to Cesarea.

17 And Ananias went his way, and entred into the house, and putting his hands on him, said, Brother Saul, the Lord (even Jesus that z appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest) hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there a fell from his eyes as it had been scales, and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And when he had b received meat, he was strengthned. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he c preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not d this he that destroyed them, which called on this Name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul e increased the more in strength, and f confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

23 And after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him.

24 But their g laying await was known of Saul: and they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down h by the wall in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to joyn himself to the disciples: but they were all i afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas took him, and brought him k to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached l boldly at Damascus in the Name of Jesus.

28 And he was with them m coming in, and going out at Jerusalem.

29 And he spake boldly in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about n to slay him.

30 Which when the o brethren knew, they brought him down to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus

31 Then had the churches p rest throughout all Judea, and Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified, and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the holy Ghost, were multiplied.

32 And it came to pass, as Peter passed q throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certain man, named Aeneas, which had kept his bed r eight years, and was sick of the palsie.

34 And Peter said unto him, Aeneas, s Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda, and t Saron, saw him, and u turned to the Lord.

36 Now there was at x Joppa a certain disciple, named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of y good works and alms-deeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had z washed, they laid her in an upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they a sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lift her up: and when he had called the f saints and widows, presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa, with one Simon g a tanner.

THere was a certain man in Cesarea, called Cornelius, a centurion of the band, called the Italian band

2 A devout man, and one that feared God with b all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God c alway:

3 He saw in a vision evidently, about d the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for e a memorial before God.

5 And now f send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter.

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall g tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his houshold servants, and h a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually.

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 On the morrow as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon i the house top to pray, about the k sixth hour.

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into l a trance

11 And saw p heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet, knit at the q four corners, and let down to the earth.

12 Wherein were r all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter, kill and eat.

14 But Peter said, s Not so, Lord: for I have never eaten any thing that is t common or unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, u What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

17 Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen, should mean: behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had made enquiry for Simons house, and stood before the gate.

18 And called, and asked, whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 While Peter x thought on the vision, the y spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, z doubting nothing: for a I have sent them.

21 b Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius: and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and c of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel, to send for thee into his house, and to hear words d of thee.

23 Then called he them in, e and lodged them: and on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entred into Cesarea: and Cornelius waited for them, and had f called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and g worshipped him.

26 But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up, I my self also am h a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for i a man y is a Jew, to keep company, or come unto one of k another nation: but God hath shewed me, y I should not call any man common or unclean

29 Therefore came I unto you without gain-saying, l assoon as I was sent for. I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me.

30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was m fasting until this hour, and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in y house of one Simon a tanner, by the sea side, who when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee, and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear o all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is p no respecter of persons:

35 But in every nation, he that feareth him, and q worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

36 The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace r by Jesus Christ, (he is s Lord of all)

37 That word (I say) you know, which was published throughout all Judea, and t began from Galilee, after the bapti m which John preached, 38 How God u anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the holy Ghost, and with power; who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil, for x God was with him.

39 And we are y witnesses of all things which he did, both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem, whom they slew, and hanged on a tree:

40 Him z God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly,

41 Not to all the people, but unto witnesses, a chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from y dead.

42 And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testifie that it is he which was ordained of God to be the b judge of quick and dead.

43 To him give all the prophets witness, that through c his Name, whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

44 d While Peter yet spake these words, the holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And they of the e circumcision which believed, were astonished, as many as came with Peter, f because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speak with g tongues, and h magnifie God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the holy Ghost, as well as we?

48 And he i commanded them to be baptized k in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him l to tarry certain days.

AND the apostles and brethren that were in Judea, heard that the Gentiles had also a received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of b the circumcision c contended with him,

3 Saying, d thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter e rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order unto them, saying,

5 I was in the city of Joppa f praying, and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners, and it came even to me.

6 Upon the which, when I g had fastned mine eyes, I considered, and saw four-footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard h a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter, slay and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing i common or unclean hath at any time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath k cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done l three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

CHAP. XII.

1 Herod persecutes the Christians.

NOw about that time, Herod the a king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church.

2 And he b killed James the brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw it c pleased the Jews, he proceeded further, to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread)

4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to d four quaternions of soldiers to keep him, intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made e without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, f the same night
Peter was sleeping gbet ween two soldiers, bound with two chains, and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And behold, the h angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote
Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly: and his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, i Gird thy self, and binde on thy sandals: and so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him, and k wist not that it was true which was done by the angel: but thought he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first, and the second ward, they came unto passed on through one street, and forthwith the angel departed from him.

himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that m the Lord hath sent his angel, & hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of n Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark, where o many were gathered together, praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came p to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Peters voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art q mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is r his angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he beckning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how s the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto t James, and to the brethren. And he departed, & went into another place.

18 Now assoon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had x sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 And Herod was y highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with z one accord to him, and having made Blastus the kings chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because their countrey was nourished by the kings countrey.

21 And upon a set-day, Herod arayed in a royal apparel, sate upon his throne, and made an oration unto them:

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the b voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And c immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 But the word of God d grew and multiplied.

25 And Barnabas and Saul e returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministery, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

CHAP. XIII.

Paul and Barnabas sent to the Gentiles.

NOw there were in the church that was at Antioch, certain a prophets, and teachers: as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and b Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been c brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

2 d As they ministred to the Lord, and fasted, the holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them.

3 And when they had e fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 So they being f sent forth by the holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia, and from thence they sayled to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the g synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John to their minister.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain h sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-jesus:

7 Which was with the deputy of the countrey, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man: who called for Barnabas and Saul, and i desired to hear the word of God.

8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood k them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul (who also is called Paul) filled with the holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty, and all mischief, thou l childe of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now, behold, m the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blinde, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him n a mist and a darkness, and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, o believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John p departing from them, returned to Jerusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the q synagogue on the sabbath-day, and sat down.

p Acts 12.12. q v. 5. 1 Cor. 9.20. 2 Tim. 4.2.

15 And after the reading of the law & the prophets, ỹ / rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and beckning with his hand, said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of m this people of Israel n chose our fathers, and exalted the people, when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, & with an high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And about the time of forty years suffered he their o manners in the wilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed seven p nations in the land of Canaan, q he divided their land to them by lot:

20 And after that he gave unto them r judges, about the space ſ of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet.

21 And afterward they t desired a king, and God gave unto them Saul, the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by ỹ space of u forty years

22 And when he had x removed him, he y raised up unto them David to be their king, to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

23 Of this mans z seed hath God, according to his promise, raised unto Israel a Savior, Jesus:

24 When John had first preached a before his coming, the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, b Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.

26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, & whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this c salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they d knew him not, nor yet the e voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath-day, they have f fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found g no cause of death in him: yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain.

29 And when he had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the h tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

30 But God i raised him from ỹ dead.

31 And he was seen many k days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people.

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the / promise which was made unto the fathers, 33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their m children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again, as it is also n written in the second psalm, Thou art my son, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the o sure mercies of David.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another p psalm, Thou shalt not suffer thine holy One to see corruption.

36 For David after he had q served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption.

37 But he whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

38 Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this r man is preached unto you the ſ forgiveness of sins.

39 And by him all that t believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the u law of Moses.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken of in the x prophets, 41 Behold, ye y despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which you shall z in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, a the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes, b followed Paul and Barnabas; who speaking to them, perswaded them to continue in the c grace of God.

44 And the next sabbath-day came almost the d whole city together, to hear the word of God.

45 But when the e Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, f contradicting and blaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas g waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should h first have been spoken to you: but seeing i ye put put it from you, and judge your selves unworthy of everlasting life; lo, k we turn to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have l set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and m glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were n ordained to eternal life, believed.

49 And the o word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up p the devout and honorable women, & the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts

51 But they q shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto r Iconium

AND it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews, and also of the Greeks, a believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, & made their mindes b evil affected against the brethren.

3 Long time c therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was d divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews, e with their rulers, to use them despitefully, & f to stone them,

6 They were g ware of it, and fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about.

7 And there they h preached the gospel.

8 And there sate a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a creeple from his i mothers womb, who never had walked.

9 The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had k faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet; and he l leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lift up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The m gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, n Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius; because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the o priest of Jupiter which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the p people.

14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas, and Paul heard of, they q rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? we also are r men of like passions with you, and preach unto you, that ye should turn from these s vanities unto the living God, which made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

16 Who in times past t suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 Nevertheless he left not himself u without witness, in that he did x good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings y scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who perswaded the people, and having z stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, a he rose up, and came into the city, and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch, 22 b Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through c much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had † ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they d commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia.

26 And thence sailed to Antioch,

AND a certain men which came down from Judea, taught the brethren, and said, b Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small c dissension, and disputation with them, they d determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders, about this question.

3 And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice, and Samaria, e declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that f God had done with them.

5 But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which g believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders h came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that i a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should k hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

8 And God which l knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the holy Ghost, even as he did unto m us:

9 And put no difference between us and them, m purifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore, why tempt ye God, to put n a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers, nor we were able to bear?

11 But we believe that through the o grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, we shall be saved even as they.

12 Then all the p multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 And after they had held their peace, q James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me.

14 Simeon hath declared how God at the first did r visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this agree the words of s the prophets, as it is written,

16 After this I will return, and will t build again the tabernacle of David, which is u fallen down: and I will build again the x ruines thereof, and I will set it up:

18 Known unto God are all his works from the z beginning of the world

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we a trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God

20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain from b pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things c strangled, and from blood.

21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach d him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath-day.

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with ȳ e whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch, with Paul and Barnabas: namely Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren.

23 And wrote letters by them after this manner, The apostles, and elders, and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch, and Syria, and Cilicia.

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which f went out from us have troubled you with words g subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law; to whom we gave h no such commandment:

1. Paul preaching at Thessalonica, is persecuted.

NOw when they had passed through Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to a Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews.

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath-days reasoned with them b out of the scriptures,

3 Opening and † alledging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead: and that this Jesus whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 And some of them c believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas: and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 But the Jews which d believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the e baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, & sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they f found them not, they drew Jason, & certain brethren, unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have g turned the world upside down, are come hither also;

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do h contrary to the decrees of Cesar, saying, That there is i another king, one Jesus.

8 And they k troubled the people, and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things, 11 These were n more noble then those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all o readiness of minde, and p searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed also of honorable women, which were Greeks, and of men not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they q came thither also, and r stirred up the people.

14 And then immediately the brethren s sent away Paul, to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul, brought him unto Athens, and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus, for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city u wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market x daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the y Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountred him: and some said, What will this z babler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and a brought him unto Areopagus, saying, May we know what this b new doctrine whereof thou speakest is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there, spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some c new thing.)

22 Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars-hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are d to superstious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, e TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye f ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 God that made the world, and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, g dwelleth not in temples made with hands:

25 Neither is worshipped with mens hands, as though he h needed any thing; seeing he giveth to all i life, and breath, and all things:

26 And hath made of k one blood all nations of men, for l to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation:

27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might m feel after him, and n finde him, though he be not far from every one of us.

28 For o in him we live, and move, and have our being, as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his off-spring.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the off-spring of God, we ought not think that the p Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone graven by art, and mans device.

30 And the times of this ignorance God q winked at, but now commandeth all r men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day in the which he will judge the world in righteousness, by that s man whom he hath ordained: whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32 And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some t mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit, certain men clave unto him, and u believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

3 Paul laboring with his hands, and preaching at Corinth.

AFter these things, Paul departed from Athens, and came to a Corinth,

2 And found a certain Jew, named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla (because that Claudius had b commanded all Jews to depart from Rome) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and c wrought (for by their occupation they were tent-makers.)

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and d persuaded the Jews, and the Greeks.

5 And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was e pressed in spirit, and testified to the Jews, that Jesus was Christ.

6 And when they opposed themselves and blasphemed, he f shook his raiment, and said unto them, g Your blood be upon your own heads, I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

7 And he departed thence, and h entred into a certain mans house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joyned hard to the synagogue.

8 And i Crispus the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house: and many of the Corinthians, k hearing, believed, and were baptized.

9 Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be l not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 For I am m with thee, and no man shall set on thee, to hurt thee: for I have n much people in this city.

11 And he continued there a year and six moneths, o teaching the word of God among them.

12 And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection p with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgement-seat, 13 Saying, This fellow perswadeth men to worship God q contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you.

15 But if it be a question of r words, and names, and of your law, look ye to it: for I will be s no judge of such matters.

16 And t he drave them from the judgment-seat.

17 Then all the Greeks took u Sosthenes the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgement-seat: and Gallio x cared for none of those things.

18 And Paul after this, y tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sayled thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila: having z shorn his head in a Cenchrea: for he had a b vow

19 And he came to c Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entred into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they d desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not.

21 But bade them farewel, saying, I must by all means keep this e feast that cometh in Jerusalem; but I will return again unto you, if f God will: and he sayled from Ephesus

22 And when he had landed at Cesarea, and gone up and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had g spent some time there, he departed and went over all the countrey of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthning all the disciples.

24 And a certain Jew, named Apollos, born at Alexandria, h an eloquent man, and mighty in the i scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord, and being k fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the l baptisme of John.

26 And he began to speak m boldly in ȳ synagogue: whom when Aquila & Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and n expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote exhorting the disciples to receive him: who when he was come, o helped them much which had believed p through grace.

28 For he mightily q convinced the Jews, and that publiquely, shewing by the scriptures, that Jesus was Christ.

CHAP. XIX.

The holy Ghost given by Pauls hands.

AND it came to pass, that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the a upper coasts, came to Ephesus, and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received b the holy Ghost since ye c believed? and they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any holy Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? and they said, Unto d Johns baptism.

4 Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the e baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, That they should believe on him, which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized g in the Name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had h laid his hands upon them, the holy Ghost came on them, and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three moneths, disputing and perswading the things concerning the i kingdom of God.

9 But when divers were k hardned, and believed not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude, he l departed from them, and m separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.

10 And this continued by the space of n two years, so that o all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And p God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul:

12 So that q from his body were brought unto the sick, handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them; and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 Then certain of the vagabond Jews, r exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul s preacheth.

14 And there were t seven sons of one Sceva a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, u Jesus I know, and x Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was, leapt on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house y naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and z fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was a magnified.

18 And many that believed, came & b confessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many also of them which used c curious arts, brought their books together, and d burned them before all men: and counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 e So mightily grew the word of God, and prevailed.

21 After these things were ended, Paul f purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia, and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.

22 So he g sent into Macedonia two of them that ministred unto him Timotheus and Erastus, but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And the same h time there arose no small stir about that way.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silver-smith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no i small gain unto the crafts-men:

25 Whom he called together with the work-men of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that k by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover, ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath perswaded and turned away much people, saying, that they be l no gods which are made with hands.

27 So that not onely this our craft is in danger to be m set at nought: but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia, and the n world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, o Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion, and having caught p Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Pauls companions in travel they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul q would have entred in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the r chief of Asia which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused, and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And s Alexander t beckned with the hand, and would have made his defence to the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor x yet blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Wherefore if Demetrius and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, y the law is open, and there are deputies, let them implead one another.

39 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this days uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he z dismissed the assembly.

AND after the uproar was a ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, & had given them b much exhortation, he came into c Greece,

3 And there abode three moneths: and when the Jews d laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And there e accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea: & of the Thessalonians Aristarchus, & Secundus: & Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus: and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus.

5 These going before, tarried for us at f Troas:

6 And we sailed away from Philippi, after the days of g unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days, where we abode seven days.

7 And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to h break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow, and continued his speech until i midnight.

8 And there were k many lights in the upper-chamber where they were gathered together.

9 And there sate in a window a certain yong man named Eutychus, being fallen into l a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, & was taken up m dead

10 And Paul n went down, and fell on him, and embracing him, said, Trouble not your selves, for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till o Break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the yong man alive, and were not a little p comforted.

13 And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so he had appointed, minding himself to go q a foot.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios, and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium: and the next day we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it r were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of s Pentecost.

17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the t elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, u Ye know from the first day that I came into Asia, after-what manner I have been with you x at all seasons.

ing to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was f zealous towards God, as ye all are this day.

4 And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prison both men and women

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom I also received h letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there, bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

6 And it came to pass that as I made my journey, and was come i nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, Why persecutest thou k me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth whom thou persecutest.

9 And they that were with me, saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they ‡ heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 ¶ And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus, & there it shalbe l told thee of al things which are appointed for thee m to do.

11 And when I could n not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having o a good report of all the Jews which dwelt there:

13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath p chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and q see that just One, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his r witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized: and s wash away thy sins, calling on the Name of the Lord.

17 And it came to pass, that when I was come again to Jerusalem, even t while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;

18 And saw him saying unto me, u Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will x not receive thy testimony concerning me

19 And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned, & y beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and z consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: for I will a send thee far hence unto the b Gentiles.

22 And they gave him audience unto c this word, and then lift up their voices, and said, d Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live.

23 And as they cried out, and e cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, 24 f The chief captain commanded him to be brought into ♆ g castle, & bade that he should be examined by h scourging: that they might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a i Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and k told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou dost, for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, l Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a m great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined ‡ him: and the chief captain also was afraid after that he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of ♆ Jews he n loosed him from his bands, and commanded ♆ chief priests & al their councel to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

1 Paul being accused by Tertullus the orator, 10 answereth for himself.

AND after a five days Ananias the high priest descended with the b elders, and with a certain c orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very d worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence:

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldst hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For we have found this man a † pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews e throughout the world, and a ring-leader of the sect of the Nazarens.

6 Who also hath gone about f to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged g according to our law.

7 But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence h took him out of our hands:

8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee, by examining of whom thy self mayest take knowledge of all these things whereof i we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also k assented, saying, that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many yeers l a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for my self:

11 Because that thou mayest m understand, that there are yet but twelve n days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.

12 And they neither found me in the temple o disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

12 Then Festus when he had conferred with the councel, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cesar? unto Cesar shalt thou r go.

13 And after certain days, king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Pauls cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man f left in bonds by Felix:

15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests & the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have t judgment against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the u Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused, have the accusers x face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therfore when they were come hither, without any delay, on the morrow I sat on the judgment-seat, and I commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed 19 But had certain questions against him of their own y superstition, and of one Jesus, which was z dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because I a doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also b hear the man my self. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with † great pomp, and was entred into the c place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the d multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, e crying that he ought not to live any longer.

25 But

25 But when I found that he had committed nothing a worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto † my lord: wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that after examination had, I might have some what to write.

27 For it seemeth to me b unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signifie the crimes laid against him.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 Paul in the presence of Agrippa declareth his life from his childehood. 12 and how miraculously he was converted, and called to his apostleship.

THen Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art a permitted to speak for thy self. Then Paul b stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself,

2 I think my self happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for my self this day before thee, touching all the things, whereof I am accused of the Jews.

3 Especially, because I know thee to be † expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life from c my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews,

5 Which knew me from the beginning (if they would testifie) that after the most d straitest sect of our religion, I lived a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand, and am judged for the hope of the e promise made of God unto our fathers

7 Unto which promise our twelve f tribes, instantly serving God day and night, g hope to come: for which h hopes sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing i incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 I verily k thought with my self, that I ought to do many things contrary to the Name of Jesus of Nazareth

10 Which thing I also did l in Jerusalem, and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them

11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them m to blaspheme: and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 Whereupon as I went to Damascus, with n authority and commission from the chief priests:

13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, o above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me, and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, Why persecutest thou p me? It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet, for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, q to make thee a minister and a witness, both of those things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which r I will appear unto thee:

17 s Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, 18 u To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was x not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But shewed first unto them of y Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and z turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

21 a For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore b obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come:

23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the c first that should rise from the dead, and should d shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul thou art e beside thy self, much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus, but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am perswaded that none of these things are hidden from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou perswadest me to be a Christian.

29 And Paul said, I would to God that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sate with them.

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doth nothing worthy of death, or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Cesar.

CHAP. XXVII.

10 Paul forsaketh the danger of the voyage.

AND when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners, unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus band.

2 And entring into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia, one Aristarchus a Macedonian, of Thessalonica, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously intreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra a city of Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy, and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Gnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Creet, over against Salmone:

8 And hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called, The fair havens, nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless, the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more then those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Creet, and lieth toward the south-west, and north-west.

13 And when the south-wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Creet.

14 But not long after there arose against it † a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island, which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat:

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightned the ship, 19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved, was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkned unto me, and not have loosed from Creet, and to have gained this harm and loss:

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any mans life among you, but of the ship.

23 For there stood by me this night z the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve, 24 Saying, Fear not Paul, thou must be brought before Cesar; and lo, God hath a given thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore (sirs) be of good cheer; for b I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit, c we must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria about mid-night, the ship-men deemed that they drew near to some countrey:

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 d Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four ancres out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the ship-men were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have † cast ancres out of the foreship:

31 Paul said to the centurion, and to the soldiers, Except these e abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried, and ‡ continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat, for this is f for your health: for there shall g not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and h gave thanks to God in the i presence of them all, & when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all k of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship, two hundred threescore and sixteen l souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightned the ship, and m cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek, with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had taken up the ancres, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudderbands, and hoised up the main-sail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they n ran the ship a ground, and the fore-part stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broke with the violence of the waves

42 And the soldiers counsel was to o kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, willing to p save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded, that they which could swim, should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship: and so it came to pass that they escaped q all safe to land.

CHAP. XXVIII.

Paul after his shipwrack, is kindly entertained by the barbarians.

AND when they were a escaped, then they knew that the island was called Melita.

2 And the barbarous people shewed us b no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and c received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came d a viper out of the heat, and fastned on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, no doubt this man is e a murtherer, whom, though he hath escaped § sea, f yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he g shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.

6 Howbeit, they looked when he should have swoln, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their mindes, and said that he was h a god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius, i who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass that the father of Publius lay sick of k a fever, and of a bloody flix, to whom Paul entred in, and l prayed, and m laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

11 And after three moneths we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the ile, whose sign was † Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fet a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south winde blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:

14 Where we found q brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward r Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came s to meet us as far as Appii-forum, and the Three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and t took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was u suffered to dwell by himself, with a soldier that kept him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days, Paul called the x chief of the Jews together. And when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

18 Who when they had examined me, would have y let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews spake against it, I was z constrained to appeal unto Cesar, not that I had a ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you, because that for the b hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.

21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came, shewed or spake any c harm of thee.

22 But we d desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that e every where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging, to whom he expounded and f testified the kingdom of God, perswading them concerning Jesus, both out of the g law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And h some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they i departed, after that Paul had spoken one word. Well spake the holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet, unto our fathers, 26 Saying, k Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand: and seeing, ye shall see, and not perceive.

27 For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have l they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the m salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.

29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great o reasoning among themselves.

30 And Paul dwelt p two whole years in his own hired house, q and received all that came in unto him.

31 Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ with all r confidence, s no man forbidding him.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul commendeth his calling to the Romans. 16 What his gospel is.

PAUL a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, a separated unto the gospel of God,

2 (Which he b had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures)

3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was c made of the seed of David according to the flesh,

4 And d declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead.

5 By whom we have received grace and apostleship for obedience to the faith among all nations for his name:

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the r power of God unto salvation, to every one that believeth, to the s Jew first, and also to the Greek.

19 Because that which may y be known of God, is manifest in them, for God hath shewed it unto them.

20 For the z invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and God-head, so that they are a without excuse.

22 c Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools:

23 And changed the d glory of the uncorruptible God, into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

24 Wherefore God also e gave them up to uncleanness, through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonor their own bodies between themselves.

25 Who changed the truth of God into f a lie, and worshipped and served the creature, ‡ more then the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen

26 For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is g against nature.

27 And likewise also the h men leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another, men with men working that which is unseemly, and i receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

28 And even k as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to l a reprobate minde, to do those things which are not convenient:

10 But glory, honor, and l peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew firſt, and alſo to the Gentile.

11 For there is m no reſpect of perſons with God.

12 For as many as have n ſinned without law, ſhall alſo perish without law: and as many as have ſinned o in the law, ſhall be judged by the law.

13 (For not the p hearers of the law are juſt before God; but the doers of the law ſhall be juſtified.

14 For when the Gentiles which have not the law, do q by nature the things contained in the law; theſe having not the law, are a law unto themſelves:

15 Which ſhew the r work of the law written in their hearts, their conſcience alſo bearing witneſs, and their thoughts the mean while ſ accuſing, or elſe excuſing one another.)

16 In the day when God ſhall judge t the ſecrets of men by Jeſus Chriſt, according to my goſpel.

17 Behold, thou art called a Jew, and u reſteſt in the law, and makeſt thy boaſt of God:

18 And x knoweſt his will, and approveſt the things that are more excellent, being inſtructed out of the law,

19 And art confident that thou thy ſelf art y a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darkneſs, 20 An inſtructer of the fooliſh, a teacher of babes, which haſt the form z of knowledge, and of the truth in the law.

21 Thou therefore which teacheſt another, teacheſt thou a not thy ſelf? thou that preacheſt a man ſhould not ſteal, doeſt thou ſteal?

22 Thou that ſayeſt a man ſhould not commit adultery, doeſt thou commit adultery? thou that abhorreſt idols, doeſt thou commit ſacrilege?

23 Thou that makeſt b thy boaſt of the law, through breaking the law diſhonoreſt thou God?

24 For the name of God is blaſphemed among the Gentiles, through you, as it is c written.

25 For circumciſion verily profiteth, if thou d keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumciſion is made uncircumciſion

26 Therefore, if the uncircumciſion keep the e righteouſneſs of the law, ſhall not his uncircumciſion be f counted for circumciſion?

27 And ſhall not uncircumciſion which is by nature, if it g fulfil the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumciſion doeſt tranſgreſs the law?

28 For he is h not a Jew, which is one outwardly, neither is that circumciſion, which is outward in the fleſh:

29 But he is a Jew, which is i one inwardly, and circumciſion is that of the heart, in the ſpirit, and not in the letter, whoſe praiſe is not of men, but of God.

that we say, Let us k do evil, that good may come: whose damnation is just.

9 What then? are we l better then they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin,

10 As it is m written, There is none righteous, no not one:

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are n all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable, there is none that doth good, no not one.

13 Their o throat is an open sepulchre, with their tongues they have used deceit, the poison of asps is under their lips:

14 Whose mouth is full of p cursing and bitterness.

15 Their feet are q swift to shed blood.

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:

17 And the r way of peace have they not known.

18 There is no s fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things soever the t law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be u stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

20 Therefore by the x deeds of the law, there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

21 But now the y righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being z witnessed by the law and the prophets.

22 Even the righteousness of God, which is a by faith of Jesus Christ unto all, and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:

23 For all have sinned, and come short of the b glory of God.

24 Being justified c freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Jesus Christ:

25 Whom God hath set forth to be d a propitiation, through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God.

26 e To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

27 Where is f boasting then? it is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.

28 Therefore we g conclude, that a man is justified by faith, without the deeds of the law.

29 Is he the h God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

30 Seeing it is one God which shall justifie the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we i establish the law.

CHAP. IV.

1 Abrahams faith imputed for righteousness: 13 By it he and his seed received the promise.

WHat shall we a say then, that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if Abraham were b justified by works, he hath whereof to glory, but c not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? Abraham d believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 Now to him that e worketh, is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that f worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly; his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as g David also describeth the blessedness of the man unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

7 Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh h this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then i reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And he received the k sign of circumcision, l a seal of the righteousness of the faith, which he had yet being uncircumcised, that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

2 c God forbid: how ſhall we that are dead to ſin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that ſo many of us as were baptized into Jeſus Chriſt, were baptized d into his death?

4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptiſm into death, that like as Chriſt was raiſed up from the dead by the glory of the Father: even ſo we alſo ſhould walk e in newneſs of life.

5 For if we have been f planted together in the likeneſs of his death: we ſhall be alſo in the likeneſs of g his reſurrection:

6 Knowing this, that our h old man is crucified with him, that the body of ſin might be deſtroyed, that henceforth we ſhould i not ſerve ſin.

20 For when ye were the ſervants of ſin, ye were free e from righteouſneſs.

21 What fruit had ye then in thoſe things, whereof ye are now f aſhamed? for the g end of thoſe things is death.

22 But now being made free from ſin, and become ſervants to God, ye have your fruit unto h holineſs, and the end everlaſting life.

1 No law hath power over a man longer then he liveth.

KNow ye not brethren (for I ſpeak to them that a know the law) how that the law hath b dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For the woman which hath an husband, c is bound by the law to her husband, ſo long as he liveth: but if the husband be dead, ſhe is looſed from the law of her husband.

16 The Spirit it self u beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God.

17 And if children, then heirs, heirs of God, and x joynt-heirs with Christ: if so be that we y suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon, that the z sufferings of this present time, are a not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For the earnest expectation of the b creature, waiteth for the c manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, d not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same e in hope.

21 Because the creature it self also shall be delivered from the f bondage of corruption, into the g glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation h groaneth, and travaileth in pain together, until now.

23 And not onely they, but our selves also which have the i first-fruits of the Spirit, even we our selves k groan within our selves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved by hope: but hope that l is seen, is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with m patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also n helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit it self o maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And he that p searcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the minde of the spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints, q according to the will of God.

28 And we know that r all things work together for good, to them who are the called according to his s purpose.

29 For whom he did t foreknow, he also did u predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the first-born among many brethren.

30 Moreover, whom he did predestinate, them he also called: & whom he called, them he also justified: & whom he justified, them also he y glorified.

31 What shall we then say z to these things? If God be a for us, who can be against us?

32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up b for us all: how shall he not with him also freely c give us all things?

33 d Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods elect? It is God that justifieth:

34 Who is he that e condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea, rather that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh f intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the g love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 (As it is h written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long, we are accounted as shee, for the slaughter.)

37 Nay, in all these things we are i more then conquerors, through him that loved us.

38 For I am k perswaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to l separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

1 Pauls zeal for the Jews. 7 The seed of the promise.

I Say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my a conscience also bearing me witness in the holy Ghost,

2 That I have great b heaviness, and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For I could wish that my self c were accursed from Christ, for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

4 Who are Israelites: to whom pertaineth the d adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises:

5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh, Christ came, who is over e all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

6 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are f not all Israel, which are of Israel:

7 Neither because they are the seed of Abraham, are they g all children: but in Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, They which are the children of the h flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the i promise are counted for the seed.

10 And not onely this, but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac,

11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any n good or evil, that the o purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth) 12 It was said unto her, The p elder shall serve the yonger.

13 As it is written, Jacob have I q loved, but Esau have I hated.

14 What shall we say then? is there r unrighteousnes with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to s Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 So then, it is not of him that t willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of u God that sheweth mercy.

17 For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I x raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom y he will have mercy, and whom he will, he z hardneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet a finde fault? For who hath resisted his will?

20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that b replieest against God? shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same c lump to make d one vessel unto honor, and another unto dishonor?

22 What if God willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, e endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath f fitted to destruction:

23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he hath afore g prepared unto glory?

24 Even us whom he hath called, not of the Jews onely, but also of the Gentiles.

25 As he saith also in Osee, I will call them my people, which were not my people: and her, beloved, which was not beloved.

26 And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called, The children of the living God.

27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, h a remnant shall be saved.

28 For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousnes: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as i Esaias said before, Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles which followed k not after righteousnes, have attained to righteousnes, even the l righteousnes which is of faith.

31 But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousnes m hath not attained to the law of righteousnes.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it, n not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law: for they stumbled at that stumbling-stone, 33 As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion o a stumbling-stone, and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him, shall not be ashamed.

CHAP. X.

1 The difference of the righteousnes of the law, and that of faith.

BRethren, my hearts desire and a prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record, that they have b a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being c ignorant of Gods righteousnes, and going about to establish their d own righteousnes, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousnes of God.

4 For Christ is the e end of the law for righteousnes to every one that believeth.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousnes which is of the law, that the man which doth f those things, shall live by them.

6 But the g righteousnes which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, h Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above)

7 Or who shall ascend into the deep? (that is to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

8 But what saith it? i The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy k heart: that is the l word of faith which we preach.

9 That if thou shalt m confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt n believe in thine heart, that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man o believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him, shall p not be ashamed.

12 For there is q no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all, is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 For whosoever shall r call upon the name of the Lord, shall be saved:

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have s not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? & how shall they hear without t a preacher?

15 And how shall they u preach, except they be sent? as it is written, x How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they have y not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?

17 So then, z faith cometh by hearing and hearing, by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yea verily, a their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First, Moses saith, I will b provoke you to jealousie by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Esaias is very bold, and saith, I was c found of them that sought me not: I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, d All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gain-saying people.

I Say then, Hath God a cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he b foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God c against Israel, saying,

3 Lord, they have d killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars, and I am left e alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what said the answer of God unto him? I have f reserved to my self seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the g election of grace

6 And if h by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work

7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he i seeketh for, but the k election hath obtained it, and the rest were l blinded.

8 According as it is written, God m hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear unto this day.

9 And n David saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling-block, and a recompence unto them.

10 Let their eyes be darkned, that they may not see, and o bow down their back alway.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather p through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousie.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles: how much more their q fulness?

13 For I speak to you Gentiles, in as much as I am r the apostle of the Gentiles, I s magnifie mine office:

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation, them which are my flesh, and might t save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world: what shall the receiving of them be, but u life from the dead?

16 For if the first fruit be x holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou being y a wilde olive-tree, wert grafted in amongst them, and with them z partakest of the root and fatness of the olive-tree:

18 a Boast not against the branches? but if thou boast, b thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Well: because of unbelief they were broken off, & thou c standest by faith. Be not high minded, but fear.

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also d spare not thee.

CHAP. XII.

Gods mercie muſt move us to pleaſe him.

a Rom 1.7. and 9.26.

I Beſeech you a therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye preſent your bodies, a living ſacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reaſonable ſervice.

2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye b transformed by the renewing of your minde, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God.

3 For I ſay, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himſelf more highly then he ought to think, but to think ſoberly, according as God hath c dealt to every man the meaſure of faith.

4 For as we have d many members in one body, and all members have not the ſame office:

5 So we being many are e one body in Chriſt, and every one members one of another.

6 Having then gifts, differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether f prophecy, let us propheſie according to the proportion of faith:

7 Or miniſtery, let us g wait on our miniſtring: or he that teacheth, on teaching:

8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that h giveth, let him do it with ſimplicity: he that i ruleth, with diligence: he that ſheweth mercy, with cheerfulneſs.

9 Let love be without diſſimulation: k abhor that which is evil, cleave to that which is good.

10 Be kindly affectioned one to another, with brotherly love, in honor l preferring one another.

11 Not ſlothful in buſineſs: m fervent in ſpirit: ſerving the Lord:

¶ The first Epistle of PAUL the Apostle, to the CORINTHIANS.

CHAP. I.

After his saluting, 4 and thanksgiving.
10 The Apostle exhorteth to unity.

PAUL called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ, a through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,

2 Unto the church of God which is at b Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that c in every place call upon the Name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours:

3 d Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God always e on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ,

5 That f in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge.

6 Even as the testimony of Christ was g confirmed in you.

7 So that ye come behinde in no gift; h waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

8 Who shall also confirm you i unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 God is k faithful, by whom ye were called unto the l fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you: but that ye be perfectly m joyned together in the same mind, and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been n declared unto me, of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are o contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, that every one of you p saith, I am of Paul, and I of Apollo, and I of Cephas, and I of Christ.

13 Is Christ q divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God, that I baptized none of you, but r Crispus & s Gaius.

15 Lest any should say, that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me t not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with u wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish, x foolishness: but unto us which are saved, it is y the power of God.

19 For it is z written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the a wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 For b after that, in the wisdom of God, the world by c wisdom knew not God, it pleased God d by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For the Jews require e a sign, and the Greeks seek after f wisdom.

23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumbling-block, and unto the Greeks, foolishness:

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ, the g power of God, and the h wisdom of God.

25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser then men: and the i weakness of God is stronger then men.

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that k not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called.

27 But God hath chosen the l foolish things of the world, to confound the wise: and God hath chosen m the weak things of the world, to confound the things which are mighty:

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that o are:

29 That no flesh should p glory in his presence.

30 But of q him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto r us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

31 That according as it is s written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

CHAP. II.

1 Pauls preaching not in humane wisdom, but consisteth in the power of God.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with a excellency of speech, or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.

6 Howbeit, we speak f wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not g the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought.

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the h hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory.

8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they i known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is k written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entred into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But God hath revealed them l unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the Spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth m no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the n spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God, that we might know o the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which mans wisdom teacheth, but which the holy Ghost teacheth; p comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 But the natural man q receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are r spiritually discerned.

15 But he that is s spiritual, judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged t of no man.

16 For u who hath known the minde of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the minde of Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 Of strife and division. 9 The ministers are Gods fellow-workmen.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto a spiritual; but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat; for hitherto ye were not able b to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk c as men?

4 For while one saith, I am d of Paul, and another, I am of Apollo, are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, or who is Apollo, but e ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

6 I have planted, Apollo watered, but f God gave the increase.

7 So then, neither g he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth: but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth, and he that watereth, are one: and every man shall receive his h own reward, according to his own labor.

9 For we are laborers i together with God, ye are Gods husbandry, ye are Gods building.

10 According to the k grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise master-builder I have laid the foundation, and l another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how m he buildeth thereupon.

11 For other foundation can no man lay, then that is laid, n which is Jesus Christ.

12 Now if any man build upon this foundation, o gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble:

13 Every mans work shall be made p manifest. For the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire, and the fire shall try every mans work, of what sort it is.

14 If any mans work q abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any mans work shall r be burnt, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so, as by fire.

16 Know ye not that ye are the s temple of God? and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man t defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 Let no man deceive himself: if any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him u become come a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written, x He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.
20 And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are y vain.
21 Therefore let no man glory in men, for z all things are yours.
22 Whether a Paul, or Apollo, or Cephas, or the b world, or life, or death, or things c present, or things to come, all are yours:
23 And ye are d Christs, and Christ e is Gods.

CHAP. IV.

1 Ministers esteem. 15 The apostles are our fathers in Christ.

LEt a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, a and stewards of the mysteries of God.
2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found b faithful.
3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you or of mans judgment: yea, I c judge not mine own self.
4 For I know d nothing by myself, yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.
5 Therefore judge nothing e before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, & will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: & then shall every man have f praise of God.
6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred g to my self, and to Apollo, for your sakes: that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is h written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.
7 For who maketh thee to i differ from another? And what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why doest thou glory as if thou hast not received it?
8 Now ye are k full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.
9 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were l appointed to death. For we are made a m spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.
10 We are n fools for Christs sake, but ye are wise in Christ: we are weak but ye are strong: ye are honorable, but we are despised.
11 Even unto this present hour we both o hunger and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling place.
12 And labor, p working with our own hands: being reviled, we q bless: being persecuted, we suffer it:
13 Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the r filth of the world, and are the off-scouring of all things unto this day.
14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I s warn you.
15 For though you have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have t begotten you through the gospel.
16 Wherefore I beseech you, be ye u followers of me.
17 For this cause have x I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church.
18 Now some are z puffed up as though I would a not come to you.
19 But I will come to you shortly, b if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.
20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in c power.
21 What will ye? shall I come unto you with a a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

CHAP. V.

1 The incestuous person. 6 It is cause rather of shame, then of rejoycing.

IT is reported commonly that there is fornication a among you, and such fornication, as is not so much as named amongst the b Gentiles, that one should have his fathers wife.
2 And ye are c puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed, might be taken away from among you.
3 For I verily as absent in body, but d present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed:
4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are e gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,
5 To f deliver such an one unto Satan for the g destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.
6 Your h glorying is not good: know ye not that a i little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

8 Therefore let us keep the m feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness: but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle, n not to company with fornicators.

10 Yet not altogether with the fornicators o of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters: for then must ye needs go p out of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you, not to keep company, if any man that is called q a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such an one, r no not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge them also that are s without? do not ye judge them that are within?

13 But them that are t without, u God judgeth. Therefore put away from among your selves that wicked person.

CHAP. VI.

1 Of going to law. 9 The unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

Dare a any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the b unjust, & not before the saints?

2 Do ye not know that the c saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged d by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall e judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are f least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your g shame. Is it so, that there is h not a wise man amongst you? no not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But i brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the k unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault l among you, because ye go to law one with another: m why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer your selves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, you do wrong, and n defraud, and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the o kingdom of God? Be not deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankinde, 10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall p inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were q some of you: but ye are r washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the spirit of our God.

12 ¶ All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not s expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the u power of any 13 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall x destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but y for the Lord: and the Lord for the body.

14 And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also z raise up us by his own power.

15 Know ye not that your bodies are the a members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an b harlot? God forbid.

16 What, know ye not that he which is joyned to an harlot, is one body? for two (saith he) shall be one flesh.

17 But he that is d joyned unto the Lord, is one spirit.

18 e Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doth, is f without the body: but he that committeth fornication, sinneth against his own body.

19 What, know ye not that your body is the g temple of the holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

20 For ye are bought with h a price: therefore i glorifie God in your body, and in your spirit, which are Gods.

CHAP. VII.

1 Marriage a remedy against fornication, 18 Every man must be content with his vocation. 35 For what respects we may marry, or abstain.

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is a good for a man not to b touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, c to avoid fornication, let every man have his own d wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 Let the husband render unto the wife e due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 Defraud you not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give your selves g to fasting and prayer, and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your h incontinency:

6 But I speak this i by permission, and not k of commandment.

7 For I would that all men were even as l my self: but every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry then m to burn.

10 And unto the married, I command, yet n not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband.

11 But and if she o depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest p speak I, not ‡ the Lord, If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And q the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by r the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children s unclean, but now are they t holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us u to peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt x save thy husband? Or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But as God hath y distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him z walk: and so ordain I in all churches.

18 Is any man a called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised: is any called in uncircumcision? let him not become circumcised.

19 b Circumcision is nothing, & uncircumcision is nothing, but c the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man d abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a servant? e care not for it; but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being f a servant, is the Lord's g freeman: likewise also he that is called being free, is Christ's servant.

23 Ye are bought with a price, be not ye the h servants of men.

24 Brethren, let every man wherein he is called, therein i abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins, I have k no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment as one that hath l obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present m distress, I say, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou n bound unto a wife? seek not to loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast o not sinned, and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned: nevertheless, such shall p have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But this I say, Brethren, the time q is short. It remaineth, that both they that have wives, be as though they had r none:

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not: and they that rejoyce as though they rejoyced not: and they that buy, as though they s possessed not:

31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world t passeth away.

32 But I would have you without u carefulness. He that is unmarried, careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may x please the Lord:

33 But he that is married, careth for the things that are of the y world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin: the unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be z holy, both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit, not that I may cast a a snare upon you, but for that which b is comely, and that you may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin,

virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, d let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless, he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having e no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart, f he will keep his virgin, doth well.

38 So then, he that giveth her in marriage, doth well: but he that giveth her not in marriage, doth f better.

39 The wife is g bound by the law as long as her husband liveth: but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will, onely h in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and i I think also that I have the spirit of God.

CHAP. VIII.

1 To abstain from meats offered to idols,
8 Not to abuse our liberty, &c.

NOw as touching things a offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. b Knowledge puffeth up, but c charity edifieth.

2 And if any man think that he d knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, the same e is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is f nothing in the world, and that g there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that h are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth (as there be i gods many, and lords many.)

6 But to us there is but one God, the Father, k of whom are all things, and we in him, and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and l we by him.

7 Howbeit, there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak, is m defiled.

8 But n meat commendeth us not to God: for neither if we eat, are we the better: neither if we eat not, are we the worse.

9 But take heed lest by any means this o liberty of yours become p a stumbling-block to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hast q knowledge sit at meat in the idols temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak, be emboldned to eat those things which are offered to idols?

11 And r through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom s Christ died?

12 But when ye sin so against the brethren, and t wound their weak conscience, ye sin u against Christ.

13 Wherefore x if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

CHAP. IX.

1 He sheweth his liberty. 7 The minister ought to live by the gospel.

AM I not an apostle? am I a not free? have I not b seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not you my work in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the c seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that do d examine me, is this,

4 Have we not power e to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister f a wife as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear g working?

7 Who goeth h a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt i not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. k Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? for our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that m ploweth should plow in hope: and he that threshеth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.

11 If n we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your o carnal things?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless, we have not used this power: but p suffer all things, lest we should q hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things, r live of the things of the temple? and they takers with the altar ?

14 Even so hath the Lord ordained, that they which preach the Gospel, should live of the gospel.

15 But I have used none of these things: Neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, then that any man should make my glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me, yea, woe unto me if I preach not the gospel.

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verily, that when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more

20 And unto the Jews, I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law.

21 To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ) that I might gain them that are without law.

22 To the weak became I as weak that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gospels sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race, run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that striveth for the mastery, is temperate in all things: Now, they do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly: so fight I, not as one that beateth the air.

27 But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means when I have preached to others, I my self should be a cast-away.

CHAP. X.

1 The Jews sacraments. 6 are our types. 7 their punishment

MOreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea:

2 And were all baptised unto Moses in the cloud, and in the sea:

3 And did all eat the same spiritual meat,

4 And did all drink the same spiritual drink: (for they drank of that spiritual rock that followed them: and that rock was Christ)

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased; for they were overthrown in the wilderness

6 Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.

7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them, as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmure ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.

12 Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth, take heed lest he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you, but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.

16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

17 For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

18 Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices, partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? that the idol is c 1 Cor. 11. 3. Rev. 3. 14. 3 But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Christ c is God.

d 1 Cor 11. 7. e Rom 9. 5. 4 Every man e praying or prophesying, having his head covered, f dishonoreth his head.

5 But every g woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered, dishonoreth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the h image and i glory of God: but the woman is the k glory of the man.

8 For the man is not of the woman: but the woman of the man.

9 Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for l the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head, because of the m angels.

11 Nevertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man n in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man: even so is the man also by the woman: but all things o of God.

13 p Judge in your selves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even q nature it self teach you, that if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.

b Mat 15.14. 2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

c Ephe 6.24. 3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Mat. Spirit of God, calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man c can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghost.

1 Co. 8.28 Heb. 2.4. 4 Now there are diversities d of gifts, but the same Spirit.

4 11. 5 And there are differences e of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities f of operations, but it is the same God, which g worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit, is given to every man h to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit, the word of i wisdom: to another the word of k knowledge by the same Spirit:

9 To another l faith by the same Spirit: to another the gifts of healing m by the same Spirit:

10 To another the n working of miracles, to another o prophecy, to another p discerning of spirits, to another divers q kinds of tongues, to another the r interpretation of tongues.

11 But all these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit, dividing to every man severally s as he will.

12 For as the body t is one, and hath many members, and all the members of v one body, being many, are one body: so also b Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are we w all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free: and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the x body is not one member, but many.

15 If the y foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body: is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? if the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God z set the members, every one of them in the body, as it hath a pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the b eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again, the c head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary.

23 And those member of the body, which we think to be less honorable, upon these we d bestow more abundant honor, and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

21 In the a law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips, will I speak unto this people: and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

c Acts 16.14 and 2. and 18.8. and 24.25. 2 Tim 3.16.
22 Wherefore tongues are for b a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe:

d Acts 18.23. and 24.5. e Heb. 4.12. 2 Cor 2.15. f 1 Cor 14.
23 If therefore the whole church be c come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is d convinced of all, he is judged of all.

25 And thus are the e secrets of his heart made manifest, and so falling down on his face, he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath f a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done g to edifying.

g 1 Cor. 14.5. Jude v. 20. Ephes. 4.16. 1 Cor. 14.22.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church, and let him speak to himself, and h to God i Acts 17.11 Isai. 8.20.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may k all prophesie one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And the ‡ spirits of the prophets are l subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of m peace, as in all churches of the saints.

34 Let your n women keep silence in the churches, for it is not permitted unto them to speak: but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the o law.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them p ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?

37 If any man q think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you, are the r commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any man be s ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore brethren, covet to prophesie, and t forbid not to speak with tongues.

40 Let all things be done decently, and u in order.

CHAP. XV.

1 Christs resurrection, 12 he proveth the necessity of ours, against such as deny it.

MOreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which a I preached unto you, which also you have b received, and wherein ye stand.

a Acts 18.11. b 1 Ti. 1.5. Heb. 4.2.

2 By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have c believed in vain.

c Gal. 3.4. Mat. 13.20 d 1 Co. 2.2.

3 For I delivered unto you d first of all, that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins, according to the scriptures:

y Mat. 10.41. and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for 19.12 one star differeth from another star in and glory.
42 y So also is the resurrection of
Gen. 3.19. the dead, it is z sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption.

a Phil. 3.21. Mat. 13.43. Luk. 20.36 43 It is sown in a dishonor, it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power.

b Luk. 20.36.
44 It is sown a natural body, it is raised b a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

c Gen. 2.7.
45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made c a living soul, the last Adam was made d a quickning spirit.

d Act. 3.15.
46 Howbeit, that was not first which is spiritual: but that which is natural, and afterward that which is spiritual.

e Gal. 4.4. f Mat. 1.20.
47 The first man is of the earth earthy: the e second man is f the Lord from heaven.

g Phil. 3.21. h Job 3.2.

n 2 Cor. 5.2,3. Phil. 3.21. o Isa. 27.8.
51 Behold, I shew you a mystery: we shall k not all sleep, but we shall all be l changed,

52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, m at the last trump, (for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.)

53 For this corruptible must n put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is o written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy p victory?

56 The q sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, which r giveth us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always s abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as you know that your labor is t not in vain in the Lord.

11 Let no man therefore l despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you, with the brethren, but his will was not at all to come m at this time: but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 Watch ye, n stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

14 Let all your things be done with o charity.

15 I beseech you brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they have p addicted themselves to the ministery of the saints)

16 That ye q submit your selves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us and laboreth.

17 I am glad of the coming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part, they have r supplied.

PAul an apostle of Jesus Christ, a by the will of God, and a Timothy our brother, unto b the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia.
2 Grace be to you and peace, from God our Father, and b from the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the c Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;
4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, d by the comfort wherewith we our selves are comforted of God.
5 For as the sufferings of Christ e abound in us, so our consolation also f aboundeth by Christ.
6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your g consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.
7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing that as you are h partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.
8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, i above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life.
9 But we had the k sentence of death in our selves, that we should not trust in our selves, but in God which raiseth the dead.
10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust, that he l will yet deliver us:
11 You also m helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons, thanks may be given by many on our behalf.
12 For our rejoycing is this, the n testimony of our conscience, that in o simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-wards.
13 For we write none other things unto you, than what you p read or acknowledge, and I trust you shall acknowledge even to the end.
14 As also you have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoycing, even as q ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.
15 And in this confidence I was minded r to come unto you before, y you might have a second benefit:
16 And s to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judea.
17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to t the flesh, that with me there should be u yea, yea, and nay, nay?
18 But as God is x true, our word toward you, was not yea and nay.
19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but y in him was yea.
20 For all the promises of God in him are Yea, and z in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.
21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath a anointed us, is God.
22 Who hath also b sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.
23 Moreover, I call God for a record upon my soul, that c to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.
24 Not for that we have d dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

i face of Moses, for the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be k done away.
8 How shall not the ministration
l of the spirit be rather glorious?
9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration m of righteousness exceed in glory.
10 For even that which was made n glorious, had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that ex-celleth.
11 For if that which is done away, was glorious, much more that which o remaineth is glorious.
12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great p plainness of speech.
13 And not as Moses, which q put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the r end of that which is abolished.
14 But their minds were s blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away, in the reading of the old testament: which vail
t is done away in Christ.
15 But even unto this day, When u Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.
16 Nevertheless, when it u shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall x be taken away.
17 Now the Lord is that Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord y is,
there is liberty.
18 But we all with z open face, beholding as in a glass the glory of the

15 And that he died for all, that they which live, should not henceforth live unto themselves, but u unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 Wherefore henceforth x know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him y no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he z is a new creature: old things are past away, behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the a ministery of reconciliation, 19 To wit, that God was b in Christ, reconciling the b world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them, and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did c beseech you by us; we pray you in Christs stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For he hath made him to be d sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

CHAP. VI.

Paul's faithfulness in the ministery

WE then as a workers together with him, beseech you also, that ye receive not the grace of God b in vain.

2 (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time c accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succored thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

3 Giving d no offence in any thing, that the ministery be not blamed.

4 But in all things e approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In f stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in watchings, in fastings,

6 By g pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

7 By the word of truth, by h the power of God, by the armor of righteousness, on the right hand, and on the left,

8 By honor and dishonor, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;

9 As unknown, and yet well known; as k dying, and behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed:

10 As sorrowful, yet alway l rejoycing: as m poor, yet making many rich: as having nothing, and yet n possessing all things.

11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straightned in us, but ye are straightned in your own bowels.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my o children) be ye also enlarged.

14 Be ye not p unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath q light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Christ with r Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an Infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for s ye are the temple of the living God, as God hath t said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye u separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, 18 And will be a father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAP. VII.

1 Paul exhorteth to purity, 3 and sheweth his comfort in his afflictions.

HAving therefore these promises (dearly beloved) let us cleanse our selves from a all b filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us, we have wronged no man, we have b corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that you are in our hearts c to die and live with you.

4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my d glorying of you, I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were e fightings, within were f fears.

6 Nevertheless, g God that comforteth those y are cast down, comforted us by the h coming of Titus.

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us i Rom. us your earnest desire, your i mourning, your k fervent minde toward 12.15. k 2 Cor. me, so that I rejoyced the more.

1.14.

8 For though I made you l sorry
ver. 8. with a letter, I do not repent, though 8.12. I did repent: for I perceive that the l 1 Cor. same epistle made you sorry, though 5.12. it were but for a season.

m Psal. 9 Now I rejoyce, not that ye were 78. made sorry, but m that ye sorrowed to 10.17. repentance: for ye were made sorry
Mat. after a godly manner, that ye might 26.75 receive damage by us in nothing.
n Luke 10 For godly sorrow n worketh
15. repentance to salvation not to be re-18.22 pented of: but the sorrow of the o Mat. world worketh o death.
27.3.

11 For behold, this self same thing
Heb. that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, 12.17. what p carefulness it wrought in p 1 Cor. you, yea, what clearing of your selves, 6.3.4. yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, Psal. yea, what vehement desire, yea, what 22.22. zeal, yea, what revenge: in all things q 1 Cor. ye have approved your selves to be 9.9. Heb. clear in this matter.
6.6.

12 Wherefore though I wrote unto r Rom. you, I did it q not for his cause that 1.12. had done the wrong, nor for his
Col. cause that suffered wrong, but that 1.6.7. our care for you in the sight of God, might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted
Gen. in your comfort, yea, and exceed-43.7. ingly the more joyed we for the 1 Phil. joy of Titus, because his spirit was 1.2. 1 Cor. r refreshed by you all.
2.13.

14 For if I have boasted any thing
Ruth to him of you, I am not ashamed: but 3.18. as we speak all things to you s in t Phil. truth, even so our boasting which I 2.20. made before Titus, is found a truth.
u Phil. 15 And his t inward affection is 2.21. more abundant toward you, whilest
2 John he remembreth the obedience of v 4. you all, how u with fear and trembling
2 Thes. you received him.
1.10.

16 I v rejoyce therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

Contribution to the saints.

Rivers 1 MOreover, brethren, we do you to 2.14. Phil. wit of the a grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia:
4.17.

b Luke 2 How that b in a great tryal of af-21.2. fliction, the abundance of their joy,
Gal. and their deep poverty, abounded
6.9. unto the riches of their liberality.

3 For to their c power (I bear
c 1 Ti. record) yea and beyond their power,
6.18. they were willing of themselves:
Rom. 4 Praying us with much intreaty,
2.69. that we would receive the gift, and d Acts take upon us the d fellowship of the 2.42. ministring to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we e Mat. hoped, but first gave their own selves 25.40 e to the Lord, and unto us by the Phil. will of God.
4.18.

6 Insomuch that we desired Titus,
Heb. that as he had begun, so he would 13.16 also finish in you the same grace also.
f 1 Cor.

7 Therefore as ye f abound in
12. every thing, in faith, in utterance, and 4, 5, 9. knowledge, and in all diligence, and and in your love to us; see that ye 1.5. abound g in this grace also.

l Mat. poverty might be rich.
8.20.

10 And herein I give my n advice,
Phil. for this is expedient for you, who 2.5. have begun before, not onely to do, m 1 Co. but also to be o forward a year ago.
1.30.

11 Now therefore perform the God t your want, that there may be equa-

FOr as touching the a ministring to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you.

2 For I know the forwardness of your minde, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago, and your zeal hath b provoked very many.

3 Yet have I sent the c brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain on this behalf; that as I said, ye may be ready.

4 Lest haply if they of d Macedonia come with me, and finde you unprepared, we (that we say not, you) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your † bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, not of e covetousness.

6 But this, I say, He which soweth sparingly, shall reap sparingly: and he which soweth f bountifully, shall reap g bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not h grudgingly, or of i necessity: for k God loveth a chearful giver.

8 And l God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that ye always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work.

9 (As it is m written, He hath dispersed abroad: he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth † for ever.

10 Now he that n ministreth seed to the sower, both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness,)

11 Being enriched in every thing to all p bountifulness, which causeth thorow us thanksgiving to God.

12 For the administration of this q service, not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God.

13 Whiles by the experiment of this ministration, they r glorifie God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men.

14 For we stretch not our selves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you, for we are come as far as to you also, in preaching the gospel of Christ:

15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other mens labors, but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly.

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another mans line, of things made ready to our hand.

g Gal. 1. 8. 3 But c I fear lest by any means as the d serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your mindes should be e corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if f he that g cometh, preacheth h another Jesus whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

5 For I suppose I was not a whit i behinde the very chiefest apostles.

6 But though I be rude k in speech, yet l not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence in m abasing my self, that you might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other churches, taking n wages of them to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and o wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me, the p brethren which came from Macedonia, supplied, and in all things I have kept my self from being burthensom unto you, and so will I keep my self.

10 As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I love you not? q God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may r cut off occasion from them which s desire occasion, that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such are false apostles, t deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel, for Satan himself is u transformed into an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing, if x his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness, whose y end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast my self a little.

17 That which I speak, I speak it a not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

18 Seeing that many glory b after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye your selves c are wise.

20 For ye suffer, if a man bring you into d bondage, if a man e devour you, if a man take of you, if a man f exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face, 33 And thorow d a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAP. XII.

1 Paul boasteth, not of revelation, but of his infirmities.

a ers 11, 12. b Rom 8 1. 2 Cor. 5. 27. c 1 Kj. 8. 27. Acts 3 21. Phil. 3. 21.

IT is a not expedient for me doubtless to glory, I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man b in Christ above fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I cannot tell, or whether out of the body, I cannot tell, God knoweth) such an one caught up to c the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell, God knoweth)

4 How that he was caught up d into d paradise, and heard e unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory, yet of my self I will not glory, but in f mine infirmities.

6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool: for I will say the truth. But now I forbear, lest any man should think of me g above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be h exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me i a thorn in the flesh, the k messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord l thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, m My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the n power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore I o take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, p in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I q am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become a fool in glorying, ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for q in nothing am I behinde the very chiefest apostles, though I r be nothing.

12 Truly the f signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that I my self was s not burthensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burthensom to you, for I seek t not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And I will very gladly x spend and be y spent for you, though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, I did not burthen you: nevertheless, being z crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 Did I a make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

13 I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother: did Titus make a gain of you? walked not we in the b same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Again, think you that we excuse our selves unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your d edifying.

20 For I fear lest when I come I shall not finde you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you e such as ye would not, lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, f back-bitings, whisperings, g swellings, tumults:

21 And lest when I come again, my God will h humble me among you, and that I shall i bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness, and fornication, and lasciviousness which they have committed.

CHAP. XIII.

1 He threatneth obstinate sinners.

THIS is the a third time I am coming to you: in the b mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I told you c before, and foretel you as if I were present the second time, and being absent, now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that if I come again, I will d not spare:

3 Since ye e seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.

4 For though he was crucified through f weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God: for we also are weak in him, but we shall g live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 Examine your selves, whether ye be h in the faith: prove your own selves. know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be i reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now k I pray to God that ye do no evil, not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is l honest, though we be as reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing m against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even n your n perfection.

10 Therefore I write these things, being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me o to edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally, brethren, farewel: be perfect, be of good comfort, be of o one minde, live in peace, & the God of love and peace shall be with you.

12 Greet one another p with holy kiss

13 All the saints salute you.

14 The p grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the q love of God, and the r communion of the holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

The epistle of Paul the apostle to the Galatians.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul wonareth that they have so soon left him and the gospel.

PAUL an apostle, not of men, neither by man, a but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead,

2 And all the brethren which are with me, unto the b churches of Galatia:

3 Grace be to you, and peace from God the Father, and from c our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 Who gave d himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this e present evil world, according to the will of God, and our Father.

5 f To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel, that ye are g so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ, unto another gospel:

7 Which is not another; but there be h some that trouble you, & would pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But though we, or i an angel from heaven, preach any other Gospel unto you, k then y which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you, then that y he have received, let him be accursed.

10 For do I now perswade men, or God? or do I seek to m please men? for if I n yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

11 But I certifie you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me, is not after man.

12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I o taught it, but by p the revelation of Jesus Christ.

THen ‡ fourteen years after, I went up again to Jerusalem, with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.
2 And I went up a by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should b run, or had run in vain.
3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was c compelled to be circumcised:
4 And that because of d false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spie out our liberty, e which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage.
5 To whom we f gave place by subjection, no not for an hour, that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.
6 But of these, who ‡ seemed to be some what, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me, God accepteth no mans person) for they who seemed to be some what, in conference g added nothing to me.
7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the h uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter:
8 (For he that i wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was k mighty in me towards the Gentiles)
9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be l pillars, perceived m the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.
10 Onely they would that we should remember the poor, the same which I also was n forward to do.
11 But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him o to the face: because he was to be blamed.
12 For before that certain came from James, p he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew, and separated himself, q fearing them which were of the circumcision.
13 And the r other Jews dissembled likewise with him, insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their † dissimulation.
14 But when I saw that they walked † not uprightly, according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, if thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why r compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?
15 We who are s Jews by nature, and not t sinners of the Gentiles,
16 Knowing that a man is u not justified by the works of the law, but x by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.
17 But if while y we seek to be justified by Christ, we our selves also are found sinners: is therefore Christ the minister of sin? z God forbid.
18 For if I build again the things which I † destroyed, I make my self a transgressor.
19 For I a through the law b am dead to the law, that I might live unto God.
20 I am c crucified with Christ. Nevertheless, I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved.

16 Now to Abraham and his seed were z promises made. He saith not, and to seeds, as of many, but as of one, And to thy seed, which is a Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant that was b confirmed before of God in Christ, the law which was c four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God d gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of e transgressions, till the seed should come, to whom the promise was made, and it was ordained f by angels in the hand of a mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God g is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given h life, verily i righteousness should have been by k law.

22 But the scripture hath k concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that l believe.

23 But before faith came, we were m kept under the law, shut up unto the faith, which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore the law was n our schoolmaster † to bring us unto Christ that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are o no longer under a school-master.

26 For ye are all the children of God by faith p in Christ Jesus.

27 For as many of you as have been q baptized into Christ, have put on Christ.

28 There is neither r Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond or free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

29 And if ye be Christs, then are ye Abrahams seed, and s heirs according to the promise.

CHAP. IV.

these are the o two covenants; y one

26 But Jerusalem which is s above, is t free, w is the u mother of us all.

4 Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are f justified

f preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the cross ceased.

12 I would they were even t cut off which trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for u an occasion to the flesh, but by love x serve one another.

14 For y all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thy self.

15 But if ye z bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, a Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the b lust of the flesh.

17 For the flesh lusteth against the spirit, and the spirit against the flesh, and these are c contrary the one to the other: so that ye d cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But if ye be e led by the spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now the works of the flesh are f manifest, which are these, adultery, g fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, 20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies.

21 Envyings, murthers, drunkenness, h revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things, shall i not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But the k fruit of the Spirit is love, l joy, m peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, 23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

24 And they that are Christs, have n crucified the flesh, with the o affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also p walk in the spirit.

26 Let us not be desirous of q vain glory, provoking one another, r envying one another.

2 He exhorteth to mildness: 14 The cross of Christ is glory.

a 2 Sa. 11. 2. b 2 Chr. 29. 11. c 1 Pet. 5. 8.

BRethren, if a man be a overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, b restore such an one in the spirit of meekness, considering thy self, lest thou also be c tempted.

2 d Bear ye one anothers burthens, and so fulfil the e law of Christ.

3 For if a man f think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But let every man g prove his own work, and then he shall h have rejoycing in himself alone, and not in another.

5 For every man shall bear his i own burthen.

6 Let him that is taught in the word, k communicate unto him that l teacheth, in all good things.

7 Be not deceived, God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man m soweth, that shall he also reap.

8 For he that soweth to his n flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption: but he that soweth to the o spirit, shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

9 And let us not be p weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap if we faint not.

10 As we have therefore q opportunity, let us do good unto r all men, especially unto them who are of the s household of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with t mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make u a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised: only lest they should suffer persecution for the x cross of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves, who are circumcised y keep the law, but desire to have you circumcised, that they may z glory in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should glory, save in the a cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, b and I unto the world.

15 For c in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but d a new creature.

16 And as many as e walk according to this rule, f peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the g Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me, for I bear in my body the h marks of the Lord Jesus.

CHAP. I.

1 Election and adoption, 11 which is the true and proper fountain of salvation.

PAUL an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, to the saints which are at a Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:

2 Grace be to you, and b peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in c heavenly places d in Christ:

4 According as he hath e chosen us in him, before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy, and without blame before f him in love:

5 Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the g good pleasure of his will:

6 To the h praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted i in the beloved.

7 In whom we have k redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the l riches of his grace,

8 Wherein he m hath abounded toward us in all wisdom & prudence:

9 Having made known n unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure, which he hath purposed in himself,

10 That in the dispensation of the o fulness of times, he might gather together in one p all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth, even in him:

11 In whom also we have obtained an † inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him, who q worketh all things after the counsel of his own will:

12 That we should be to r the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.

13 In whom ye also trusted after that ye heard the s word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were t sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, 14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance, until the u redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

15 Wherefore I also, after I x heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the y saints, 16 Cease not to give z thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,

17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the a Father of glory, may give unto you the b Spirit of wisdom and revelation, in the knowledge of him:

18 The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the c hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints:

19 And what is the e exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power:

20 Which he wrought f in Christ, when he g raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, 21 Far above all h principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every i name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to k come.

22 And hath l put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, 23 Which is his body, the m fulness of him that filleth all in all.

CHAP. II.

1 What we were, 3 by nature, and what we are 5 by grace.

AND you hath he quickned, who a were a dead in trespasses and sins,

2 Wherein in b time past ye walked, according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now c worketh in the children of disobedience.

3 Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past, in the d lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh, and of the mind; and were by e nature the children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, who is f rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 Even when we were dead in sins, hath g quickened us together with Christ (h by grace ye are saved)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us i sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus.

7 That in ages to come he might k shew the exceeding riches of his grace, in his kindness toward us, through Christ Jesus.

8 For by grace ye are saved, l through faith, and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

9 Not of works, lest any man should m boast.

10 For we are his n workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto o good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore p remember that ye being in times past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called uncircumcision by that which is called the circumcision in the flesh q made by hands;

12 That at that time ye were r without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world.

13 But now in Christ Jesus, ye, who were sometimes far off, are made s nigh by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is t our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us:

15 Having abolished in his u flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in x ordinances, for to make in himself of twain one y new man, so making peace.

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God z in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby:

17 And a came, and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

18 For b through him we both have an access by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and forreigners, but c fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God.

20 And are d built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone.

21 In whom all the building fitly e framed together, groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:

22 In whom you also are builded together for an f habitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

5 The hidden mystery, 6 that the Gentiles should be saved.

FOr this cause, I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ a for you Gentiles.

2 If ye have heard of the dispensation of the b grace of God, which is given me to you-ward:

3 How that c by revelation he made known unto me the mystery, (as I wrote afore in few words;

4 Whereby when ye d read ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ.)

5 Which in other ages was e not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the spirit;

6 That the Gentiles f should be fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ, by the gospel:

7 Whereof I was g made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me, by the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, who am h less then the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the i unsearchable riches of Christ,

9 And to make all men k see, what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, l who created all things by Jesus Christ:

10 To the intent that now unto the m principalities and powers in heavenly places, might be known by the church, the manifold wisdom of God.

11 According to the n eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:

12 In whom we have boldness and access with o confidence by the faith of him.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is p your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the q Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is r named,

16 That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be s strengthned with might, by his Spirit in the inner-man:

17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith, that ye being t rooted and grounded in love,

18 May be able to u comprehend with all saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height:

19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the x fulness of God.

20 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly y above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, 21 Unto him be z glory in the church by Christ Jesus, throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

I Therefore the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you, that ye a walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

2 With all b lowliness, and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love:

3 Endeavoring to keep the c unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

4 There is d one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling

5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

6 One God and Father of all, who is e above all, and through all, and in you all.

7 But unto every one of us f is given grace, according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, When he g ascended up on high, he led h captivity captive, and gave i gifts unto men.

9 (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the k lower parts of the earth?

10 He that descended, is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, l he might fill all things.)

11 And he gave some, apostles: and some, prophets: and some, evangelists: and some, pastors and teachers;

12 For the m perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministery, for the edifying of the body of Christ

13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the n knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ.

14 That we henceforth be no more o children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and p cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive.

15 But speaking the q truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

16 From whom the whole body fitly joyned together, and compacted by that which every joynt supplieth, according to the r effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body, unto the edifying of it self in love.

17 This I say therefore and testifie in the Lord, that ye f henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk in the vanity of their minde,

18 Having the understanding darkned, being alienated from the life of God, through the ignorance that is in them, because of the s blindness of their heart:

19 Who being u past feeling, have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness x with greediness.

20 But ye have not so y learned Christ.

21 If so be that ye have z heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus.

22 That ye put off concerning the former conversation, the a old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts,

23 And be b renewed in the spirit of your minde:

24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created c in righteousness, and true holiness.

25 Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man d truth with his neighbor: for we are e members one of another.

26 Be ye f angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

27 Neither g give place to the devil.

28 Let him that stole, steal no more: but rather let him h labor, working with i his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.

29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your k mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

30 And l grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of m redemption.

31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and n clamor, and evil-speaking be put away from you, with all malice.

32 And be ye kinde one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even o as God for Christs sake hath forgiven you.

CHAP. V.

2 After general exhortations, 25 he exhorteth them to love their wives.

BE ye therefore a followers of God as dear children;

2 And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath b given himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling savour.

3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not c be once named among you, d as becometh saints:

4 Neither filthiness, nor e foolish talk-a 1 Joh 2.6. b Phil. 2.7. c Eccl. 9.18. d 1 Cor. 6.11. e Gen. 3.17.

talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom f of Christ, and of g God.

6 Let no man deceive you with h vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience.

7 Be not ye therefore i partakers with them.

8 For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of k light.

9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness, and righteousness, and truth)

10 m Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

11 And have no fellowship with the n unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

12 For it is o a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

13 But all things that are reproved, are made manifest p by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest, is light.

14 Wherefore he saith, q Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give r thee light.

15 See then that ye walk s circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, 16 t Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the u will of the Lord is.

18 And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess: but be x filled with the Spirit:

19 Speaking to your selves y in psalms, and hymns, & spiritual songs, singing, and making melody in your heart to the Lord.

20 Giving thanks always for z all things unto God and the Father, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, 21 a Submitting your selves one to another in the fear of God.

22 Wives, b submit your selves unto your own husbands, as unto y Lord.

23 For the husband is the c head of the wife, even as Christ is d the head of the church: and he is the Savior of the body.

24 Therfore as the church is e subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husband f in every thing.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and g gave himself for it:

26 That he might h sanctifie and cleanse it with the washing of water, by the word;

27 That he might present it i to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing: but that it should be holy and without blemish.

28 So ought men to k love their wives, as their own bodies: he that loveth his wife, loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh: but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church.

30 For we are l members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 For this cause shall a man m leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great n mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular, so love his wife, even as himself, and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

CHAP. VI.

1 The duty of children and servants.
13 The Christian's armor.

CHildren, obey your parents a in the Lord: for this is right.

2 b Honor thy father and mother (which is the first commandment with promise)

3 That it may be well with thee, & thou mayest live long in the earth.

4 And ye fathers, c provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and e admonition of the Lord.

5 Servants, be f obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ:

6 Not with eye-service, as g menpleasers, but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With h good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doth, the same shall he i receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

9 And ye masters, k do the same things unto them, forbearing l threatning: knowing that your master also is in heaven, neither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be ſtrong in the Lord, and in the power of his m might.

11 Put on the n whole armor of God, that ye may be able to ſtand againſt the o wiles of the devil.

PAUL and Timotheus the ſervants of Jeſus Chriſt, to all the ſaints in Chriſt Jeſus, which are at a Philippi, with the b biſhops and deacons:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and from c the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

3 I d thank my God upon every e remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all, making requeſt f with joy,

5 For your g fellowſhip in the goſpel, from the firſt day until now;

6 Being h confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you, will perform it until the day of Jeſus Chriſt.

7 Even as it is i meet for me to think this of you all, becauſe I have you in my heart, in as much as both in my bonds, and in the k defence and confirmation of the goſpel, ye all are partakers of my l grace.

8 For God is my record, how greatly m I long after you all, in the bowels of Jeſus Chriſt.

9 And this n I pray, that your love may o abound yet more and more in knowledge, and in all judgment;

10 That ye may approve things that p are excellent, that ye may be q ſincere, and without offence till the day of Chriſt:

11 Being filled with the r fruits of righteouſneſs, which are by Jeſus Chriſt unto the s glory and praiſe of God.

12 But I would ye ſhould underſtand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me, have fallen rather unto the t furtherance of the goſpel;

13 So that my bonds u in Chriſt are x manifeſt in all the palace, and in all other places,

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord y waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to ſpeak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Chriſt even of z envy and ſtrife, and ſome alſo of good will.

16 The one preach Chriſt of contention, a not ſincerely, ſuppoſing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other b of love, knowing that I am ſet c for the defence of the goſpel.

18 What

18 What then? notwithstanding every way, whether in b pretence, or i in truth, Christ is preached, & I therein do rejoyce, yea, and will rejoyce.

19 For I know that this shall k turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ.

20 According to my earnest expectation, and my hope, that in nothing I shall be l ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my m body, whether it be by life or by death.

21 ‡ For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labor: yet what I shall choose, I wot not.

23 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having n a desire to depart, and to be with Christ, which is far o better.

24 Nevertheless, to abide in the flesh is p more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all, for your q furtherance and joy of faith.

26 That your rejoycing may be more abundant r in Jesus Christ for me, by my coming to you again.

27 Onely let your conversation s be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with t one minde striving together for the faith of the gospel;

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries, which is to them an evident u token of perdition, but to you of x salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is y given in the behalf of Christ, not onely to believe on him, but also to z suffer for his sake

30 Having the same conflict which ye a saw in me, & now hear to be in me.

CHAP. II.

He exhorteth to unity and humility.

IF there be therefore any consolation a in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any b bowels and mercies:

2 Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be c like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of d one minde.

3 Let nothing be done through strife, or e vain-glory, but in lowliness of minde let each esteem other f better then themselves.

4 Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of g others.

5 Let this minde be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 Who being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be h equal with God:

7 But i made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in k the likeness of men.

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he l humbled himself, and became obedient unto m death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also hath highly n exalted him, and o given him a name which is above every name:

10 That † at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things p in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth:

11 And that every tongue should confess, that Jesus Christ is q Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence onely, but now much more in my absence; r work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

13 For it is s God which worketh in you, both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things without t murmurings, and disputings:

15 That ye may be u blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom x ye shine as lights in the world:

16 Holding forth the y word of life, that I may z rejoyce in the day of Christ, that I have not run a in vain, neither labored in vain.

17 Yea, and if I be † offered upon the sacrifice & service of your faith, I joy, and rejoyce with you all.

18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoyce with me.

19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus, to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of b good comfort when I know your state.

20 For I have no man like-minded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For all seek their c own, not the things which are Jesus Christs.

22 But ye know the d proof of him, that as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But e I trust in the Lord, that I also my self shall come shortly.

FInally, my brethren, rejoyce in the Lord. To write the a same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.
2 Beware of dogs, beware of b evil workers, beware of the concision.
3 For we are the c circumcision, which worship God in the d spirit, and rejoyce in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.
4 Though I might also have confidence e in the flesh. If f any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more.
5 Circumcised the g eight day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews: as touching the law, h a Pharisee:
6 Concerning zeal, i persecuting the church: touching the righteousness which is in the law, k blameless:
7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted l loss for Christ.
8 Yea doubtless, and I count m all things but loss, for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung that I may o win Christ,
9 And be p found in him, not having q mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is r through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:
10 That I may know him, and the s power of his resurrection, and the t fellowship of his sufferings, being u made conformable unto his death,
11 If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead:
12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already y perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.
13 Brethren, z I count not my self to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behinde, and reaching forth unto those things which are a before,
14 I press toward the b mark, for the prize of the high calling of God c in Christ Jesus.
15 Let us therefore, as many as be d perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall e reveal even this unto you
16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the f same rule, let us minde the same thing.
17 Brethren, be g followers together of me, and mark them which walk so, as ye have us for an ensample:
18 (For h many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:
19 Whose end is i destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose k glory is in their shame, who minde earthly things)
20 For our conversation is in heaven, from whence also we l look for the Savior the Lord Jesus Christ:

CHAP. IV.

General exhortations.

THerefore, my brethren, dearly beloved and longe for, my joy and crown, so a stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.
2 I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntiche, that they be of the same minde b in the Lord.
3 And I intreat thee also, true yoke-fellow, c help those women which labored d with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow-laborers, whose names are in the book of life.
4 Rejoyce in the Lord e alway: and again I say, Rejoyce.
5 Let your f moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.
6 g Be careful for nothing: but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God.
7 And the h peace of God which passeth passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are r honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of k good report:
if there be any vertue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 Those things which ye have both learned and received, and heard and seen in me, l do: and the God of peace shall be m with you.

10 But I rejoyced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last n your care of me hath flourished again, wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have o learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to p be content.

12 I know both how to be q abased, and I know how to abound:
every where, and in all things I am instructed, both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things r through Christ which strengthneth me.

14 Notwithstanding, ye have well done, that ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now ye Philippians know also,
that in the beginning of the gospel,
when I departed from Macedonia,
no church communicated with me, as concerning giving and receiving,
but ye onely.

16 For even in t Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 Not because I u desire a gift:
but I desire fruit that may x abound to your account.

18 But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, y an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God.

19 But my God shall supply all your need according to his z riches in glory, by Christ Jesus.

20 Now unto a God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus:
b brethren *w*are with me greet you.

22 All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of b Cesars household.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

¶ The epistle of PAUL the apostle, to the COLOSSIANS.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul thanketh God for their faith:

PAUL an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will a of God, and Timo-theus our brother,

2 To the b saints and faithful brethren in Christ, which are at Colosse: grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We give thanks to God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
c praying always for you:

4 Since we d heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints:

5 For the hope which is e laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel:

6 Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world, and bringeth forth f fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth.

7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellow-servant, who g is for you a faithful minister of Christ:

8 Who also declared unto us your love h in the spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will, in all i wisdom, and spiritual understanding:

10 That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto k all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God:

11 Strengthned with l all might according to his glorious power, unto all patience and long-suffering with joyfulness:

12 Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints m in light:

13 Who hath delivered us from the n power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:

14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the o forgiveness of sins.

15 Who is the p image of the invisible
God, the first-born of every creature.

16 For q by him were all things created that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible: whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and r for him.

17 And he is s before all things,

PAUL, and Sylvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the a Thessalonians which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 We give b thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers,

4 d Knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God.

5 For our gospel came not unto you in word onely, but also in e power, and in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as ye know what manner of men we were among you f for your sake.

6 And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word g in much affliction, with joy of the holy Ghost.

7 So that you were h ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For i from you sounded out the word of the Lord, not onely in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad, so that we need not to speak any thing.

Paul preached at Thessalonica, 18 also the reason of his absence from them.

FOr your selves, brethren, know our a enerance in unto you, that it was not in vain.

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were b shamefully intreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with c much contention.

3 For our exhortation was not of d deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak, e not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a f a cloak of covetousness, God is witness;

6 Nor of men sought we g glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burthensom, as the apostles of Christ.

7 But we were h gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God onely, but also i our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

BUt of the a times and seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.
2 For your selves know perfectly, that the day of the Lord so cometh as b a thief in the night.
3 For when they shall say, c Peace and safety: then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travel upon a woman with childe, and they shall not escape.
4 But ye, brethren, are not d in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.
5 Ye are all the children e of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.
6 Therefore let us not sleep, as do others: but let us f watch and be sober.
7 For they that sleep, sleep in the night: and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.
8 But let us who are of the day be sober, putting on the g brest-plate of faith and love, and for an helmet the hope of salvation.
9 For God hath not h appointed us to wrath: but to i obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,
10 Who died for us, that whether we k wake or sleep, we should live together with him.
11 Wherefore comfort your selves together, and l edifie one another, even as also ye do.
12 And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which m labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;
13 And to esteem them very highly, in love for their n works sake. And be at peace among your selves.
14 Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are o unruly, comfort p the feeble-minded, support the weak, be patient toward all men.
15 See that none render q evil for evil unto any man: but ever follow that which is good, both among your selves, and to all men.
16 r Rejoyce evermore.
17 s Pray without ceasing.
18 t In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.
19 u Quench not the spirit.
20 x Despise not prophecyings.
21 y Prove all things: hold fast that which is good.
22 z Abstain from all appearance of evil.

CHAP. I.

8. The punishment of the ungodly.

PAul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians, a in God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Grace unto you, and peace b from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith c groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth.

4 So that we our selves d glory in you in the churches of God, for your e patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure.

5 Which is f a manifest token of the righteous judgement of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer.

6 Seeing it is g a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you:

7 And to you who are troubled, h rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven, with his mighty angels,

8 In flaming fire, taking vengeance on them that i know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

9 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the k presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power:

10 When he shall come to be l glorified in his saints, and to be m admired in all them that believe, (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

11 Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the n good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power:

12 That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the o grace of our God, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAP. II.

He willeth them to continue stedfast.

NOw we beseech you, brethren, by the a coming of the Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him,

2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by b spirit, nor by c word, nor by letter, as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come d a falling away first, and that e man of sin be revealed, the f son of perdition,

4 Who opposeth and g exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that he, as God, sitteth in the h temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what withholdeth, that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For the i mystery of iniquity doth k already work, only he who now letteth, will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that l wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the m spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the n brightness of his coming:

9 Even him whose coming is after the working of Satan, with all power, and signs, and o lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness p in them that perish; because they q received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And for this cause r God shall send them s strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

12 That they t all might be damned, who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren, beloved of the Lord; because God hath from the u beginning chosen you to salvation, through sanctification of the spirit, and belief of the truth, 14 Whereunto he called you by our x gospel, to the obtaining of the y glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the z traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation, and a good hope through grace, 17 b Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.

2 And that we may be b delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.

3 But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil.

4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do, and d will do the things which we command you.

5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the e love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the f Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw your selves from every brother that walketh g disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.

7 For your selves know how ye ought to follow us: for h we behaved not our selves disorderly among you

8 Neither did we eat any mans bread for nought: but i wrought with labor and travel night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you.

9 Not because we have k not power, but to make our selves an ensample unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would l not work, neither should he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some which walk m among you disorderly, working not at all, but are n busie-bodies.

12 Now them that are such, we command, and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they o work, and eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, be p not weary in well-doing.

14 And if q any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be r ashamed.

15 Yet count him not s as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

16 Now the t Lord of peace himself give you peace always, u by all means. The Lord be x with you y all.

PAul an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the commandment of God our Savior, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is a our hope;

2 Unto Timothy, my own son in the b faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God our Father, and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach c no other doctrine;

4 Neither give heed to d fables, and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather then e godly edifying, which is in faith: so do.

5 Now the f end of the commandment is charity, out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned.

6 From g some having swerved, have turned aside unto vain jangling,

7 Desiring to be h teachers of the law, understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that the law is i good, if a man use it lawfully.

9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for k a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly, and for sinners, for unholy and prophane, for murtherers of fathers, and murtherers of mothers, for man-slayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankinde, for men-stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, & if there be any other thing that is contrary to l sound doctrine,

11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my m trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath n enabled me; for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministery:

13 Who was before a blasphemer, and p a persecuter, and injurious. But I obtained mercy, because I did it q ignorantly in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding r abundant, with faith, and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world s to save sinners, of whom I am t chief.

2 For b kings, and for all that are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 For this is c good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior:

4 Who will have d all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one God, and one e mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus.

6 Who gave himself a ransom for f all, to be testified in due time.

7 Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not) g a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray h every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefastness and sobriety; not with i broidered hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with k good works.

11 Let the women l learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a m woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 For Adam was n first formed, then Eve.

THis is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good a work.

2 A bishop then must be b blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behavior, given to hospitality, c apt to teach;

3 Not given to wine, no striker, nor d greedy of filthy lucre, but patient, not a brawler, not covetous;

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he f take care of the church of God?)

6 Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the ‡ devil.

7 Moreover, he must have g a good report of them which are without, lest he fall into reproach, and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must the h deacons be grave, not double tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre, 9 Holding the i mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be k proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children, and their own houses well.

13 For they that have used the office of a deacon l well, purchase to themselves a good m degree, and great n boldness in the faith, which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly, 15 But if I tarry long, y thou mayest know how thou ought o to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

16 And without controversie, great is the mystery of godliness: p God was manifest in q the flesh, r justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, s received up into glory.

Rules to be obſerved in reproving.

a Tit. 2. 2 1. Sam 6. 15. REbuke not an elder, but a intreat him as a father, and the younger men as brethren:
2 The elder women as mothers, the yonger as ſiſters, with all purity.
3 b Honor widows that are widows indeed.
4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn firſt to ſhew c piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.
5 Now ſhe that is a widow indeed, and deſolate, truſteth in God, and d continueth in ſupplications and prayers night and day.
6 But ſhe that e liveth in pleaſure, is f dead while ſhe liveth.
7 And theſe things give in charge, that they may be blameleſs.
8 But if any g provide not for his own, and ſpecially for thoſe of his own houſe, he hath h denied the faith, and is worſe then an infidel.
9 Let not a widow be i taken into the number, under threeſcore years old, having been the wife of one man,
10 k Well reported of for good works; if ſhe have brought up children, if ſhe have lodged ſtrangers, if ſhe have waſhed the ſaints feet, if ſhe have relieved the afflicted, if ſhe have diligently followed every good work.
11 But the yonger widows refuſe:
for when they have begun to wax l wanton againſt Chriſt, they will marry:
12 Having damnation, becauſe
they have caſt off their m firſt faith.
13 And withal, they learn to be idle; n wandring about from houſe to houſe; and not onely idle, but tatlers alſo, and buſie-bodies, ſpeaking things which they ought not.
14 I will therefore that the yonger women marry, bear children, guide the houſe, give o none occaſion to the adverſary to ſpeak reproachfully.
15 For ſome are already p turned aſide after Satan.
16 If any man or woman that believeth, have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.
17 Let the elders that q rule well, be counted worthy of double honor, eſpecially they who labor in the word and doctrine.
18 For the ſcripture ſaith, Thou

22 Lay hands y suddenly on no man, neither be z partaker of other mens sins: keep thy self pure.

23 Drink a no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomachs sake, and thine often infirmities.

24 Some mens sins are b open before hand, going before to judgement: and some men they c follow after.

25 Likewise also the d good works of some are manifest beforehand, & they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

CHAP. VI.

Of the duties of servants.

1 LEt as many servants as are under the yoke, count their own masters worthy of all honor: that the a name of God, and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren: but rather do them service, because they are faithful and b beloved, partakers of the c benefit. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man teach d otherwise, and consent not to wholesom words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness:

4 He is e proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings,

5 Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that f gain is godliness: from such g withdraw thy self.

6 But godliness with h contentment is great i gain.

7 For we k brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

8 And having l food and raiment, let us be therewith content.

CHAP. I.

Pauls exhortation to Timothy.

PAUL an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, according to the promise of life, which is a in Christ Jesus,

2 To Timothy my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and Christ Jesus our Lord.

a Job. 17.3. Act. 3.15. and 4.12. Joh. 1.16.

10 For the love of money is the o root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But thou, p O man of God, q flee these things: and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

12 r Fight the good fight of faith, s lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

13 I give thee charge in the sight of God, who t quickneth all things, & before Christ Jesus, who u before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession;

14 That thou keep this commandment x without spot, unrebukable, until the y appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Which in z his times he shall shew, who is the blessed and a onely Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords:

16 Who onely hath immortality, b dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto, whom no man c hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honor and power everlasting. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, d nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth e us richly all things to enjoy:

18 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, f ready to distribute, willing to communicate.

19 Laying up g in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

20 O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and h vain babblings, & oppositions of science, falsly so called:

21 Which some i professing, have k erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

CHAP. II.

Timothy exhorted to perſeverance.

a 1 Cor 15. 10 b 1 Ti. 3.10. THou therefore, my ſon, be ſtrong a in ỹ grace that is in Chriſt Jeſus.
2 And the things that thou haſt heard of me among many witneſſes, the ſame commit thou b to faithful men, who ſhalbe able to teach others alſo.
3 Thou therefore d endure hardneſs, as a good ſoldier of Jeſus Chriſt.
4 No man that warreth, e entangleth himſelf with the affairs of this life, that he may f pleaſe him, who hath choſen him to be a ſoldier.
5 And if a man alſo ſtrive for maſteries, yet is he not crowned except he ſtrive g lawfully.
6 The husbandman that laboreth, muſt be firſt h partaker of the fruits.
7 Conſider what I ſay, & the Lord give i thee underſtanding in all things.
8 Remember that Jeſus Chriſt of the k ſeed of David, was raiſed from the dead, according to my goſpel.
9 Wherein I ſuffer trouble l as an evil doer, even unto bonds: but the word of God is m not bound.
10 Therefore I endure all things n for the elects ſakes, that they may alſo obtain the ſalvation which is in Chriſt Jeſus, with eternal glory.
11 It is a faithful ſaying, For if we be dead with him, we ſhall alſo o live with him.
12 If we ſuffer, we ſhall alſo p reign with him: if we deny him, he alſo will deny us.
13 If we believe not, yet he q abideth faithful, he cannot deny himſelf.
14 Of theſe things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord, that they ſtrive not r about words to no profit, but to the ſ ſubverting of the hearers.
15 Study to ſhew thy ſelf t approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be aſhamed, u rightly dividing the word of truth.
16 But x ſhun profane and vain babblings, for they will increaſe unto more ungodlineſs.

Pauls exhortation to Timothy.

I Charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing, and a his kingdom:

2 Preach the word, be instant b in season, c out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine.

3 For the time will come when they will d not endure sound doctrine, but after e their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears.

4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be f turned unto fables.

5 But g watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministery.

6 For h I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

7 I have fought a good fight, I have i finished my course, I have kept the faith.

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a k crown of righteousnes, which the Lord the righteous judge shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but l unto all them also that love his appearing.

9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me.

10 For m Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, & is departed unto Thessalonica: Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.

11 Only Luke is with me. Take Mark and bring him with thee: for he is n profitable to me for the ministery.

PAul a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of Gods elect, and the acknowledging of the truth, which is a after godliness:
2 In hope of eternal life, which c God that cannot lie, b promised before the world began,
3 But hath in due times manifested his word e through preaching, which d is committed unto me, according to the commandment of God our Savior:
4 To d Titus mine own son after the common faith: grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior.
5 For this cause left I thee in f Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting and e ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee.
6 If any be f blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children, not accused of riot, or unruly.
7 For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward o God: not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to g filthy lucre;
8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, h just, holy, temperate,
9 i Holding fast the faithful word, as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort, & to convince the gain-sayers.
10 For there are many unruly and k vain talkers and deceivers, especially they of the circumcision:
11 Whose mouthes must be stopped, who l subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucres sake.
12 One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway m liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.
13 This witness is true: wherefore rebuke them n sharply, that they may be sound in the faith:
14 Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and o commandments of men, that turn from the truth.
15 Unto the pure p all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled, and unbelieving, q is nothing pure: but even their minde and conscience is defiled.
16 They profess that they know God, but in works they r deny him, being abominable and disobedient, & unto every good work reprobate.

GOD who at a sundry times, and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,
2 Hath in these last days spoken unto us b by his Son, whom he hath appointed c heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds,
3 Who being the brightness of his glory, and the d express image of his person, & upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of ỹ majesty on high;
4 Being made so much e better then the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name then they.
5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, f Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? and again, I will g be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a son?
6 And again when he bringeth in the h first begotten into the world, he saith, And i let all the angels of God worship him.
7 And of the angels he saith, Who k maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.
8 But unto the Son he saith, l Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever, a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom:
9 Thou hast loved righteousness, & hated iniquity, therefore God, even thy God hath anointed thee with the oyl of gladness m above thy fellows.

Christ is more excellent then Moses.

WHerefore, holy brethren, partakers of the a heavenly calling, consider the apostle and high priest of our profession Christ Jesus.

2 Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also b Moses was faithful in all his c house.

3 For this d man was counted worthy of more glory then Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house, hath more honor then the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man; but he that built e all things, is God.

5 And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, f as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after.

6 But Christ as a Son over his own g house: whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence, & the rejoycing of the hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore, as the holy Ghost saith, h To day if ye will hear his voice,

8 i Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted k me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

10 Wherefore I was l grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway erre in their heart, and they have not m known my ways.

11 So I n sware in my wrath, they shall not enter into my rest.

12 Take heed brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in o departing from the living God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called, p To day, lest any of you be hardned through the q deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we are made r partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end.

15 While it is s said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For some, when they had heard did provoke: howbeit, t not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had u sinned, whose carcases fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in, because of x unbelief.

22 By so much was Jesus made a x surety of a better testament.
23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue, by reason of death.
24 But this man, because he continueth ever, hath y an unchangeable priesthood.
25 Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost, that z come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make a intercession for them.

NOw for the sum of the things which we have spoken, this is the sum: we have such an high priest, who is a set on the right hand of the throne of the majesty in the heavens:
2 A minister of the sanctuary, and of the b true tabernacle, which the Lord c pitched, and not man.
3 For every high priest is ordained to d offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.
4 For if he were on earth, he should e not be a priest, seeing that there are priests that offer according to the law.
5 Who serve unto the example and f shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God, when he was about to make the tabernacle. For see (saith he) that thou make g all things according to the patern shewed to thee in the mount.
6 But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministery, by how much also he is the h mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises.
7 For if the first covenant had been i faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.
8 For finding fault with them, k he saith, Behold, the days come (saith the Lord) when I will make a new covenant with the house of l Israel, and the house of Juda:
9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.
10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their m minde, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people.
11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for n all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.
12 For I will be o merciful to their unrighteousnes, & their sins & their iniquities will I remember no more.

THen verily the first covenant had also a ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.
2 For there was b a tabernacle made, the first wherein was ȳ candlestick, and the table, & the shew-bread; which is called the sanctuary.
3 And after the c second vail, the tabernacle, which is called the holiest of all:
4 Which had the golden d censer, and the ark of the covenant, overlaid round about with gold, e wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aarons rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant.
5 And over it ȳ cherubims of f glory shadowing ȳ g mercy-seat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.
6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went h always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.
7 But into the second went the high priest alone, i once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people.
8 The holy Ghost this signifying, that that k the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which was a figure for the time then present, l in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to y conscience

10 Which stood only in meats, and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances imposed on them until the time of m reformation.

11 But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect n tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building:

12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves: but by his o own blood, he entred in once into y holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if the blood of bulls, and of p goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the q eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works, r to serve y living God?

15 And for this cause he is the Mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the s redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called, might receive the promise t of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the u testator.

17 For a testament is of force x after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all, whilst the testator liveth.

18 Whereupon neither the first testament was dedicated y without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept z to all the people, according to the law, he took y blood of calves, & of goats, with water, and scarlet-wool, & hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, 20 Saying, This is the a blood of the testament which God hath enjoyned unto you.

21 Moreover, he sprinkled with blood both the b tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministery.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood: & c without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that the paterns of things in the d heavens should be purified with these, but the e heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices then these.

24 For Christ is not entred into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true, but into heaven it self, now f to appear in the presence of God for us.

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself g often, as the high priest entreth into the holy place, every year with blood of others:

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world, hath he h appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as it is i appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:

28 So Christ was once offered k to bear the sins of many, and unto them that look for him, shall he appear the second time, without sin, unto salvation.

CHAP. X.

The weakness of the law-sacrifices.

FOr the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the a very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually, make the comers thereunto b perfect

2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered; because that the worshippers once purged, should have had no more conscience of sins

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats, should e take away sins.

5 Wherefore when he f cometh into the world, he g saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not; but a body hast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt-offerings and h sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure:

7 Then said I, i Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above, when he said, Sacrifice, and offering, and burnt-offerings, and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst k pleasure therein, which are offered by the law:

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy l will, (O God) He taketh away y first that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified, through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ m once for all.

11 And every priest standeth daily ministring, and offering oftentimes the

CHAP. XI.

The nature and efficacy of faith.

NOw faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things a not seen.

a 2 Cor 5.7. John 20.29.

2 For by it the elders obtained a b good report.

b vers. 39.

3 Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed c by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

c 1 Pet 3.5. Psal. 33.6.

d Gen 4.4. Lev. 9.24. 1 King 18.38.

5 By faith Enoch was translated, that he should not see death, and was not found, because God had translated him: for b efore his translation he had this testimony, that he e pleased God e Gen 5.22. Col. 1.10.

6 But f without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God, must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he h condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousnes which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed, and he went out i not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he k sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange countrey, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise.

10 For he looked for a city which l hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also Sara her self received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a childe when she was m past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the skie in multitude, as the sand which is by n the sea-shore innumerable.

13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having o seen them afar off, and were perswaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they p were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things, declare plainly that they seek a countrey.

15 And truly if they had been mindfull of q that countrey, from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.

16 But now they desire a better countrey, that is, r an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath s prepared for them a city.

17 By faith Abraham when he was t tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises, u offered up his onely begotten son, 18 Of whom it was said, that x in Isaac shall they seed be called.

19 Accounting that God y was able to raise him up, even from the dead: from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning z things to come.

21 By faith Jacob when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph, and a worshipped leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith Joseph when he died, made mention of the b departing of the children of Israel, and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith Moses when he was born, was hid three moneths of his parents, because they saw he c was a proper childe, and were not afraid of the kings d commandment.

24 By faith Moses when he was come e to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaohs daughter:

25 Choosing rather to suffer affliction with f people of God then to enjoy the f pleasures of sin for a season:

26 Esteeming the reproach g of Christ greater riches then the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the h recompence of the reward.

27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as i seeing him who is invisible.

28 Through faith he k kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the first-born, should touch them.

29 By faith they l passed through the Red-sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do, were drowned.

30 By faith the m walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

31 By faith the n harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of o Gedeon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephtha, of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets

33 Who through faith p subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousnes, obtained promises, stopped the mouthes of lions,

34 q Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakenes were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 r Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, s not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection.

36 And others had trial of t cruel mockings, and scourgings, yea moreover, of bonds and imprisonment.

37 They were u stoned, they were sawn a sunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandred about in sheep-skins, and goat-skins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented.

Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us a lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the b race ỹ is set before us,

2 Looking unto Jesus the c author, and finisher of our faith, who for d the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be e wearied and faint in your mindes.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto f blood, g striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the h exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and i scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, k God dealeth with you as with sons: for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards and not sons.

9 Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh, which corrected us; and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and l live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for m our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless, afterward, it yieldeth the peaceable fruit n of righteousness, unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the o feeble knees.

13 And make p straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be q turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

16 Lest there be any fornicator, or prophane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his x birthright.

17 For ye know, how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for y he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For ye are not come unto the mount that might be z touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest.

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the a voice of words, which voice they that heard, intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more.

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded: and if so much as b a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust thorow with a dart.

21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly c fear and quake.)

22 But ye are come unto d mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,

23 To the general assembly and church of the e first-born, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, 24 And to Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things f then that of Abel.

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh: for if they g escaped not, who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that h speaketh from heaven.

26 Whose voice i then shook the earth, but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more k I shake not the earth onely, but also heaven.

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that l are made, ỹ those things which cannot be shaken, may m remain.

12 m Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall n receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither o tempteth he any man.

14 But every man is tempted, p when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then when lust hath q conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Do not r erre, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift, and every perfect gift is s from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no t variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18 Of his own u will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kinde of first-fruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be x swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man y worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthiness, and superfluity of naughtiness, and z receive with meekness the ingrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

22 But be ye a doers of the word, and not hearers onely, deceiving your own selves.

23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man, beholding his natural face b in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, c and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But whoso looketh into the perfect law of d liberty, and e continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

26 If any man among you f seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this mans religion is vain.

27 Pure religion, and undefiled before God, and the Father, is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself g unspotted from the world.

g Jude v.23.

CHAP. II.

Regard not the rich, nor despise the poor.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ the Lord a of glory, with b respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your assembly, a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment:

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, & say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place: and say to the poor, Stand thou there or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in your selves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken my beloved brethren, Hath not God c chosen the d poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not e rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?

7 Do not they f blaspheme that worthy name, by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law, according to the scripture, g Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thy self, ye do well.

9 But if ye have h respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is i guilty of all.

11 For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now, if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So k speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

13 For he shall have judgement without mercy, that hath l shewed no mercy: and mercy rejoyceth against judgement.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have m no works? can faith save him?

15 If a n brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you o say unto them, Depart in peace, be you warmed, and filled: notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are p needful to the body: what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is q dead being alone.

18 Yea,

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, & I have works: r shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee s my faith by my works.

19 Thou t believest that there is one God, thou doest well: the u devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, x O vain man that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father y justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 Seest thou how z faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him a for righteousness: and he was called the friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, & not b by faith only.

25 Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the c messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith d without works is dead also.

CHAP. III.

1 The tongue must be bridled.

MY brethren, be not many a masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

2 For in many things b we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, we put c bits in the horses mouthes, that they may obey us, and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold, also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are d they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and e boasteth great things: behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And the tongue is a f fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue amongst our members, that it g defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on h fire of hell.

7 For every kinde of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankinde:

8 But the tongue can i no man tame, it is an unruly evil, k full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father: and therewith curse we men, which are made l after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren these things m ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same † place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig-tree, my brethren, bear olive-berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13 Who is n a wise man and endued with knowledg amongst you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.

14 But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your o hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is p earthly, sensual, devilish.

16 For where envying and strife is, there is confusion, and every evil work.

17 But the wisdom that is q from above, is first pure, r then peaceable, gentle, & easie to be entreated, full of mercy and s good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisie.

18 And the t fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

CHAP. IV.

Against covetousness, and intemperance.

FROM whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts, that a war in your members?

2 Ye lust, and b have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight, and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye c ask amiss, that you may consume it upon your lusts.

4 Ye adulterers, and adulteresses, know ye not that the d friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world, is the enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the e scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy?

6 But he giveth f more grace: wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 g Submit your selves therefore to God: resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 h Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you: cleanse your hands, ye sinners, and purifie your i hearts, ye double minded.

9 Be afflicted, and k mourn, and 14 Whereas ye know not what ſhall be on the q morrow: for what is your life? It is even a vapor that appeareth for a little time, and then vaniſheth away.

GO to now ye rich men, a weep, and howl for your miſeries that ſhall come upon you.

2 Your riches are b corrupted, and your garments moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and ſilver is cankered, and the ruſt of them ſhall be a witneſs againſt you, and ſhall eat your fleſh as it were fire: ye have c heaped treaſure together for the laſt days.

4 Behold, the d hire of the laborers, which have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped, are entred into the ears of the Lord of ſabaoth.

5 Ye have lived in pleaſure on the earth, and been e wanton: ye have nouriſhed your hearts, as in a day of ſlaughter.

6 Ye have condemned and killed the juſt, and he doth f not reſiſt you.

7 Be patient therefore, brethren, g unto the coming of the Lord: behold, the husband man waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain.

8 Be ye alſo patient; ſtabliſh your hearts: for the coming of the b Lord draweth nigh.

9 Grudge not one againſt another, brethren, leſt ye be condemned: behold, the i judge ſtandeth before the door.

10 Take, my brethren, the k prophets, who have ſpoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of ſuffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, we l count them happy, which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have ſeen m the end of the Lord: that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

12 But n above all things, my brethren, ſwear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea, be yea, and your nay, nay, leſt ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him o pray. Is any merry? let him ſing pſalms.

14 Is any ſick among you? let him call for the elders of the church, & let them p pray over him, anointing him with oyl in the name of the Lord:

5 Who are f kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the g last time

6 Wherein ye greatly rejoyce, though now for a season (h if need be) ye are in heavinesse through manifold temptations:

7 That the trial of your faith being much more precious then of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might i be found unto praise, and honor, and glory, at the k appearing of Jesus Christ:

8 Whom having l not seen, ye love: in whom though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye m rejoyce with joy unspeakable, and full of glory:

12 Unto whom it was s revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things which are now reported unto you, by them that have preached the gospel unto you, with the t holy Ghost sent down from heaven: u which things the angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore x gird up the loins of your minde, be sober, and hope to the end, for the y grace that is to be brought unto you, as the revelation of Jesus Christ:

14 As obedient children, z not fashioning your selves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:

peculiar people, that ye should shew forth the n praises of him, who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and p pilgrims, abstain from q fleshly lusts, which war against the soul.

12 Having your conversation honest q among the Gentiles, that whereas they speak against you as evil doers, they may by your good works which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

13 Submit your selves to every ordinance of man, r for the Lords sake, whether it be to s king, as supreme, 14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him, for the punishment of t evil doers, and for the praise of them that do well.

15 For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men.

16 As u free, not using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as x the servants of God.

17 Honor all men. Love the x brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king.

18 Servants, be y subject to your masters, with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

19 For this is thank-worthy, if a man for z conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what glory is it, if when ye be a buffetted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God.

21 For even hereunto were ye b called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that we should c follow his steps.

22 Who did no d sin, neither was guile found in his mouth.

23 Who when he was e reviled, reviled not again: when he suffered, he threatned not, but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously.

24 Who his own self f bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we being g dead to sin, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For ye were as h sheep going astray, but are now returned unto y i Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

CHAP. III.

Wives and husbands duties.

LIkewise, ye wives, be a in subjection to your own husbands, that if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the b conversation of the wives:

2 While they c behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

3 Whose d adorning, let it not be that outward adorning, of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel:

4 But let it be the e hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the f sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in g the old time, the holy women also who trusted in God adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands.

6 Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him h lord: whose daughters ye are as long as ye i do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 Likewise ye husbands, dwell with them according to k knowledge, giving honor unto the wife as unto the weaker vessel, and as being l heirs together of the grace of life, that your prayers be not hindred.

8 Finally, be ye all of m one minde, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous.

9 n Not rendring evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak o no guile.

11 Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him p seek peace, & ensue it.

12 For the q eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil.

13 And r who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

14 But and if ye suffer for righteousness sake, happy are ye: and be not s afraid of their terror, neither be troubled:

15 But t sanctifie the Lord God in your hearts, and be ready always to give an answer u to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear:

CHAP. V.

The elders exhorted to teach

THe elders which are among you I exhort, who am alſo an elder, and a a witneſs of the ſufferings of Chriſt, and alſo b a partaker of the glory that ſhall be revealed.

2 c Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the overſight thereof, not by conſtraint, but willingly: not for d filthy lucre, but of a ready minde:

3 Neither as being e Lords over Gods heritage: but being enſamples to the flock.

4 And when the chief Shepherd ſhall f appear, ye ſhall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

5 Likewiſe ye younger, ſubmit your selves unto the elder; yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

6 Humble your selves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:

7 Casting all your care upon him, for he careth for you.

8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour.

9 Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

10 But the God of all grace, who hath called us into his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.

11 To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 By Silvanus a faithful brother unto you (as I suppose) I have written briefly, exhorting and testifying, that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand.

13 The church that is at Babylon elected together with you, saluteth you, and so doth Marcus my son.

14 Greet ye one another with a kiss of charity: peace be with you all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

¶ The second epistle general of PETER.

CHAP. I

He exhorts them to constancy in the faith.

SImon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained a like precious faith with us, through the righteousness of God, and our Savior Jesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the b knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

3 According as his c divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue;

4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises, that by these you might be partakers of the d divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And e besides this, giving all diligence, adde to your faith, virtue; and to virtue, knowledge;

6 And to f knowledge, temperance; and to temperance, patience; and to patience, godliness;

7 And to g godliness, brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness, charity.

8 For if these things be in you h and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren, nor unfruitful in i knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things, i is blinde, and cannot see far off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election k sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall.

11 For so an entrance shall be ministred unto you abundantly, into the everlasting l kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I will not be m negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think n it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up, by putting you in remembrance:

14 Knowing that o shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath p shewed me.

15 Moreover, I will endeavor that you may be able after my decease, to have these things always in remembrance:

16 For we have not followed q cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the r power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eye witnesses of his majesty.

17 For he s received from God the Father, honor, and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, t This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven, we heard, when we were with him in the u holy mount.

19 We have also x a more sure word of prophecy, whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts:

20 z Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

21 For the prophecy came not in old time by the a will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the holy Ghost.

BUt a there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers b among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And c many shall follow their pernicious ways, by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And through d covetousness shall they with feigned words make e merchandize of you; whose judgement now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not the angels that f sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgement:

5 And spared not the old world, but g saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly:

6 And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrha into ashes, condemned them with an overthrow, making them h an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly:

7 And i delivered just Lot, vexed with the k filthy conversation of the wicked:

8 (For that righteous man l dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds.)

9 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of l temptations, and to m reserve the unjust unto the day of judgement to be punished:

10 But chiefly them that walk after the flesh, in the lust of uncleanness, & n despise government. Presumptuous are they, self-willed: they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities:

11 Whereas o angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord.

12 But these, as p natural brute beasts, made to be taken & destroyed, speak evil of the things that they q understand not, and shall utterly perish in their own corruption.

13 And shall receive the r reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time: s spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own decevings, while they feast with you:

14 Having t eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; u beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices: cursed children.

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the x way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness, 16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with mans voice forbad the madness of the y prophet.

17 These are wells z without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest, to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when they speak a great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean b escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they c promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption; for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world, through the d knowledge of the Lord & Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome; the latter end is worse with them then e beginning.

21 For it had been e better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, then after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true f proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again, and the sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the mire.

7 Little children, let no man i deceive you: he that doth righteousness, is righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 He that committeth sin, is of the devil: for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might k destroy the works of the devil.

9 Whosoever is born of God, doth not commit sin: for his l seed remaineth in him, and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the m devil: whosoever doth not righteousness, is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For this is the message that ye heard from the n beginning, that we should love one another.

12 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother: and wherefore slew he him? because his own works were o evil, and his brothers p righteous.

13 q Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

14 r We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren: he that loveth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Whosoever hateth his brother, is a s murtherer, and ye know that no murtherer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 Hereby perceive we the love of God, because t he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But whoso hath this worlds good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, u how dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but x in deed and in truth.

19 And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts y before him.

20 For if our heart z condemn us, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloved, if our heart a condemn us not, then have we confidence towards God.

22 And whatsoever we b ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 And this is his commandment, y we should believe on the c name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.

24 And he that keepeth his commandments, d dwelleth in him, and he in him: and hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the spirit which he hath given us.

CHAP. IV.

He warneth them of the Catholick faith.

BEloved, a believe not every spirit, but b try the spirits, whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the spirit of God: every spirit that c confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God

3 And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ d is come in the flesh, is not of God: and this is that spirit of Antichrist, whereof you have heard that it should come, and even now already is it in the world.

4 Ye are of God, little children, and have e overcome them: because f greater is he that is in you, then he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world: therefore g speak they of the world, and the world heareth them

6 We are of God: he that knoweth God, heareth us; he that is not of God, heareth not us: hereby know we the h spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is i of God: and every one that loveth, is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not, k knoweth not God; for God is love.

9 In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his onely begotten Son into y world that l we might live through him.

10 Herein is love; m not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, n we ought also to love one another.

12 No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is o perfected in us.

13 Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us p of his Spirit.

14 And we have seen, and do testifie, that the Father sent the Son to be the Savior of the q world.

15 Whosoever shall r confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known, and believed the love that God hath s to us. God is love, 11 And this is the record that God hath l given to us eternal life: and this life is m in his Son.

12 He that hath the n Son, hath life: and he that hath not the Son of God, hath not life.

13 These things have I written unto you that believe on the Name of the o Son of God, that ye may know, that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the Name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that if we ask any thing p according to his will, he heareth us.

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that q we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is r not unto death, he shall s ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death; t I do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 All unrighteousness is sin; and there is a sin not unto death.

18 We know that whosoever is born of God, sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God, u keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole x world lieth in wickedness.

20 And we know that the Son of God y is come, and hath z given us an understanding y we may know him that is true: and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

THE Elder unto the well-beloved Gaius, whom I love a in the truth.

2 Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper, and be in health, even b as thy soul prospereth.

3 For I rejoyced greatly when the brethren came and testified of the c truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth

4 I have no greater joy, then to hear that d my children walk in truth

5 Beloved, thou dost e faithfully whatsoever thou dost to the brethren, and to strangers:

6 Which have f born witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:

7 Because that for his g Names sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles.

8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be h fellow-helpers to the truth.

9 I wrote unto the church, but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the k preeminence among them, receiveth us not.

10 Wherefore if I come, I will l remember his deeds which he doth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and m forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.

11 Beloved, n follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doth good, is of God: but he that doth evil, hath not seen God.

12 Demetrius hath o good report of all men, and of the truth it self; yea, and we also bear record, and ye know that our record is true.

unto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after h strange flesh, are set forth for an i example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 Like wise also these filthy k dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.

9 Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil, he disputed l about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know m naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Wo unto them; for they have gone in the way of n Kain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core.

12 These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, o feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, p twice dead, plucked up by the roots:

13 Raging waves of the sea, q foaming out their own shame; wandring stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

14 And Enoch also the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord r cometh with ten thousands of his saints, 15 To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them, of all their ungodly deeds, which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches, which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts, and their mouth speaketh great t swelling words, having mens persons in admiration, because of advantage.

17 But beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of u the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ:

18 How that they told you there should be x mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

19 These be they who y separate themselves, sensual, having not the spirit.

20 But ye, beloved, z building up your selves on your most holy faith, praying in the holy Ghost, 21 Keep your selves in the love of God, looking for the a mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

22 And of some have compassion, making a b difference.

23 And c others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire: hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to d present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,

CHAP. II.

What is to be written to the angels of the Churches of Ephesus, &c.

UNto the angel of the church of Ephesus, write, these things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who a walketh in the midst of y seven golden candlesticks.

2 I know thy works, and thy labor, and thy patience, and how thou canst b not bear them which are evil: and thou hast c tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

3 And hast born, and hast patience, and for my names sake hast labored, and hast not d fainted.

4 Nevertheless, I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast e left thy first love.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and f do thy first works, or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will g remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the h Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the spirit saith unto the churches, To him that overcometh, will I give to i eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church of k Smyrna, write, These things saith the first, and the last, which was dead and is alive:

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty; but thou art l rich, and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

10 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast m some of you into prison, that ye may be tried, and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the spirit saith unto the churches, He that overcometh, shall not be hurt of the n second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos, Write, these things saith he, who hath the o sharp sword with two edges.

13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satans p seat is: and thou q holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast r there them that hold the doctrine of s Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumbling-block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou t also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.

AND unto the angel of the church in Sardis, Write, Theſe things ſaith he that hath the a ſeven ſpirits of God, and the ſeven ſtars; I know thy works, that thou haſt b a name that thou liveſt, and art dead.

2 Be watchful, and ſtrengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not c found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore how thou haſt d received, and heard, and hold faſt, and repent. If therefore thou ſhalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou ſhalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou haſt a e few names, even in Sardis, which have not defiled their garments, and they ſhall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that f overcometh, the ſame ſhall be clothed in white raiment, and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confeſs his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the ſpirit ſaith unto the churches

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia, write, theſe things ſaith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the g key of David, he that openeth, and no man ſhutteth; and ſhutteth, and no man openeth;

8 I know thy works: Behold I have ſet before thee an open door, and no man can h ſhut it: for thou haſt a little ſtrength, and haſt kept my word, and haſt not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the ſynagogue of Satan, (which ſay they are Jews, and are not, but do lie) behold, I will make them to come and i worſhip before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Becauſe thou haſt kept k the word of my patience, I alſo will l keep thee from the hour of temptation, which ſhall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold, I come quickly: hold that faſt which m thou haſt, that no man take thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh, will I make n a pillar in the temple of my God, and he ſhall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jeruſalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him o my new name.

After this I looked, and behold, a a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with me, which said, b Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.
2 And immediately I was in the spirit: and behold, c a throne was set in heaven, and one sate on the throne.
3 And he that sate, was to look upon like a jasper, and a sardine-stone: and there was d a rain-bowe round about ỹ throne, in sight like unto an emerald.
4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats, and upon the seats I saw four and twenty e elders sitting, clothed in white raiment, and they had on their heads crowns of gold.
5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thundrings, and voices: and there were seven f lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven spirits of God.
6 And before the throne there was a sea of glass like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were g four beasts full of eyes before and behinde.
7 And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, & the third beast had a face as a man, & the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.
8 And the four beasts had each of them h six wings about him, and they were full of eyes i within; and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

The Book with seven seals.

And I saw in the right hand of him that sate on the throne, a book written within, and on the back side, sealed with seven a seals.
2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, b Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?
3 And c no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.
4 And I d wept much because no man was found worthy to open, and to read the book, neither to look thereon.
5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the lion of the tribe of Judah, the root of David, hath e prevailed to open the book and to loose the seven seals thereof.
6 And I beheld, and lo, in f the midst of the throne, and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders stood a Lamb as it had been slain: having g seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent forth into all the earth.
7 And he came and h took the book out of the right hand of him that sate upon the throne.
8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts, and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the i prayers of saints.
9 And they sung k a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for 11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many n angels round about the throne, and the beasts, and the elders, and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands,

12 Saying with a loud voice, worthy is the Lamb that was slain, o to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing.

13 And p every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, & under the earth, & such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I, saying, Blessing, honor, glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

14 And the four beasts q said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

CHAP. VI.

The opening of the seals in order.

AND I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of a thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come, & see.

2 And I saw, and behold, b a white horse, and he that sat on him had a bowe, and a crown was given unto him, and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, c Come, and see.

4 And there went out another horse that was red: and power was d given to him that sat thereon, to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: & there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come, and see. And I beheld, and lo, a e black horse, and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a f peny, and three measures of barley for a peny, & see thou g hurt not the oyl, and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come, and see.

8 And I looked, and behold, h a pale horse, and his name that sat on him was Death, and hell followed with him: and power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the i altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held.

10 And they k cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not l judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And white robes were given unto every one of them, and it was said unto them, that they should rest for a little season, until their fellow-servants also, and their brethren that should be m killed as they were, should be n fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and lo, there was a great o earth-quake, and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood.

13 And the p stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig-tree casteth her untimely figs when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

14 And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together, and every mountain and island were q moved out of their places.

15 And the r kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, & the mighty men, and every bond-man, and every free-man, hid themselves, in the dens, and in the rocks of the mountains,

16 And said to the mountains and rocks, s Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb.

17 For the t great day of his wrath is come, and u who shall be able to stand?

3 The servants of God sealed.

AND after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four a winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

3 And another c angel came & stood at the altar, having a golden censer, & there was given unto him much incense, ỹ d he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar, which was before the throne. Psal. 78.38 1 Pet. 3.20. c Mal 3.1.

4 And the smoke of the incense which came with the prayers of the saints, e ascended up before God out of the angels hand. Rom. 8.34. Hebr. 13 10

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire off the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were f voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake. d Ephe 1.6, Mat. 3.17. Ephes. 5.2.

ven, saying with a loud voice, n Wo, wo, wo to the o inhabiters of the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels which are yet to sound.

CHAP. IX.

The sounding of the fifth angel.

AND the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit, and there arose b a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace, and the sun and the air were darkned by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke c locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them that they should d not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree: but onely those men which have e not the seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should f be tormented five moneths: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days shall men g seek death, & shall not find it, & shall desire to die, & death shall flee from them.

7 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto h horses prepared unto battel, and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the i faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the k hair of women, and their l teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had m brest-plates as it were brest-plates of iron, and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battel.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were n stings in their tails, and their power was to hurt men five moneths.

11 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is o Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.

12 p One wo is ‡ past, and behold, there come two woes more hereafter

13 And the sixth angel sounded, & I heard a voice from ŷ four q horns of ŷ golden altar, which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are r bound in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the four angels were ‡ loosed, which were prepared for an hour and a day, and a moneth, and year, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of the army of the horsmen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having brest-plates of fire, and of jacinct, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions, and out of their mouths issued fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone which issued out of their mouthes.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues, yet t repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, & idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood, which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk.

21 Neither repented they of u their murthers, nor of their x sorceries, nor of their y fornication, nor of their z thefts.

CHAP. X.

1 An angel with an open book.

AND I saw another a mighty angel come down from heaven clothed with a cloud, & a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his b feet as pillars of fire

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, & his left foot on the c earth,

3 And cried ŵ a loud voice, as when d a lion roareth: & when he had cried seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, e Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea, and upon the earth, lifted up his hand to heaven,

4 And his tail drew the third part of the starſ of heaven, and did cast them to the d earth: and the dragon e stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her childe assoon as it was born.

The dragon giveth power to the beast.

AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast a rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of b blasphemy.

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death, and his deadly wound was healed: and e all the world wondred after the beast.

4 And they f worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast, and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things, and blasphemies; and g power was given unto him to continue forty and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy h against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to i overcome them: and power was given him over k all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

CHAP. XV.

The seven last plagues.

AND I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels, having ỹ seven a last plagues, for in them is filled up the wrath of God.
2 And I saw as it were a sea of glass, b mingled with fire, and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, c stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.
3 And they sing the song of d Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty, just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.
4 Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorifie thy name? for thou onely art holy: for e all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgements are made manifest.
5 And after that I looked, and behold, the temple of the tabernacle of ỹ f testimony in heaven was opened.
6 And the seven angels came g out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in h pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.
7 And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels, seven golden i vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.
8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power, and no man was k able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAP. XVI.

The angels pour out their vials of wrath.

AND I heard a great voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, a Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.
2 And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the b earth; and there fell a noisom and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.
3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the c sea, and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.
4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the d rivers, and fountains of waters, and they became blood.
5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art e righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus:
6 For they have shed the blood of saints, and prophets, and thou hast f given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.
7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, g true, and righteous are thy judgements.
8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the h sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.
9 And men were scorched with great heat, and i blasphemed the Name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.
10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon k ỹ seat of the beast, and his kingdom was full of l darkness, and they gnawed their tongues for pain,
11 And m blasphemed ỹ God of heaven because of their pains, and their sores, & repented not of their deeds.
12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the n water thereof was dryed up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.
13 And I saw three o unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.
14 For they are the p spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the q kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the battel of that great day of God Almighty.
15 Behold, r I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his s shame.
16 And he gathered them together into a place, called in the Hebrew tongue, t Armageddon.
17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the u air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven from the throne, saying, It is x done.

I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns. 8 The beast that thou sawest, was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder (whose m names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And here is the n minde which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth. 10 And there are seven kings, five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come: and when he cometh, he must continue a o short space. 11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition. 12 And the ten horns which thou sawest, are ten ‡ kings, which have received no kingdom as yet, but receive power as kings one hour with the beast. 13 These have p one minde, and shall give their q power and strength unto the beast. 14 These shall make war with r the Lamb, & the Lamb shall / overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, & King of kings, and they that are with him, are called, and chosen, and faithful. 15 And he saith unto me, The waters which thou s sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues. 16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, u these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and x burn her with fire. 17 For God hath put in their hearts y to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, z until the words of God shall be fulfilled. 18 And the woman which thou sawest, is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, d Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues:

5 For her sins have e reached unto heaven, and God hath remembred her iniquities.

6 f Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled, fill to her double.

7 How much she hath g glorified her self, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come h in one day, death and mourning, and famine, and she shall be utterly burnt with fire: for i strong is the Lord God who judgeth her

9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication, & lived deliciously with her, shall k bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the l smoke of her burning:

10 Standing m afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, ỹ mighty city: for in one hour is thy judgement come.

11 And ỹ merchants of ỹ earth shall weep & mourn over her, for no man buyeth their n merchandize any more:

14 And the fruits that thy q soul lusted after, are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly, are departed from thee, and thou shalt finde them r no more at all.

15 The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off, for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

17 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every s shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailers, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, 18 And cryed, when they saw the t smoke of her burning, saying, What u city is like unto this great city?

19 And they x cast dust on their heads, & cryed, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, ỹ great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea, by reason of her costlines: for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 y Rejoyce over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles, and prophets, for God hath avenged you on her.

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great milstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall z be found no more at all.

22 And the voice of a harpers, & musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee: and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee: and the sound of a milstone shall be heard no more at all in thee.

1 God is praised for judging the whore, and avenging the blood of his saints.

AND after these things I heard a great voice of much people a in heaven, saying, Alleluia; salvation, and glory, and honor, and power unto the Lord our God:

2 For b true and righteous are his judgements; for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Alleluia: c & her smoke rose up for ever and ever

4 And the d four and twenty elders, and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen, Alleluia.

6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, & as the voice of mighty thundrings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent f reigneth

7 Let us be glad and rejoye, and give honor to him; for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and g his wife hath made her self ready.

8 And to her was granted, that she should be arayed in h fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousnes of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are i called unto the marriage-supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

10 And I fell at his feet to worship him, and he said unto me, See k thou do it not: I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren, that have the testimony of Jesus, worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

11 And I saw l heaven opened, and behold, a white-horse; and he that sat upon him was called faithful and true, and m in righteousnes he doth judge and make war.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were n many crowns, and he had a name written that no man o knew but he himself.

13 And he was clothed with a vesture p dipt in blood: and his name is called, The word of God.

14 And the q armies which were in heaven, followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And out of his r mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and s he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

16 And he hath on his vesture, and on his thigh a name written, t KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun, and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the u fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather your selves together unto the supper of the great God:

18 That ye may eat the flesh of x kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 And I saw the y beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies gathered together, to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast z alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

21 And the a remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

2 Satan bound. 6 the first resurrection.

AND I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the a key of the bottomless pit, and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on the dragon that b old serpent, which is the devil and Satan, and bound him a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should c deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgement was d given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands: and they lived and e reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the f rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is g the first resurrection

6 h Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the i second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God, and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be k loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall go out to deceive the nations, which are in the four quarters of the earth, l Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battel: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

2 And I John saw the holy city, b new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared c as a bride adorned for her husband.
3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his d people, and God himself shall be e with them, and be their God.
4 And God shall f wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.
5 And he that sat upon the throne, said, Behold, I make all things g new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.
6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end: I will give unto him that is h a thirst, of the fountain of the water of life freely.

9 And there came unto me l one of the seven angels, which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will m shew thee the bride, the Lambs wife.
10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that n great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,
11 Having the o glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper-stone, clear as crystal;

24 And the nations of them which are c saved, shall walk in the light of it: and the d kings of the earth do bring their glory and honor into it.

25 And the gates of it shall e not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.

27 And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lambs book of life.

CHAP. XXII.

The water and tree of life.

AND he shewed me a pure a river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the lamb.

2 In the midst of the street of it, and of either side of the river, was there the b tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every moneth: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

3 And there shall be c no more curse: but the throne of God, and of the Lamb shall be in it, and his servants shall serve him.

4 And they shall d see his face, and his Name shall be in their foreheads.

5 And there shall be no night there, and they need no candle, neither light of the sun: for the Lord God giveth them light, and e they shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, These sayings are f faithful and true. And the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7 Behold, g I come quickly: Blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And I John f saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, g I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel, which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

10 And he saith unto me, h Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.

11 He that is unjust, i let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And behold, I come quickly, and k my reward is with me, to give every man according as his works shall be.

13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the l first and the last.

14 Blessed are they that m do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and n may enter in through the gates into the city.

15 For o without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murtherers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

16 I Jesus have sent mine angel to testifie p unto you these things in the churches. I am the q root, and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning Star.

17 And the Spirit and the Bride say, r Come. And let him that heareth, say, Come. And let him that is a thirst Come. And whosoever s will, let him take the water of life freely.

18 For I testifie unto every man that heareth the word of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall t adde unto these things, God shall adde unto him the plagues that are written in this book.

19 And if any man shall u take away from the words of the book of this prophecy; God shall take away his x part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things, which are written in this book.

20 He which testifieth these things, saith, Surely, I come quickly. Amen. Even so, y Come, Lord Jesus.

21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
